COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal

Session 1937. 132d of the General Assembly.

Vol. 21. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, APRIL 13, 1937. No. 42.

SENATE

TUESDAY, April 13, 1937.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy Name, O most High: To shew forth Thy loving kindness in the morning, and Thy faithfulness every night. In memory we trace the annals of Thy guiding hand; in outlook, we behold the multitude of Thy mercies; in all is well; for Thou art good, that God is in His Heaven, and all is right with the world!

Help us our Father, to answer Thy goodness with all that we have and are. Purify our hearts, that we may see with clear vision. Rectify our conversation to the language of Heaven, that we may feel at home in Thy company. Broaden our provincial lives to the larger fellowship of universal need and longing. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. KAHLE, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

A PLAGUE ON BOTH YOUR HOUSES
(Also the Executive, Judicial and Lobby Branches)

RESOLUTION No. 2-time Binge of 1937

TO BE INTRODUCED BY THE PLCA, APRIL 21, 1937.
PLACE, PENN HARRIS HOTEL, 6:30 p. m.

In a Daze, Any Day, 1937.

Whereas, Members of the so-called Legislature, the so-called Administration, the so-called courts, the so-called Democratic Party, the so-called Republican Party, the vested interests, the sugar-coated interests, the shoeless interests and all other non-interest-bearing interests have been raising hell hereabouts for more than three months; and

Whereas, This hell-raising has included so-called investigations of everybody, risings to personal privilege, mandates of certain people, caucuses, rumors, so-called politics, statements by unanimous consent, committees of the whole, reconsiderations and other horseplay at the expense of the taxpayer according to his inability to pay; and

Whereas, All this hell-raising has disrupted, interferred with, postponed, annoyed and otherwise inexcusably invaded the civil, human and property rights of newspaper correspondents to an abundant life of poker games, social engagements, slumber, meals, refreshments and other matters essential to welfare, health, recreation and good living; Therefore

Be It Resolved, and it already is resolved (the House of Representatives and the Senate notwithstanding), that a committee be appointed, and already has been appointed, to arrange, promote, concoct and otherwise cook up a dinner, show and debauchery to be facetiously known as The Sizzling Skillet, to be greased at the Penn-Harris Hotel, April 21, 1937, at 6:30 p. m., and

Be It Further Resolved, and it is so resolved, that this Committee be empowered to issue credentials under the sign and seal of damnfoolishness, commanding all legislators, bosses, lobbyists, politicos, office-holders and sundry others who have five dollars in cash to appear at said Sizzling Skillet on said date to view an investigation of legislative and administrative hell-raising for purposes of additional ripping; and

Be It Further Resolved, and it is so resolved that all persons entitled to said credentials (all persons with $5 are so entitled) be required to pay said $5 in advance and in legal tender to Walter D. Roos, secretary-treasurer of The Sizzling Skillet Committee, who may be addressed at Postoffice Box 221, Harrisburg, or to any newspaper correspondent, all of whom may be found in or about the Capitol Newsroom No. 524, E Floor, Capitol Building, Harrisburg.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representative accordingly.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Which was committed to the Committee on Municipal Government.

RELATIVE TO SIT-DOWN STRIKES

Mr. OWLETT offered the following resolution, which was twice read,

Whereas, Sit-down strikes have become increasingly prevalent throughout the country, and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has not been immune from this form of lawlessness as is evidenced by occurrences in Hershey, Reading, and elsewhere; and

Whereas, Such unlawful seizures of property, unopposed and unresisted by those vested by law with the duty of preserving the peace and protecting property, may lead to conditions of anarchy, which in the end will destroy those organizations who are responsible for it and be injurious to the cause of labor; and

Whereas, The recent affair at Hershey is an evidence of the old truth that violence breeds violence; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania condemns the sit-down strike as an unlawful technique, injurious to the cause of labor, to the employer, and to the general public, and calls upon those responsible for such conditions to desist from employing such means in the future, and calls upon those vested with authority to employ all lawful means to protect private property and the public interest whenever or wherever such unlawful tactics are hereafter resorted to in this Commonwealth.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that Rule 39, which requires resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I object to immediate consideration.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I would like to speak in oposition to the immediate consideration of this resolution. We know in the State, presumably, what the laws of the State are. We presume that there are officials who deal with the enforcement of the law and know what the laws of this State are, and what the necessities of any particular situation may be which call for the enforcement in one manner or another of any of the laws respecting private property. I think action, such as the Senate is now being requested to take, only irritates the situation which, in the opinion of everybody, is to some extent deplorable, and yet probably not unwise, nor so much in this State as the proponents of this resolution would have us believe. Sit-down strikes in this country have been more or less favored. It has been a good deal, in my mind, like "yes, we have no bananas," and will probably die the same sort of a natural death as some of other of these periodic abortions that we have in this country. I think we are to the highest degree ridiculous when we try to to pass a resolution about a matter of this kind. If there is any legislation that we need in this State to deal with this situation, that is what we are here for. Last night we talked about memorializing committees. This resolution is only to memorialize civil officers to do what they are already sworn to do under the Constitution of this State. Why is it necessary for us to do anything of that sort? Mr. President, I say if we have the need of additional legislation to protect property rights where they need to legislation to protect property rights where they need to be protected, let the Senator from Tioga introduce that legislation and let us act on that. We are stepping entirely out of the field of our position as legislators to take up every whim and pass resolutions about it on the floor of this Senate. A matter of this kind is not a matter which is really in the functions of the Senate as a legislative body. It certainly is not the sort of thing that we should be stampeded into doing, any more than strikes should be stampeded into sit-down strikes in any particular industry, and I say, when we try to pass off-hand a resolution such as this, that we are giving countenance to the whole psychology of sit-down strikes rather than trying to do something to prevent it, and we are putting ourselves upon the same level of the situation that the Senator from Tioga compalins about in his resolution.

Mr. President, therefore, I protest against immediate action on this resolution, and ask that the same be referred to an appropriate committee.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, the reason for my objecting to the immediate consideration of this resolution is that the conditions complained of in the resolution were brought about or generally brought about by the employers' refusal to obey the dictates of the American people wherein they have approved the idea of collctive bargaining on the part of the employee throughout these whole United States, of which this Commonwealth is a part. These sit-down strikes have been solely due to the refusal of the operators to heed the progress of the times, and yield to the idea of collective bargaining. We have noted that last Monday the Supreme Court of the United States held valid the Wagner Labor Relations Bill, which is a step forward in coercing the employer to tolerate the idea of colective bargaining, and I feel sure that hereafter this wide-spread fever of sit-down strikes will not be as wide-spread as it has been, because the employer is now under a law required to recognize the idea of collective bargaining and sit-down strikes will be fewer. This resolution ought to be considered in committee before it is acted upon.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, the subject introduced in the resolution is one that I do not believe should be considered by the Senate at this time. It is the purpose in connection with all labor relations bills to have a public hearing, and I believe it is not the time for this Senate to express itself on any of the provisions in our present Labor Relations bill. I would suggest, therefore, that the Senators do not express their views at this time in relation to the subject of the resolution.

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I move that this resolution and the motion be laid on the table.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the resolution is before the Senate and there is nothing in order but a roll call.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, a motion to lay on the table is always in order, and I ask for a roll call on the motion to table the resolution.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. A motion is made by the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, and seconded by the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, that the resolution and the motion to suspend Rule 39 for its immediate consideration be laid on the table.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, before the question is put on the motion, I would like to raise the point that the motion is out of order. I make that point of order for your decision.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair rules that the motion to lay on the table is in order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, and my point of order is not well taken? Then I renew my request for a roll call to table the motion to suspend the rule.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will state his point of information.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, it appears here that under the rules of the Senate when objection is made to immediate consideration of a resolution, it goes to Committee. Now then, a motion was made to suspend the rules so that immediate action could be had, and now, while that motion is pending, another motion to table the resolution, which would, have the effect, if passed, prevent the resolution from being referred to a committee under the rules of the Senate. Do I understand then that the motion to table must be carried by a two-third vote?

The PRESIDENT. No, the Chair does not so understand. The motion is to table the motion to suspend, and it carries with it the tabling of the resolution. The Chair understands that is the purpose of the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, before the vote is announced, I desire to make a point of order for your decision.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, this being in effect a motion to suspend the rules, I submit a two-thirds vote is required to carry this motion.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is not well taken. The Chair rules that a bare majority is all that is necessary to lay on the table.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BUCKMAN and Mr. OWLETT, and were as follows, viz:

Cavalcante,	Huffman,	McGinnis,	Rodgers,
Dando,	Jacobs,	Mundy,	Rupp,
DiSilvestro,	Jaspan,	Pytko,	Ruth,
Erce,	Kahle,	Rankin,	Sipe,
Frey,	Kilgallen,	Reed,	Sones,
Gilson,	Kunkel,	Rice,	Stiefel,
Haluska,	Lanius,	Roberts,	Thompson,
Henney,	McCreesh,

NAYS—17

Bean,	Gelder,	Mallery,	Scarlett,
Buckman,	Heyburn,	Owlett,	Shapiro,
Chapman,	Homsher,	Stearn,	Snyder,
Deitrick,	Howell,	Salus,	Wolfenden,
Ealy,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to explain my vote. I do not believe that this Senate should table a matter of this kind at this time, and I say that we are in a position now to act on this resolution and that it should not lie on the table. This is a resolution, as I heard it read, which asks us to request the law enforcement officers to do certain things. The question involved is whether certain people who are acting in a manner which has come to public notice are taking possession of property, and I have seen the law of this Commonwealth change so radically, and our opinion of what is private property so rapidly that I do not think this Senate should determine whether or not the acts are interference with property. I recall that picketing, not so many years ago, was declared illegal; I recall that mass picketing, after picketing in individual instances was permitted, was declared illegal. I recall now that picketing is legal and has been made so by law, and that law has followed the trend of thought and the development of the ideas of what are the rights of the individual, and under those circumstances I still say the question is, what is private property? I do not think that those people who do what is called "sit down", do it with the same intent as trespassers in your back yard, and because what they do may not be an interference with private property, and because there may be some justification in their attitude on the subject, and there may be some reason in what they say, that they have a property interest in doing what they are doing, I do not think this legislature should determine that question. The only thing that I am glad about is that I see in the whole picture that there is not that serious attempt to take possession of property which we find in a criminal mind. After all a crime always is a matter of intent, and as long as the person lacks an intent to commit a crime, he cannot be convicted of a crime, and the fortunate thing about this whole affair is that the people acting in the manner in which they are acting, do it not with a criminal intent, and it is therefore my belief that this Senate should have acted on this resolution and should have voted it down, because it is none of our business at this time to settle once and for all a question about which we know nothing. We do not know why these people did what they did, and we do do not know, except through newspapers, what they are doing, and the efforts on the part of some members of this Senate to place on record the attitude of mind of individual Senators for the purpose of embarrassing them, does not help a very delicate and a very troublesome problem, not at least to the extent of solving it. The way to handle this situation, was to vote on the resolution and vote it down, and allow these contending factions, in an orderly manner, to find out first who is right in the matter, find out who are the bosses, and whether in doing these things the people are committing a crime. So far the local authorities have been able to handle the situation, and therefore it is not necessary for us to further agitate the conditions by passing resolutions. In my opinion this Senate should have voted the resolution down, and it was because of that I voted "no" to table the resolution.

RESOLUTION

COMMITTEE OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY TO WRITE CHAPTERS IN COMMEMORATION OF THE 300th ANNIVERSARY OF THE LANDING OF THE SHIPS KALMAR NYCKEL AND FOGEL GRIP ON THE DELAWARE IN MARCH 1638 AND THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE COLONY OF NEW SWEDEN AND IN CONNECTION WITH THE NATIONAL CELEBRATION OF THE 150th ANNIVERSARY OF THE FRAMING, THE SIGNING, THE RATIFICATION BY PENNSYLVANIA AND THE FINAL ADOPTION AND ESTABLISHMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES. TO BE PRINTED IN THE 1937-38 PENNSYLVANIA MANUAL.

Mr. STIEFEL offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

In the Senate, April 13, 1937.

Whereas the General Assembly by the Act approved July 22, 1936 Pamphlet Laws 70 authorized and directed the Pennsylvania Historical Commission of the Department of Public Instruction for and on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to arrange for the participation of the Commonwealth in a national celebration of the 150th Anniversary of the Framing, the Signing, the Ratification by Pennsylvania and the Final Adoption and Establishment of the Constitution of the United States and

Whereas The Honorable George H. Earle Governor of the Commonwealth did on the first day of August 1936 issue a proclamation to the Citizens of Pennsylvania calling their attention to the 150th Anniversary of the Constitution proclaiming the years 1937-38-39 a period of State wide commemoration reminding them of the important and significant role of the Pennsylvania delegation in the Constitutional Convention of 1787 and of the vigorous steps taken by Pennsylvania to secure the ratification and establishment of the Constitution of the Government of the United States of America offering to the entire nation the whole hearted hospitality of this Commonwealth and calling upon all Citizens of Pennsylvania to give their loyal interest and support to local demonstrations throughout the Commonwealth to the end that from this period of commemoration may come renewed confidence in the vital strength of our Republic and a firm faith in its continuing greatness and enlightment and

Whereas the General Assembly by the Act approved July 28, 1936 Pamphlet Laws 79 authorized and directed the Pennsylvania Historical Commission of the Department of Public Instruction to set for and on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in arranging a suitable commemoration of the 300th Anniversary of the landing of the ships Kalmar Nyckel and Fogel Grip on the Delaware in March 1638 and the establishment of the colony of New Sweden as well as the coming of the first Dutch English German Welsh Irish and other settlers by whom were established the earliest settlements the first courts of law and the first capital within what is now Pennsylvania and

Whereas this General Assembly being mindful of the character and qualities of our founders and forefathers and of their achievement in establishing the colony of New Sweden and of maintaining and preserving peaceful and harmonious relations with the Indians and the neighboring colonies thereby laying the foundations for the subsequent Colony and of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and enabling it to develop quickly into the greatest richest and most populous province among the Original Thirteen Colonies and making possible Philadelphia's rise as the greatest city of colonial America and the establishment of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as the Keystone in the great arch of states and this General Assembly being mindful also that such character qualities pioneering efforts and achievements were the foundations upon which our Pennsylvania civilization is based and being mindful of the honorable pride and great interest of our citizens therein desires to make said Tercentenary Celebration an occasion of State National and world-wide reunion to commemorate those inspiring and momentous events and

Whereas the said Tercentenary Anniversary Celebration will arouse stimulate and encourage the interest of all of our citizens and the citizens of other states and countries young and old in a knowledge and study of the inspiring history of the founding establishing and development of this Commonwealth and will interpret and emphasize the spiritual and educational forces of the past and

Whereas adequate commemorations of these immortal events will enhance and further increase the interest of our Nation and the people of our Commonwealth in the glorious and inspiring past of Pennsylvania and

Whereas a thoughtfully planned and well-directed distribution of succinct summaries of these epoch making events that molded modern civilization and left their indellible marks upon the development of the Western Hemisphere, would be of great historical, cultural and educational value to the people of the United States and the inhabitants of our Commonwealth and

Whereas, "The Pennsylvania Manual" published by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and compiled under direction of the Bureau of Publications of the Department of Property and Supplies is the official primary-source-book of information pertaining to our Commonwealth, its government and institutions, and

Whereas, thousands of exemplars of said "Pennsylvania Manual" are being annually distributed throughout the nation and our Commonwealth, thus providing a channel for the dissemination of valuable information, and

Whereas, preparations are now being made for the publication of the forthcoming issue of "The Pennsylvania Manual" for the 1937-1938 biennium, and

Whereas, the inclusion of chapters dedicated to the 150th Anniversary Celebration of the Constitution of the United States and 300th Anniversary of the establishment of New Sweden will supply a glorious phase of the historical background of our Commonwealth, the ample description whereof, was heretofore not included in the "Pennsyylvania Manual" and

Whereas, the inclusion of such chapters in the forthcoming 1937-1938 issue of "The Pennsylvania Manual" will vitalize its contents and enhance its value as the primary source-book of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That the forthcoming issue of "The Pennsylvania Manual" for the 1937-1938 biennium shall contain in addition to its usual material also new chapters dedicated to the 150th Anniversary Celebration of the Constitution of the United States and 300th Anniversary of the establishment of New Sweden, and be it further

Resolved That the President Pro Tem of the Senate appoint three (3) Senators and the Speaker of the House appoint (3) Representatives, who together shall form a Committee to write and to edit said chapters and be it further

Resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to His Excellency the Governor of Pennsylvania, the Secretary of Property and Supplies, and the Pennsylvania Historical Commission of the Department of Public Instruction.

Respectfully submitted,

Israel Stiefel.

C. Hale Sipe.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I move that Rule 39, which requires concurrence resolutions to be referred to an appropriation committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, the resolution which I have offered is being sponsored jointly by Senator C. Hale Sipe, of Armstrong County, and myself. So sacred and important is the subject matter of this resolution from an historical viewpoint, that I would prefer to have my colleague, Senator C. Hale Sipe, who is one of the outstanding historians on early Pennsylvania, and a leading authority on the early Indian Wars, to state the introductory remarks on this resolution.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I will take a few minutes of the Senate's time to say a few words on the resolution introduced by Senator Stiefel and myself, calling for the insertion in the Pennsylvania Manual of a chapter on the first settlements, the first courts and the first State House in Pennsylvania—in other words, a short chapter on the history of New Sweden, founded here on Pennsylvania soil before William Penn was born.

This subject, like all other matters relating to early Pennsylvania history, is very dear to my heart. Naturally so. My ancestral roots run back in Pennsylvania soil to New Sweden and to a time twenty-eight years before William Penn set foot upon the shores of the Delaware; and in my veins runs the blood of every racial stock that contributed to the making of Pennsylvania.

I take a little pardonable pride in the fact that my forebears, paternal and maternal, were in the very van of that great migration which, almost two hundred years ago, crossed the waters of the winding Susquehanna, thence came up the waters of the blue Juniata, thence over the Allegheny Mountains to the waters of the scenic Allegheny and the broad Ohio. In the course of this migration, (for it lasted a generation or two), many of them sank into their graves on their forest farms with the rocks of the forest to guard their rest, with the murmuring winds among the trees to sound their dirge and with the wild flowers of our Pennsylvania woodlands to utter their eulogy in the oratory of perfumed silence.

Yesterday I received a letter from the Pennsylvania Historical Commission in which was the following paragraph which gives me a text for the major part of my remarks:

"Somehow we seem to be creating more interest throughout the State historically in this 300th Anniversary than in anything else. I suppose it is because the facts are unknown to the Public—and how under Heaven can they know since they are not in our school text books."

The Colony of New Sweden was conceived in the fertile mind of the most illustrious king that Sweden ever had—Gustavus Adolphus—who, as early as 1624, planned to establish on the shores of the Delaware a Swedish settlement in which the laborers should enjoy the fruit of his toil and which should be an asylum for the persecuted of all Christendom. At that time the awful thirty years war was raging in Europe, and so amid its fire and blood and desolation and devastation the great king dreamed this noble dream, planned this noble plan, which, in the providence of Almighty God he was not destined to carry into execution, as he laid down his life on one of the battlefields of Germany in 1632. But his daughter, Christina, who succeeded to the Swedish throne, carried out the plans of her more than illustrious father, and in the autumn of 1637 sent two ships, the Kalmar Nyckel and the Fogel Grip, carrying Swedes and Finns to the western world. These ships arived on the banks of the Delaware in the latter part of March 1638, and thus the Colony of New Sweden was founded.

Here on Pennsylvania soil this ignored and forgotten colony made the first settlements in the Keystone State, and the able Swedish Governor, John Printz, one of the most admirable characters in early American history, established the first permanent seat of government in Pennsylvania, erecting, before William Penn was born, a state house that stood for one hundred and sixty years.

We have a shameful situation here in Pennsylvania. By this statement I mean that every school child, ten years of age, in Pennsylvania can tell you right off hand the name of the ship that brought the first setlers to Massachusetts, hundreds of miles from Pennsylvania; but not one school teacher in a hundred in Pennsylvania can tell you the names of the ships that brought the first settlers to their own Keystone State. Every school child, ten years of age, in Pennsylvania can tell you right off hand a great deal about Miles Standish, the leading figure in the first settlements in Massachusetts; but not one school teacher in a hundred in Pennsylvania can tell you the name of the able Swedish Governor who, one year before William Penn was born, established the first permanent seat of government in the Keystone State and erected a state house which stood for one hundred and sixty years. Of course, our Pennsylvania school teachers are not to blame. They did not write the history texts that are used in our schools.

The Colony of New Sweden had many excellencies which, in the language of Shakespeare, "plead like angels, trumpet tongued, against the deep damnation" of ignoring the high spots of the history of this Colony in any history texts used in the public schools of the great Keystone State.

I do not have time to enumerate all of these excellencies but let me call your attention to three of them as follows:

(1) There was no slavery in the Colony of New Sweden. Hence it is not strange that at a later day there was issued in Pennsylvania the first protest against slavery on the American continent, although many so-called educated Pennsylvanians seem to think that the agitation against slavery began in New England among the templed hills of the puritans.

(2) In the Colony of New Sweden was established the first just Indian policy in Pennsylvania—a policy of treating the Indian like a human being instead of like a wild beast, a policy of purchasing land from the Indian, and not taking it from the Aborigines by trickery, intimidation and force. This was the same Indian policy for which William Penn became renowned at a later day. I do not intend to be understood as attempting to detract one iota from the fame and renown of William Penn in the eternal pages of history; but the great truth of history is that the same Indian policy that he followed and for which he was famed, was established here in Pennsylvania by the Swedes before the great Quaker was born.

(3) But the third and greatest excellency of the Colony of New Sweden, an excellency that pleads with angel voice against the infamy of ignoring the high spots of its history in the text books used in Pennsylvania schools—is the fact that the Swede planted in this Colony the precious principle of religious liberty. You will note that I say the "principle of religious liberty," for full religious liberty as it exists in the United States of America in 1937, did not exist anywhere as early as 1638. But I reiterate that the Swedes planted this precious principle in this Colony on Pennsylvania soil,in a place where, in the providence of Almighty God, it was not strangled to death as it was in many other places in early America, but enjoyed an uninterrupted growth from the time of its planting. This principle, I repeat, flourished on Pennsylvania soil before William Penn was born. By the time the great Quaker was ten years old, there had been eleven expeditions from the homeland to New Sweden; and when he came sailing up the majestic Delaware to found his province, he passed five Swedish Lutheran Churches on the way—a God fearing population that had all the virtues of the Puritans without their bigotry and intolerance.

Willim Penn gave this principle of religious liberty, planted here before he was born, such a majestic impetus that Pennsylvania soon became an asylum for the persecuted of every sect and of every creed. Wave upon wave of English immigration, of Irish immigration, of Scotch-Irish immigration, of German immigration, of French Hugenot immigration, of Welsh immigration, broke upon the shores of the Delaware. Religious liberty was the magnet that drew these racial stocks with their different creeds to Pennsylvania, thanks to the Swedes and William Penn.

I do not mean to say that Pennsylvania was the only place where the principle of religious liberty was planted in early America. There was a great deal of religious liberty in the Colony of Rhode Island, founded by Roger Williams after he had denounced the theocratic form of government of the Puritans, after he had denounced their doctrine of the union of church and state and was thrown out because his ideas were in advance of theirs. And thanks be to God, the principle of religious liberty was not strangled to death in Rhode Island. It flourished there from the begining; but Rhode Island was small. There was not a large migration from that Colony carrying this principle into the rapidly developing country as there was from Pennsylvania.

There was considerable religious liberty in New Jersey, founded along liberal lines by English Quakers, but this principle met an unhappy fate at the hands of those of Puritan sentiments. There was a great deal of religious liberty in Maryland, founded by the great English Catholic, Lord Baltimore; but the same thing happened in Maryland that happened in New Jersey, at the hands of those of Puritan sentiments. In other words, the noble plans of Lord Baltimore was wrecked. Alas for his noble dreams!

Then, as time went on the established church of England was set up in many of the Colonies.

In order that you may see how largely religious liberty in the United States came out of Pennsylvania, let me call your attention to the fact that at as late a date as the close of the Revolutionary War, there were only three of the thirteen states that did not abridge religious liberty to the exten of having a state church. One of the three was little Rhode Island where the principle of religious liberty was planted at the beginning and was not strangled to death. A second was little Delaware; but keep in mind that little Delaware, up until the Revolutionary War, was part of Pennsylvania. The third was great, big Pennsylvania.

Keep in mind, also, that at as late a date as the time of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States, there were still five of the thirteen states that abridged religious liberty to the extent of having a state church. I think you will agree with me that the Constitution of the United States does not forbid the States to establish state churches if they see fit.

But this principle of religious liberty, planted in Pennsylvania by the Swedes and given a majestic impetus by William Penn, was working all the time; and so it was not long after the adoption of the Constitution of the United States until all of the States got rid of their state churches except one—Massachusetts—. It took Massachusetts, cradle of religious bigotry and intolerance in America, more than a generation after the adoption of the Constitution of the United States to get rid of its state church.

Keep the above facts of American history in mind and then you can see how largely this most beautiful jewel in American's crown, this most precious gem, in America's diadem of beauty, religious liberty, is a Pennsylvania contribution having its source in the ignored, forgotten Colony of New Sweden.

For the above reasons, therefore, I urge and plead that there may be included in the Pennsylvania Manual a chapter on the Colony of New Sweden. If such a chapter is included in this Pennsylvania publication, it will set a good example to the public school system and the public school heads of Pennsylvania. Rip Van Winkle slept for twenty years. He was a New Yorker. But we can beat his record here in Pennsylvania; because in the matter of according recognition to the historical claims of New Sweden and in the matter of demanding recognition of the high spots of its glorious history in the text books used in the public schools of the Keystone State, the Pennsylvania public school system and the Pennsylvania public school heads have been asleep, not for twenty years only, but for one hundred years.

If there ever was a Superintendent of Public Instruction of Pennsylvania who ever made a protest against the ignoring of the high spots of the history of New Sweden in the history texts used in Pennsylvania schools, I never heard of him.

One autumn, at considerable expense to myself, I lectured at teachers' institutes from Mercer and Erie counties on the Ohio line to Monroe County on the Delaware, on the history of the Colony of New Sweden; but, generally speaking, I had a hard time to get a hearing. It is true that a number of school heads received me gladly; but many others in the over-abundance of their superapostolic and dignity, solemnly informed me that I could not lecture to their teachers on early Pennsylvania history for the reason that I was not "engaged in professional education."

Sad to say, some of the gentlemen "engaged in professional education" in the public schools of Pennsylvania have stupidly defended history textbooks that ignore the beginning in Pennsylvania, as one public school educator connected with the Pittsburgh schools did a few years ago in the columns of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette.

Let this chapter of highly important but shamefully ignored Pennsylvania history be included in the Pennsylvania Manual. Such inclusion will hasten the dawning of the day when the boys and girls in Pennsylvania's schools will know as much about the beginnings in their own Keystone State as they know about the beginnings of Massachusetts—it will hasten the dawning of the day when the boys and girls in Pennsylvania's schools will not be obliged to confine their historical travels so much to the "old, old trail awinding" around among the templed hills of the Puritans amid the fog of their religious bigotry and intollerence, but may travel, a little at least, on this other trail that leads to this mountain top of early Pennsylvania history where eternal glories linger like fires on mystic altars.

And the question recurring

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

BILLS SIGNED

The PRESIDENT [Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bills had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

House Bill No. 553, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the fifteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 565), entitled "Department of Banking Code," as amended, by providing for the creation of the Building and Loan Board, the appointment of its members, the payment of its expenses, and defining its powers and duties; and by modifying the powers and duties of the Department of Banking, and by modifying the powers and duties of the Secretary of Banking as receiver of corporations and persons under his supervision; and by making inapplicable said act to certain corporations.

House Bill No. 554, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the fifteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 624), entitled "Banking Code," as amended, by further providing for the powers and limitations upon the acts of corporations or persons authorized to engage in a banking or fiduciary business or both, and of affiliates of such corporations or persons and of officers, directors, trustees, and employees of such corporations and persons.

House Bill No. 1053, entitled:

An Act to amend section one as re-enacted, sections two and three as amended, sections four and five, and section six as amended, of the act, approved the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three (P. L. 119), entitled "An act for the promotion of medical science by the distribution and use of unclaimed human bodies for scientific purposes through a board created for that purpose, and to prevent unauthorized uses and traffic in human bodies," by changing the personnel and increasing the powers and duties of the Anatomical Board of the State of Pennsylvania; providing further for the distribution and use of unclaimed human bodies; fixing the time for the claiming and distribution of bodies, and the duties of carriers of bodies; requiring those receiving bodies to give bond; and providing penalties.

House Bill No. 1054, entitled:

An Act to amend section seven as amended, sections nine and thirteen, section fourteen and eighteen as amended, section nineteen, and sections twenty-one and twenty-two as amended, of the act, approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. L. 900), entitled "Vital Statistics Law," by further regulating the contents and registration of birth certificates and death certificates, and the giving of certified copies thereof; providing for the registration of birth certificates of children of citizens born beyond the limits of the United States and of special certificates for adopted children, and fixing fees for certified copies thereof; imposing additional duties upon the local registrars and providing compensation therefor, payable by the Commonwealth; authorizing the Department of Health to issue certified copies of the records of local registrars in cities of the first class; and increasing existing penalties and imposing new penalties.

Whereupon, The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 13. as follows:

An Act to amend section fifteen of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six (Pamphlet Laws thirty-seven) entitled "An act providing for and regulating assistance to and the burial of certain aged indigent persons and the administration of this act by the Department of Welfare and the boards of trustees of the Mothers Assistance Funds of the several counties authorizing the Department of Welfare to cooperate with and to accept and disburse moneys received from the United States Government for assistance to such persons authorizing the appointment of trustees for certain persons providing for the recovery of moneys expended for assistance in certain cases prohibiting political activity by employes of the board providing substitute provisions in cases Federal grants for old age assistance shall fail for any reason providing penalties and repealing inconsistent acts" by removing certain liability of beneficiaries and their estates for repayment of assistance received

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section fifteen of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six (Pamphlet Laws thirty-seven) entitled "An act providing for and regulating assistance to and the burial of certain aged indigent persons and the administration of this act by the Department of Welfare and the boards of trustees of the Mothers Assistance Fund of the several counties authorizing the Department of Welfare to cooperate with and to accept and disburse moneys received from the United States Government for assistance to such persons authorizing the appointment of trustees for certain persons providing for the recovery of moneys expended for assistance in certain cases prohibiting political activity by employes of the board providing substitute provisions in case Federal grants for old age assistance shall fail for any reason providing penalties and repealing inconsistent acts" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 15 "Liability of Beneficiary and Estates The [real and] personal property of any beneficiary shall be liable for the repayment of assistance received under this act or the act repealed by this act whether such property was owned at the time such assistance was granted or acquired thereafter Claims for assistance furnished shall have the same force and effect against the [real and] personal property of a deceased beneficiary as other debts of a decedent and shall be recoverable in the same manner One-half of the net amount recovered from any beneficiary or from his or her estate by the Commonwealth or any political subdivision shall be promptly paid to the United States and the remainder shall be paid into the State Treasury and shall be credited to the current appropriation for old age assistance"

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JACOBS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. JACOBS. Mr. President, I would like to have some information as to the purpose of this bill.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President and members of the Senate, Senate Bill No. 13 has been upon the calendar for some three or four weeks. About two weeks ago the bill came up for final passage and was then placed on the postponed list because there had been some objection. Since that date I have conferred with a number of Senators and have tried to put the bill in proper form in order to meet objections. As it is now amended there is taken out of it the most objectionable feature, Section 5. Section 5 has been taken out in its entirety.

Section 15 has been added to the bill, and it reads as follows:

"Liability of Beneficiary and Estates. The personal property of any beneficiary shall be liable for the repayment of assistance received under this act or the act repealed by this act, whether such property was owned at the time such assistance was granted or acquired thereafter. Claims for assistance furnished shall have the same force and effect against the personal property of a deceased beneficiary as other debts of a decedent, and shall be recoverable in the same manner. One-half of the net amount recovered from any beneficiary or from his or her estate by the Commonwealth or any political subdivision shall be promptly paid to the United States, and the remainder shall be paid into the State Treasury and shall be credited to the current appropriation for old age assistance."

What I am trying to omit is the part of the provision which would make real estate subject to escheat after the death of the owner. I would like to have the Senators look at the amendment. It is very, very important. I conferred with Dr. De Schweinitz yesterday, and he informed me that under their rulings they do not ask or expect anyone to assign his real estate by reason of any benefit he may receive. However, the fact still remains that back in my county those who are asking for assistance must assign their property, which passes into the hands of the Old Age Assistance administrators, in order to receive a pension. Dr. De Schweinitz stated this was contrary to their rule. Under the old Act they could go back and attach both the real and personal property; under this amendment I have taken out the words "real and", so, to be very explicit, under the present amendment real property can be attached at the time of the death of any beneficiary, but no real estate can be attached.

Mr. JACOBS. Mr. President, is it not true that Section 5 would remain as it is in the present law; in other words, would be just exactly the way it is in the original Act passed in 1936? Is there any change in Section 5 from the Act of 1936?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, Section 5 remains the same as in the Act of 1936.

Mr. JACOBS. Mr. President, as I understand it, no other changes were made?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, that is correct.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, Section 5 of the present law provides that persons entitled to assistance shall be persons who are indigent, and who have no relatives, or others, responsible for their support. The proposed amendment is inconsistent with the definition of "indigent", in Section 5, and certainly with the definition set forth in Section 15 of the law as it exists today.

Under the proposed amendment a man might have hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of real property and could walk into a welfare department and claim assistance! he could die possessed of a fortune in real estate and his heirs could relieve themselves of any responsibility. His relatives might be possessed of real property, and could sell it, but would not be liable to return to the Commonwealth the moneys paid out by the Commonwealth on behalf of the deceased.

It seems to me that we are striking at the very root of the purpose of the Act, and we are creating a class in Pennsylvania who will stay in their homes, with mortgaged real estate, and look to the Commonwealth for their support rather than to the security of their real estate. Now, I think the time has come when we should stop pampering, and proceed to legislate on intelligent lines. I intend to vote against this bill in its present form. There may be two or three persons who might require an amendment to the existing law, but "Hard cases always make bad law."

Last year this Senate voted in favor of a bill which provided that no man could be refused assistance because he received a bonus; and now we have the anomalous situation of people walking into the Welfare Department and asking for assistance, and at the same time having checks for as much as $1,500 in their pockets. I think this Senate should stand up and have the courage of their convictions, and not create classes of this kind. People who have means, who are possessed of money, and yet will walk into the State Welfare Department and ask for assistance are not the type of people for whom this Senate should be concerned.

If you have not had experience in the administration of relief or assistance, I will tell you that this bill strikes at the root of the theory of assistance; and it is for that reason I believe this amendment has not corrected that situation, but has created one that we will all be ashamed of and sorry for, if this bill should be passed. For that reason I intend to vote against the bill.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, as I stated a moment ago, Section 5 provides that the applicant shall be of a certain age, shall be a citizen of the United States, and a resident of this Commonwealth, is not an inmate of a reform or correctional institution or public mental hospital, or a professional tramp or beggar. And it says further that such an applicant shall be "indigent" and "has no relative responsible under the law of this Commonwealth, and financially able to support him or her."

Now, that is very plain. The Senator from Philadelphia says such an applicant may be possessed of real property the value of which would amount to thousands and thousands of dollars; but let us look back and observe the type of people who do apply for this assistance. I know of hundreds of cases of aged heroes who have had homesteads, which have been handed down from generation to generation, and their only ambition in life is to pass on those homesteads. They have no income whatsoever; they have been found to be indigent; they have no relatives. And when they apply for this pension it might mean fifteen dollars a month for their subsistance. I will say that ninety-five per cent. of the people who apply for assistance are those in dire need; and we have in our Commonwealth today people who deprive themselves of this pension because they fear that this Government will levy upon their porperty after they are gone. I have heard of no one applying for a pension who was well to do, or who had a home that was worth thirty, forty or fifty thousand dollars.

I would ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, if he knows of one case—only one case—in the Commonwealth of anyone applying for a pension and at the same time having title to property worth any considerable sum of money.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am very glad to answer the Senator from Cambria. My experience impels me to voice my objection to this bill. I happen to be a member of the Board of Trustees of a hospital in Philadelphia which furnishes service free, and is compensated by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. After I took office I inaugurated a system of having the office of the Register of Wills furnish information as to the estates of persons who had received such free service from our hospital; and I suggest that the Senator from Cambria come to my office, and I will give him a list of eighteen cases from the estates of whom we were able to collect—in one case $800. Others had bank accounts of from eight to fifteen thousand dollars.

It is because of that experience I say we ought to call a halt to the giving of assistance to all those who have property or money; but this bill would simply give encouragement to them to continue this practice. I shall be glad to give the Senator the names and addresses of these cases, if he wants them.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, let us strike out Old Age Assistance, then. We have thousands upon thousands of people in our State who have received relief when they were not entitled to receive it. What was done to correct that situation? Nothing at all. Young men thirty and thirty-five years old have received the dole.

It has been stated that all these people of seventy years and upward, people who are absolutely indigent and have no way of making a living, but who have a little homestead—that may be worth from $500 to $700—must assign their property to the Government, whereas a man who has nothing, a man who has been a drone throughout his entire life, who has never been a builder—has nothing at all to build—can walk up and receive a pension, assigning nothing. In contrast to this, to make the poor man or woman, who has worked hard all his or her life, assign whatever little property he or she may possess, in order to receive a pension,—if that is not discriminatory, what could be?

Mr. President, I ask the Senators to support this bill. It is a very important bill, in my opinion; it means a lot to the aged of our State, who have only a few short years to live. Surely they are entitled to have the legal right to pass on their property to their loved ones.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, this bill has some merit; and, as I consider it is a very dangerous bill in its present form, I shall not vote for it. I suggest to the Senator from Cambria that he let it go over in its order, and prepare another amendment limiting the amount of real estate which a beneficiary may own and have exempt from payment, or repayment, of old age pensions. I believe that can be done properly by means of an exemption.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, if I did not on several occasions ask him for advice. In fact, I made the same request of most of the Senators who objected to this bill. I have tried to amend it so that there would be a limitation set forth; but I have been informed, by Mr. Fertig and others, that it would be unconstitutional. Therefore, I would like to ask the Senator from Bucks if he thinks such an amendment as he suggests would be unconstitutional.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I have not, personally, looked into it; and, off hand, I should say I would not think it constitutional; but it could be worded in such a way that I believe it would avoid that obstacle, just as we have an exemption to the extent of $300 as to personal property of any person against levy and execution.

I cannot see why an exemption of $1,500 or $2,000 or $2,500 could not be provided in the case of this kind, just as it is provided with regard to personal property to protect from levy.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, whether he would be willing to try to help me prepare such an amendment.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would be very glad to do so.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to call the attention of the Senator from Bucks, and of the Senator from Cambria, to the present law, in Section 15 thereof, which by this bill would be repealed, where it provides such an exemption as the Senator from Bucks suggests; it limits the amount of real estate to $500.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I want to state that it is not necessary to limit the amount of real estate that can be owned. After all, if you own real estate you must pay taxes on it; and I would like to know just how much real estate you could own and pay taxes on if you are dependent on a pension given by the State of Pennsylvania in the amount of from seven to thirty dollars a month.

This only stops the State from levying on a homestead which is the private home of an individual, the home in which that individual has lived all his life, perhaps, and which constitutes the only inheritance he has to leave to his children.

We have had judges in this State who have paid into the Retirement Fund only a small amount, and who have received a pension, for the rest of their lives, in the thousands of dollars. They have in many instances had large estates to leave to their heirs, and yet no one suggests that those heirs pay back, out of the real estate left them, any part of the thousands of dollars a year these judges have received as pensions, after having paid only a few paltry hundred dollars into the Fund.

I think this bill should go over in its present form without any amendment whatsoever.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask if any Senator on the floor can explain this bill, if not, I will ask that it go over in its order.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I was in the Committee on Highways when this bill came out, and it was explained that this was merely to take care of a technical situation with reference to the condemnation of toll bridges and the payment for them out of the bond issues authorized by the people, that the companies owning these toll bridges take the position that they cannot condemn without the actual money being appropriated, and they do not want to sell the bonds until the condemnation proceedings are complete. This bill merely provides for the use of motor license funds temporarily, until after the condemnation proceedings have been closed and until the bonds have been sold and the Highway Fund reimbursed. I think the bill is all right.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, it is the understanding that Senate Bills Nos. 639 and 640 shall be sent to the House and there to be held pending a joint public hearing, and the so-called Rodgers bill shall be put on the postponed calendar. There are some amendments to the McGinnis bill which will be introduced to Senate Bills 639 and 640 when the bills are in the House.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, whether or not after the hearing in the House, the Senate will be able to vote on the bill.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, it is a joint hearing—

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I would like the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, to tell us whether or not if in the joint hearing we find particular matters in the bill that we do not like, whether the Senate will have any authority over the bill?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, it is a fact that after the joint hearing has been held I presume a new bill will be introduced which will embody some of the features of not only the so-called Rogers bill, but the McGinnis and the Shapiro bills as well, so that I have the idea in my mind that the public hearing will bring about a new bill; whether it is true or not, of course, remains to be seen.

Mr. GELDER. I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, whether he does not think the bill should remain in the control of the Senate until the joint hearing has been held?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, whether it is true to form or not, I understand that it is necessary for the bill to be in the House in order to jointly consider both bills.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny whether or not the hearing can be held in the Senate rather than in the House?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, and possibly inviting the House members to the Senate, that is correct, but as I understand it, the House should be given the privilege of considering the McGinnis bill and at the same time still holding the so-called Rodgers bill on the calendar, and both bills will be considered at a public hearing.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, it is my understanding —there seems to be a feud between Senator McGinnis and Senator Rodgers,—I am for the bill, but not as it stands now. I think this body should have control over its own bills. When this bill passes the Senate and goes into the House, we have no control whatsoever over the action of the House, and if the House does not care to pass the bill and not give us an opportunity to amend it in any form whatsoever for the actions of the House. I think this body is intelligent enough to amend its own bills without 'passing the buck' over to the House. I would like to have this bill recommitted or postponed until such time as a hearing can be given it right in this Senate Chamber.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I do not think there is any feud between Senator Rodgers and myself over this bill nor any other bill. This bill has been in the Senate for some time, in fact I think it has been here too long. We have to get through with this session somehow or other. This bill has been drafted by the representatives of labor, capital and the Labor Department. It has been revised several times, and I feel it is in proper form today without any amendments. However, I am not averse to the House, or any other body, if they feel it should be amended in any respect that is their prerogative, no matter what bill we send over there. If you look back, you will remember that we passed a Federal Labor Relations Act which worked very satisfactorily for a number of years, and it has worked satisfactorily because the railroad employees are thoroughly organized, and the railroads know exactly with whom they can talk. In other words, there is no dispute in the railroads as to who shall do the talking on either side, and on account of that, and on account of the Federal Railroad Labor Relations Act, we have not had a strike on the railroads for a good many years. Now, this is copied after that bill. It is also copied after the Wagner bill. We compared it in conference yesterday. I have a statement here that the General Motors strike lasted 44 days and cost the employes a million dollars a day; it cost the employers perhaps that much or more. We have these strikes appearing around us daily, very close to us here, and I feel sure that there would never have been a General Motors strike if they would have had a bill like this in Michigan, because the trouble there was that the employer claimed the parties who were negotiating did not represent the employes and therefore, they could not sit down, they could not agree, and, according to the provisions of this bill, it merely defines who shall be the spokesmen for the employees. This bill is set up for that and no other purpose, to make it very clear and very definite just exactly who are spokesmen for the employes. If they have a majority organization and this board says that it is the proper organization, they can speak. If anybody complains, the board can call an election and find out very quickly by a majority vote just who shall represent those employes, and when that is decided they are the sole representatives of the employees and can talk with the employer. The Federal Act, the Wagner Act, which was declared constitutional yesterday, applies to manufacturing and transportation. As I read the newspaper report, it hinted that there were industries that perhaps did not have such far-flung ramifications of business that would not come under the Wagner Act. Therefore, it seems to me that this act, that is copied after the Wagner Act, is needed for industries that do not come within the Interstate Commerce clause.

Therefore, Mr. President, I feel that in view of the turmoil, in view of the troubled situation in many localities all around us, and as many of those troubles will probably continue, we want to pass this bill without delay.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, insofar as these two bills are concerned, I think that both of them are very important bills at this time, and with the trend of conditions, such legislation is necessary. I am arising to try to find out where is the Senate of Pennsylvania going to? Are we that body that has been heralded throughout these great United States as being one of the greatest law-making bodies in the nation, or are we getting down to the low level of being cowards and not having the manhood to stand up and do our full duty? Do we have to hide behind the skirts of the members of the House because we do not have the courage to perform the duties for which we are sent to this Legislature? I think it is a poor commentary on the honor and dignity of this Senate for any man to get on this floor and say, "let us pass the buck" to the House. It is a disgrace, not only to your membership, but to the entire State of Pennsylvania. We are either men or we are monkeys, nothing more and nothing less. Let us solve this trouble here, let us have the manhood and the courage to do the right thing, and let us not hide behind the skirts of the members of the lower House. Have they more intelligence than we? If they have that greater intelligence, then let us admit it and say that we do not have the brains to pass on an important piece of legislation; but if we have the brains, let us have courage and do not disgrace your membership in this body, and in this great State of Pennsylvania. Let us be men, or let us be monkeys, the choice is here with us now.

I think this is important legislation; it is that important that it needs the best judgment of every man here; either it is right or it is wrong. I do not know, I do not believe either one of them is wrong, I believe they are both right, and the best solution of the problem will be for the benefit of all the people of Pennsylvania. Let us be Senator, let us not fail in our duties, and let us be men of courage, in order that the boys on the street may not laugh at us as they ought to do if we proceed along these lines.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, and members of the Senate: I am not a party to any agreement or scheme to send this over to the House, and then let the House do anything that they want to do with the bill. I am firmly convinced that the joint McGinnis bill is the proper Labor Relations Act for the State of Pennsylvania. I oppose strenuously the Rodgers bill because of certain features in it, that instead of settling labor disputes, it would only tend to cause labor disputes. Anyone who has read either of the bills knows full well that the McGinnis bills are based upon good sound judgment. I would like you to take the time to read certain sections of the opinions handed down yesterday by the Supreme Court. Not being an attorney I have selected the sections that I thought would apply to the members of this Senate. For instance, in the Steel Labor case,

> "Experience has abundantly demonstrated that the recognition of the right of employes to self-organization and to have representatives of their own choosing for the purpose of collective bargaining is often an essential condition of industrial peace. Refusal to confer and negotiate has been one of the most prolific causes of strife. This is such an outstanding fact in the history of labor disturbances that it is a proper subject, of judicial notice and requires no citation of instances."

With regard to the right of organization, this opinion reads:

> "That is a fundamental right. Employes have as clear a right to organize and select their representatives for lawful purposes as the respondent has to organize its business and select its own officers and agents. Discrimination and coercion to prevent the free exercise of the right of employes to self-organization and representation is a proper subject for condemnation by competent legislative authority."

In another part of the opinion, the relation of interstate commerce to intrastate commerce is considered. From the following it will be seen that while the present opinion gives to interstate commerce a very large field of activity, there, nevertheless, remains the restricted field of intrastate commerce. The McGinnis bill, No. 639, following the purpose of the Federal Wagner Relations Act, covers this restricted field of labor relations entirely within the jurisdiction of our Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The quotations from the opinion in this respect are:

> "Although activities may be intrastate in character when separately considered, if they have such a close and substantial relation to interstate commerce that their control is essential or appropriate to protect that commerce from burdens and obstructions. Congress cannot be denied the power the exercise that control."

"The grant of authority to the board does not purport to extend to the relationship between all industrial employes and employers. Its terms do not impose collective bargaining upon all industry regardless of effects upon interstate or foreign commerce."

The author of the bill, just declared constitutional, Senator Wagner, has the following comment to make regarding the majority opinion of the court:

"The Supreme Court upholds majority rule as logical and democratic; it answers the argument that the act is 'one-sided' by emphasizing that the rights afforded workers under the act are merely correlative 'to the employer's right to conduct its business in an orderly manner'; it refutes the argument that the act compels employers but not workers to make and keep their contracts, by showing clearly that the act does not compel contracts of any kind but merely provides an orderly method of approach to the problem of negotiating contracts."

"The whole tenor of the decisions is that the national labor relations act embodies those underlying principles of democracy and fair dealing under which industry and labor can settle their other difficulties without further supervision by the Government."

These observations of Senator Wagner clearly indicates that the Labor Relations Act is sufficient to cover the entire problem of providing the way for agreements to be made and to be helped by refraining form restrictive measures to force the making of such agreements which undoubtedly would defeat the end of securing amicable adjustments of labor problems.

The McGinnis Bill No. 640, now before us in the Senate, offers the voluntary way of carrying out the intention meant to be served by Senator Wagner's Federal Labor Relations Act in that Bill No. 640 points the way for the making and maintaining of agreements in the only manner in which Senator Wagner says: "That is the pathway to industrial peace and economic progress."

Now, gentlemen, we have heard that the Rodgers Bill was drafted by Richberg. Richberg in drafting that bill presented entirely the side of picture that came out in the McGinnis bill from the conferences in which the employers, the employees and the State Administration sat down and argued the merits and demerits of the Labor Relations Act. I have studied the three bills.

The Shapiro bill is sort of a compromise between the Rodgers and the McGinnis bills; however, it still maintains and keeps within it those obnoxious features, the only difference being that they are in a lesser degree. This bill is entirely in line with the Wagner Labor Relations Act. Your Supreme Court has declared that act valid and constitutional. I feel that it is the duty of the Pennsylvania State Senate at this time, as Senator Salus has said, to stand up and take the responsibility for that vote. If you feel that it is not the right bill, then vote against it, but if you feel that it is the right bill, do not take the attitude of sending it over to the House, as a camoflouge to hide it. I shall vote for this bill with the full intention that it shall become a law.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of the bill, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr.McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, whether he believes the bill is in proper form if passed by this body and also the House, and whether he agrees with Senator Rodgers that this bill should pass this body and have a public hearing in the House of Representatives.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I am thoroughly convinced that this bill at the present time is in its proper form; it has come before us in regular order, it has passed two readings, it is open here for debate, and if anybody has any objection to this bill, I would like to hear it stated on the floor. When the bill goes over to the House and a hearing held, afterwards I have no control over that, I have no desire for a hearing. However, I have no control over the House, and if this bill reaches the House and the House decides upon a hearing, it is entirely in their hands without any suggestion from me.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I am glad to hear the remarks of the sponsor of the bill. This is a very important bill, as we all know. If the bill should pass, because even if the sponsor is sincere, and he stated he was, I cannot vote for the bill, but cannot hide behind the skirts of the House members. I was elected by the people of my county to represent labor. I am not voting for this bill because it is a Democratic bill or a Republican bill. I for one, did not have the opportunity of studying this bill. A bill of such importance I believe should be delayed until such time as members who are interested in the measure can note the contents of it, therefore, Mr President, I ask that this bill be postponed for the present for the purpose of further study.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I think this bill should be acted upon at the present time. It has been in the Senate long enough. This Administration promised to put through a Labor Relations bill and they have spent a great deal of time in helping to prepare a proper bill. The labor people in Pennsylvania have been consulted and the employers have been consulted in Pennsylvania, and this bill is the result of the investigation and the information that the Administration has before it, and the Administration is backing this bill and not some other bill. Of course, it is entirely proper to have a hearing in the House if the House members desire it. and it may be necessary to have some amendments to the bill, but I want to say for the assurance of the Republican members that it is not the intention of the Administration to send this bill to the House for a re-making. This bill is complete in itself. We want this bill put through as it is now, not only here but in the House, if the House passes it.

The Senator from Philadelphia reminds me of the lawyer who loses a case and blames his loss upon the court, he does not find anything the matter with this bill, but he makes his argument against the House. My experience in the Senate has been that the House has treated the Senate just as courteously as we have treated the House, and I have no doubt but that they will do that with this bill if they have a hearing. It seems to me that this bill—it may not be a perfect bill, but it is a Labor Relations bill, and it is the best offer of the best people of the State. if you please. If it needs amendments later on, in another session we will be here to take care of it, but we have had to do something at this time, and we want to do it now. I hope that the Senate of Pennsylvania will put this bill over at the present time

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Monroe permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, do I understand that the Administration and the various people back of this legislation have decided that this is the bill which is to pass and to be signed by the Governor?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, and everything is set, and do I further understand that the Rodgers bill is to remain in committee so far as it is the general understanding?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, the Rodgers bill, as suggested by the author, will be put on the postponed calendar.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Monroe, in order that we may be enlightened on this measure, so that if this Senate is to put the stamp of approval on it, we are not depending on getting any instructions from the House. In other words, we have come to the conclusion that we are big enough to pass this bill as it is in its present form.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I think we have always been that way.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, and we have come to that conclusion on this particular bill?

PREVIOUS QUESTION

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I call for the previous question.

The PRESIDENT. The previous question has been called for.

Mr. LAW. Mr President—

The PRESIDENT. For what purpose does the Senator from Mercer arise?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, to discuss the bill.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, the call has not been seconded.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, there has been a lot of useless discussion here concerning this bill, a lot of discussion that does not pertain to this bill. The bills have been on the calendar, it has been a controversial question here for days and days. The bills have been on the calendar for nearly a week. They have been studied in committee, they have been argued in committee and all of this argument now is absolutely useless, but in order not to antagonize some of my Democratic colleagues, I withdraw my call for the previous question for the moment.

The PRESIDENT. It has not been decided whether the previous question shall be put. (The question was put by the Chair).

The PRESIDENT. The Senate seems to be evenly divided

A division being called for, nine Senators voted in the affirmative and twenty-one in the negative, whereupon, the question was decided in the negative.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will state his point of order.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, under the rules of this Senate, when the previous question has been called for and four members rise in support of the call for the previous question, the previous question must be put, unless the rules of the Senate are set aside.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair, in a spirit of democracy, put the question to the Senate to determine. The point of order, however, raised by the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, is well taken, four Senators can demand and have put the previous question.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I understand the Senator from Fayette withdrew his request for the previous question.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair so understood, and put it to a vote of the Senate. May the Chair suggest that the vote seems to determine the matter, and the Senate may proceed to discuss the question, but if the point is raised and four Senators demand it, the Chair would be compelled to rule.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, when this bill of Senator McGinnis was first introduced, there was a conference held between labor and industry. As a result of that conference, there were only two subject matters at that time which were in dispute, one of them was, the provision in the McGinnis bill which imposed an extremely heavy fine and also a possibility of imprisonment if the industrialist or his employe should violate any of the terms of the bill. The second one was whether or not, after collective bargaining had been established, there should have been a period of peace, so that the parties could negotiate before a strike. Those are the only two provisions that were in dispute at the time. Pending the determination of those questions, neither side desired to give in. A bill was introduced by myself covering one of those two provisions, and making the fine and penalty only in case the decision of the Labor Board was violated, and providing that the Labor Board should give a period of not less than ten nor more than twenty days, during which time negotiations for a settlement could be had. Those are the only two changes that my bill makes in the McGinnis bill.

The Rodgers bill represents the views of the industrialists in the first instance. Now, as I read the McGinnis bill, it has been amended so that in case there is any dispute, no employee can raise a dispute against the employer, but he must raise it to the Board, and then when the Board acts on it, there can be an appeal to the court, and after the Court sustains the appeal, or dismisses it, in either event the action of the court will then become final, and a violation of the act will result in a fine. So far as I am personally concerned, I can say that change should meet the objection of any employer, and eliminates it and takes care of it, and there remains only for discussion the one question, and that is whether or not collective bargaining has been established, where after all discussions have taken place, whether there should be the right in the employee to strike immediately, or whether there should be period of peace during which negotiations should be had. I personally think that we have gone very far and advanced considerably when you have established collective bargaining relations, and that it would be well, before any strike were called, that there should be a period of negotiations, and it should be a limited one, but I am not going to set myself up to determine the problems of labor at the present time; they have too many ramifications and they are too complicated, and too important for me as an individual to say that my view must be the proper view. There is a great deal to be said about the view which says that when collective bargaining has been established, no employee should be deprived of his right to strike, and I recognize the force of the argument. I personally feel that if there is a proper relations board and if the parties would function fairly with each other, there should and ought to be a period of peace, but I contend now that I can very safely vote in good conscience for the Rodgers bill, and so can every other Senator, and if between now and the time this bill comes for final passage, and when it comes before the House, that one question which is still open can be ironed out, such an amendment can be put into the bill. Now I think that Senator Rodgers should understand that the cause which is represented by the bill that he introduced cannot be helped by interfering with the passage of the McGinnis bill at this time, neither can labor be helped, because in making the statement that this bill is going to the House for the purpose of amendment, it is not stating what is actually the fact. This bill may go to the House, and since it will take several days before final passage, the discussions can continue. From my knowledge of the attitude of labor on the bill, I have very little hope that they will agree to a period of mediation, and if they do not, and they take that view, they have the right to ask us to vote in accordance with our views as to whether we agree with them or not.

I would like to see a period of mediation. I think it would be helpful, but I do not feel that the McGinnis bill should stand or fall upon that question. I think that the McGinnis bill is a step in the right direction, the amendment has taken care of the situation, there is a possibility that Senate Bill No. 640 may give that period of peace. The only objection I find to that bill is that it is not compulsory, but, of course, if it were made to be compulsory, it would put the bill in the same position as the provisions in my bill, and so we would be back again where we are now.

I recall in a previous session of this Senate, when I was on the other side, a collective bargaining bill was before the Senate. A Democratic Senator tried to discharge the committee which had the custody and control of the bill dealing with collective bargaining, and the Democratic Senators voted in favor of the discharge of that committee, and I recall that I voted in favor of discharging the committee. However, whether we did nor not, certainly the majority—of the Senate, the Republican and Democratic members of the Senate, were in favor of a collective bargaining bill. This bill has the agreement of all parties except the one which I spoke of, the Rodgers bill, does not have the right to interfere with the passage of the McGinnis bill ,because it represents the view which was discarded by the very people who are now sponsoring it when the discussion in which they participated showed plainly their opposition, and it is not fair for that group now to ask that the original bill for which they contended in its entirety, when many of the provisions which it now contains were disputed by them in the discussion.

If the Rodgers bill had any chance of passing, it would mean that discussion of legislation between interested parties would be of no avail and merely a waste of time, but under any circumstances, in fairness to all parties concerned, it is not a question now whether we are passing the buck to the House, because we are not; we are passing the bill to the House for final passage. If in the meantime an agreement cannot be reached upon the only subject there is in controversy, that is a matter for the House to take care of. I have no pride of authorship in my bill. This is for the purpose of bringing an end, and possibly and agreeable end, to a situation which would be ended and ended promptly. I think the members of the Senate, at least the Democratic members, are committed through their campaign pledges, to vote for this bill.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, there are many things about the Rodgers bill that may seem to be desirable. The only point which has been raised most strenuously here is the question of a preliminary period of waiting. There is no question that from the standpoint of labor, possibly that appears fine; however, there is a constitutional question involved in this which neutralizes the whole principle for which we are fighting here, a collective bargaining bill. It is extremely doubtful whether any legislation which requires a man to remain at work when he does not want to, and that is what a compulsory period of waiting means, would be constitutional, either in Pennsylvania or under the national Constitution, and for that reason I think we should avoid that by going ahead and passing the McGinnis bill which adopts in principle all of the good points of the Rodgers bill, because we cannot afford to take the chance of court action, which will delay the operation of this bill, and that is why, I feel that we should go ahead with the McGinnis bill.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the chairman of the committee on Labor and Industry.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, does the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, consider this bill as important as Senate Bill No. 99?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, was there not a public hearing on Senate Bill 99? I consider every bill that deals with labor very important. No. 99 is exceptionally important, and this is very important.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, does the Senator from Westmoreland see any reason why there should not be two hearings on this bill?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, will the Senator from Westmoreland state the reason.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, simply because of the fact that the Chairman of Labor and Industry received hundreds of appeals from employees in the State of Pennsylvania asking for a hearing. I went contrary to the wishes of the sponsor of the bill in giving a hearing at that time. However, to date. I received one petition asking for a hearing on the McGinnis bill.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, is the Senator from Westmoreland adverse to waiting a few days to see whether it gets another request for a hearing?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do not think that question is fair—I am adverse to waiting for a few days—I can easily be called on the telephone if I so desire, and have one of my friends call up and ask for a hearing on this bill. Let us be fair in this matter.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, the Senator from Westmoreland also made a statement that Labor and Industry had been consulted on this bill. What labor and what industry were consulted?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, industry that employs and labor that works.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, specifically what industry?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I want to state here and now, while I am answering the question, that I was not a party to any of the conferences that dealt in any specific things that pertained to the Rodgers bill at any time, and I do not know who was representing industry. I have an idea of some of the men who were there representing labor, and I think their record speaks for itself.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, the Senator cannot tell us?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President. I believe the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor, which is the outstanding organization.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, the Senator apparently does not know the specific parties representing labor and industry?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, how would I know that if I were not there?

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, then the Senator from Westmoreland does not know specifically that labor and industry were specifically consulted on this bill?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I have it from the sponsor, and he would not tell me a falsehood in this matter.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, then the Senator from Westmoreland is repeating what the sponsor told him, it is hearsay, he does know that as a fact?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, yes, I know it to be a fact inasmuch as not only the sponsor told me, but other men who were there also told me.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I think in fact I think the whole Senate wants to vote for some kind of a bill. I want to take this opportunity to commend Senator McGinnis for giving us an opportunity to discuss it. I was proud of the fact that you stood against the call to shut off debate, but I do not see how we can intelligently vote on this with all these generalities. We are told labor is in favor of it, industry is in favor of it. and then we ask the Chairman of the committee and he does not know whom. Now those are generalities. Mr. President, I am for peace legislation. I am for a type of legislation that is constitutional, and if it is in accord with the Wagner Act, if it is in accord with our customs and it willwork, let us have it but what is the objection to holding it in the Senate and having a hearing on it? Are you afraid some industry will bring up matters that will force you to change your position?

Mr. President, we have ripped out the Municipal Courts, in Philadelphia. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, has changed his ground several times, and I am satisfied that was the result of a hearing. Now why cannot we as the Senate of Pennsylvania, have that hearing in this body? I feel we are entitled to it. I do not think I could intelligently vote on this without a public hearing, and I am telling you publicly I believe in the bill in principle.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, may I state briefly, in answer to my good friend from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, if he knows his history, that there have been many a victory won by a temporary retreat. Mr. President, I am sure that we are going to have a public hearing on this bill. I can only state that this comes from such authoritative sources that I believe when I state the fact that out of that hearing we will be able to arrive at a bill which will be satisfactory, at least for the time being. I feel also that in view of the fact that I have been so assured, that amendments will be acceptable afterwards to the McGinnis bill. There seems to be a disposition here to question whether the McGinnis bill can be amended. I am assured that if the amendments are within reason and will bring about an amicable adjustment between the labor group and the industrial group, that amendments will be accepted. So I can see no reason why we should not pass this bill to the House in good faith, with the understanding that a public hearing shall be held.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, first of all, I want to answer the Senator from Indiana, Mr. Wolfenden, to state that my past record, I believe, demonstrates that nothing has come out of public hearings that would scare me one way or the other, whether it comes from one group or the other. I only want to say here that any member of the Senate Committee on Labor and Industry, I believe, whether he be Republican or Democrat, will admit that during this session of the Legislature I, as Chairman, have tried to deal as fairly as I know how on every matter that has come up. I have taken the attitude that the members of the committee themselves shall act upon the matters. Bills in that committee have remained in that committee for six or eight or nine weeks because it was the wish of the members of the committee. At no time when this committee was asked to report these bills out, was any agreement made whatsoever that this bill would be held over on the calendar, or that this bill would be put back for a public hearing, and I take it from what I hear on the floor that individuals desired these things to happen. I think that the bill is properly drafted, and these features that I call obnoxious would be obnoxious whether we waited one year or ten years, because I know that compulsory employment brings us back to the old traditional story that "you can lead a horse to water but you cannot make him drink"; but when you say to a group of men "you have to work in this plant twenty or thirty days— you have to work at this job," that may all be true, but you cannot make them work, and if you men have ever worked, you know that. I believe the merits of the bill are well-known to the members of the Senate, and incidentally, I will give the Senator from Indiana the information that he desires immediately upon adjournment today. I will give him a list of those who were present at the conference.

The PRESIDENT. May the Chair suggest that he also was one of those present.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I understood that, and I believe Mr. Richberg was also present at that conference, and a Mr. Rothschild, from Philadelphia, who represented a group of other employers as attorney, also Mr. Phillips of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor, and the Secretary of Labor and Industry of the State of Pennsylvania, also certain representatives of the Labor Relations Act, in Washington. I do not know them, but I do know that representatives men sat in that conference.

The citations that I read this morning show beyond a doubt that this act conforms to the Wagner Labor Relations Act, and I understand that particularly the Republican members of this Senate believe in the Supreme Court and its actions, and they had better take the cue from and vote for the bill.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I think the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, stated that he had been assured that amendments will be accepted to the McGinnis bill? By whom will the amendments be accepted?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I am afraid that the Senator from Cambria has misunderstood me. I said that there would be amendments that might be acceptable if they could bring about a compromise or an amicable adjustment of the difference between the industrial group and the labor group.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, might be acceptable to the House or Senate?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, accepted by the Administration?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, will they be accepted in the House or in the Senate?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, the opportunity will be afforded both the Senate and the House and particularly the Senate, to concur in any amendments which may originate in the House. You will have full opportunity, as you well know, to concur in any amendments.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, is this a compromise with Senator McGinnis?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, there has been no compromise.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, is that question to me? I do not think that Senator Rodgers said there was any compromise, or assumed that there was a compromise. I said to the Senate that this bill is here on its merits, it came on the calendar in proper form, it has been in committee, discussed in committee, and it is here on its merits. However, I will say again, that when a bill goes to the House they have some prerogatives too. I am not going to make the suggestion that they change this bill one iota. However, I do say that they have a right to try to change it, if they so desire.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, does the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, have any knowledge whatsoever of any proposed amendments to be made in the House?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, no.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

And the question, recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—42

Bean,	Henney,	Mallery,	Rupp,
Cavalcante,	Heyburn,	McCreesh,	Ruth,
Dando,	Howell,	McGinnis,	Salus,
Deitrick,	Huffman,	Mundy,	Shapiro,

Buckman,	Ealy,	Owlett,	Scarlett,
Chapman,	Homsher,	Pierson,	Woodward,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 640, entitled:

An Act to encourage the making and maintaining of agreements concerning wages, hours and conditions of employment between employers and employes by their representatives and the settlement of controversies concerning the same by mediation and voluntary arbitration, conferring powers of mediation and arbitration of such controversies on the Department of Labor and Industry.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—38

Bean,	Henney,	Law,	Rodgers,

A majority of all the Senators having been voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence,

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, in explanation of my vote of "No" on Senate Bills No. 639 and 640, I desire to record that I am not opposed to a Labor Relations Bill, but am opposed to certain provisions of these Bills and believe that a full hearing on both of these bills as well as on the Rodgers Bill should be held in this Senate. I believe that with the approval of the Wagner Relations Act by the Supreme Court we should not pass at this time an act or acts which go further than that act.

ACTION ON CALENDAR DEFERRED

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I move that further consideration of the calendar be dispensed with for today.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The sixth to the ninth sections inclusive and title were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 6 That sections five and seven of said act are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 5 When the [Dairy and Food Commissioner] Department of Agriculture or [his] its agent shall obtain an article of food or a sample or portion thereof from any person for the purpose of determning whether the same is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act and it shall be found that the said article of food is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act then the [Dairy and Food Commissioner] Department of Agriculture shall proceed against the said person from whose store warehouse or other place of business said article sample or portion thereof shall have been obtained for a violation of the provisions of this act

But no prosecution shall be sustained under the provisions of this act against a retail dealer for the selling offering for sale exposing for sale or having in possession with intent to sell of any adulterated or misbranded article of food as defined herein if the retail dealer from whom the said articles of food sample or portion thereof was obtained by the [Dairy and Food Commissioner] Department of Agriculture or [his] its agent can establish a guaranty signed by the manufacturer or wholesale dealer or jobber or distributor residing in the United States from whom such article of food was purchased or procured to the effect that the same is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act designating it unless such article of food shall have been adulterated or misbranded while in the possession of such retail dealer

Said guaranty to afford protection shall contain the name and address of the manufacturer or wholesale dealer or jobber or distributor making the sale of such article of food to such retailer and in such case the said manufacturer or wholesale dealer or jobber or distributor so as aforesaid giving such guaranty shall be amendable to the prosecution fines and other penalties which would attach in due course to the retailer holding such guaranty under the provisions of this act for a violation hereof and every manufacturer or wholesale dealer or jobber or distributor giving a guaranty under the provisions of this act shall be held responsible and shall be proceeded against for the adulteration or misbranding of any article of food sold under said guaranty and shall be subject to the penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act No such guaranty shall operate as a defense to prosecution for a violation of the provisions of this act if the retailer holding such guaranty shall continue to sell the same article of food after written or printed notice from the [Dairy and Food Commissioner] Department of Agriculture or [his] its agent that such article is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act

But if said person shall violate the provisions of paragraph six section three of this act by having stored [or] transported exposed or kept said article in said paragraph mentioned in a way or manner to render it diseased contaminated or unwholesome said person shall be proceeded against for a violation of the provisions of this act and it shall not be necessary for conviction that any article sample or portion thereof shall be obtained by the [Dairy and Food Commissioner] Department of Agriculture or [his] its agent as a condition precedent to prosecution

Section 7 Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act or any rule regulation or order made pursuant to this act shall [be guilty of a misdemeanor] for the first or second offense upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than sixty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of payment of such fine and costs shall be sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the county jail for not more than thirty days and for a third or subsequent offense shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars or to undergo imprisonment not exceeding one year or both in the discretion of the court

Section 7 That said act is hereby amended by adding thereto after section seven a new section to read as follows

Section 7A The Attorney General at the request of the Department of Agriculture may in the name of the Commonwealth institute proceedings in equity in the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County for the purpose of enjoining any person violating any of the provisions of this act from selling articles of food in this Commonwealth and for such purpose jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon said court In such cases the Attorney General shall not be required to give bond

Section 8 That sections eight and nine of said act are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 8 The [Dairy and Food Commissioner] Department of Agriculture of the State shall be charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this act and shall make rules and regulations for the proper enforcement thereof including rules and regulations setting up definitions and standards of articles of food and shall cause such rules and regulations to be published in the official bulletin in the issue immediately following the preparation of the same

Section 9 All fines and penalties imposed and recovered for the violation of any of the provisions of this act shall be paid [to the Dairy and Food Commissioner or his agent and by the Dairy and Food Commissioner be paid] into the State Treasury [for the use of the Commonwealth] through the Department of Revenue and credited to the General Fund

An Act to amend the act approved the thirteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and nine (P. L. 520) entitled 'An act relating to food defining food providing for the protection of the public health and the prevention of fraud and deception by prohibiting the manufacture or sale the offering for sale or exposing for sale or having in possession with intent to sell of adulterated misbranded or deleterious foods prescribing certain duties of the Dairy and Food Commissioner in reference thereto and providing penalties for the violation thereof" as amended further regulating the adulteration and misbranding of food for injunction against the sale of food in certain cases and changing penalties

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on State Government for the purpose of amendment.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 923, as follows:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws 920) entitled "An act providing for the relocation and change of width grades and lines of State highways in boroughs by the Secretary of Highways with the approval of the Governor and commissioners of the proper county and for the payment of damages occasioned thereby by the county and repealing certain acts" as amended by providing for payment by the Commonwealth out of the Motor License Fund of damages for land or property taken injured or destroyed by the change of width lines and locations of State highways in boroughs and incorporated towns and the cost of removal of structures where the county does not agree to such changes or removals requiring approval of the court of quarter sessions to certain agreements made by the county commissioners with property owners and fixing the time when the Secretary of Highways may begin work

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section three of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws 920) entitled "An act providing for the relocation and change of width grades and lines of State highways in boroughs by the Secretary of Highways with the approval of the Governor and commissioners of the proper county and for the payment of damages occasioned thereby by the county and repealing certain acts" as amended by the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws 1412) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 3 Before the Secretary of Highways shall undertake the construction reconstruction or improvement of any State highway in a borough or incorporated town wherein a change of width or existing lines and location is necessary and damages are likely to result to abutting property he shall notify the county commissioners of the proper county in writing of the contemplated change in such existing width lines and location [whereupon the county commissioners when possible shall enter into an agreement with the owner or owners of said property as to the amount of damages to be paid to the said owner or owners which damages if agreed upon shall be paid by the county]

[In case no agreement satisfactory to the county commissioners and the said owner or owners can be made the Secretary of Highways may not proceed with the work of construction and improvement unless the county commissioners agree that the said secretary may proceed and in such cases the owner or owners of said property damaged thereby or the county commissioners may present their petition to the court of quarter sessions for the appointment of viewers to ascertain and assess such damages The proceedings upon said petition and by viewers shall be governed by existing laws relating to the ascertainment and assessment of damages for opening public highways and such damages when ascertained shall be paid by the county in which the State highway is located and the county shall also provide for the removal of all structures within the lines of the highway] After the county commissioners have agreed to such changes or refuse to agree thereto as hereinafter provided the Secretary of Highways may proceed with the work of construction reconstruction and improvement After the receipt of the notice as above provided the county commissioners if they approve such change of width or of existing lines and location and agree thereto in writing shall when possible enter into an agreement with the owner or owners of said property as to amount of damage to be paid to the said owner or owners Whenever the amount so agreed upon shall exceed the sum of three hundred dollars ($300) the same shall not be paid by the county until the proposed agreement shall have been filed by the county commissioners in the office of the prothonotary of the county in which the property damaged is situated. If no exceptions are filed thereto within ten days after notice given by publication as hereinafter provided the county commissioners may pay the amount so agreed upon If exceptions thereto are filed within ten days after such notice the proceedings shall be presented to the court of quarter sessions for its approval The court shall fix a time for hearing the matter at which time the parties to such agreement and any taxpayer interested therein and their witnesses shall be heard and the court shall either approve or disapprove the agreement as it deems proper If the court disapproves the agreement it shall indicate a sum which it would approve for such case if the county commissioners and the property owner could agree thereon In such cases if the property owner and the county commissioners should agree on the amount of damages indicated by the court as acceptable to it such agreement may be entered into and shall be final and binding on the said parties without any further approval by the court Notice of the filing of such agreement in the office of the prothonotary and of the time and place of hearing in all such cases shall be given by one publication in one or more newspapers of general circulation throughout the county which shall state that any taxpayer may file exceptions to the agreement or may appear at such hearing and be heard together with his witnesses as the case may be Only such payments as to which no exceptions have been filed or as have been approved by the court as above provided shall be paid by the county or in case an agreement satisfactory to the county commissioners and said owner or owners cannot be made and the approval of the court thereto secured the owner or owners of said property damaged thereby or the commissioners of the proper county may present their petition to the court of quarter sessions for the appointment of viewers to ascertain and assess such damages The proceedings upon said petition and by viewers shall be governed by existing laws relating to the ascertainment and assessment of damages for opening public highways The county commissioners or any other party to such proceedings may appeal from the award of the viewers to the court of common pleas and shall be entitled to a trial by jury From the judgment of the court of common pleas an appeal may be had to the Supreme or Superior Court as in other cases Such damages when ascertained shall be paid by the county in which the State highway is located

Whenever the county commissioners do not consent to or approve any such change of width or of existing lines and location and the Secretary of Highways determines such change to be necessary he shall when possible enter into an agreement with the owner or owners of said property as to the amount of damages to be paid therefor and if agreed upon such damages shall be paid by the Commonwealth out of moneys in the Motor License Fund or if such agreement cannot be made the owner or owners of said property damaged thereby or the Commonwealth may present their or its petition to the court of quarter sessions for the appointment of viewers to ascertain and assess such damage as well as any benefits in the same manner and with the same right of appeal to the owner or owners and to the Commonwealth as is hereinbefore provided in cases where the county agreed to such change but the damages when ascertained shall be paid by the Commonwealth out of moneys in the Motor License Fund

The county shall also be liable for any damages sustained by abutting property owners for a change of the width or lines of roads intersecting State highways where such damages are made necessary as a result of the changing with their consent and approval of the width lines or location for the construction of a State highway such damages to be ascertained in the same manner as herein provided for damages occasioned as a result of the change with their consent and approval of width or of existing lines and location of State highways and in case the commissioners shall not have consented to and approved such change of width or of existing lines or location then such damage shall be paid by the Commonwealth and shall be ascertained in the same manner as herein provided for damages for land taken as a result of the change of width or of existing lines and location of State highways without the consent and approval of the county commissioners and such damages shall also be paid from the Motor License Fund The county shall also provide for the removal of all structures within the lines of the highway as thus established unless otherwise provided by agreement between said county and the Secretary of Highways and in case the same is to be done by the Commonwealth the cost thereof shall also be paid out of the Motor License Fund Any moneys in the Motor License Fund necessary to make the payments required by the section are hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of Highways

If the county refuses to assume all damages in connection with the relocation or widening of any highway as hereinbefore provided the county commissioners and the Secretary of Highways may thereafter agree that the county shall pay a portion thereof to either the owners or to the Department of Highways or shall perform specified work for the benefit of the owner in lieu thereof or shall participate in the total damage expense in such other manner as may be agreed upon

Nothing contained in this act shall be construed as placing on the Commonwealth the payment of any damages or costs incident to the change of width lines or location of any State highway in a borough or incorporated town where such highway was widened or the lines or location changed prior to the date this act takes effect but all such damages and costs shall be paid by the county in the manner provided by this act as if the county had agreed thereto as herein provided

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 369, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of article fifteen of the act approved the seventh day of March one thousand nine hundred and one (P. L. 20) entitled "An act for the government of cities of the second class" as amended by reducing the number of newspapers for official advertising

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Tronzo.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TRONZO. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, not being familiar with the government of the City of Pittsburgh I would like to have the gentleman first state why the change is made from City Recorder to Mayor in certain parts of the bill.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the question of the gentleman from Philadelphia, that was in the old act, and we used the terms City Recorders and Mayor interchangably.

Mr. McDEVITT. In other words, Mr. Speaker, is the Mayor and the City Recorder the same? Mr. Speaker, If I understand the bill correctly it refers to advertising and it reduces the number of papers in which these contracts are to be advertised.

Mr. TRONZO. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McDEVITT. Isn't the purpose of advertising, Mr. Speaker, to give notice to as broad a section of the population as possible of the advertising for bids on contract?

Mr. TRONZO. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, is there a large sum of money involved or a large saving involved in the reduction of the number of papers in which the advertising could be inserted?

Mr. TRONZO. If the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Speaker, will give me a little leeway on that question I shall endeavor to answer it. A great many years ago many of the citizens of Pittsburgh spoke the German language and very few of them understood English and for that specific reason any time an advertisement was given to the papers we made sure that one got into a German newspaper in the German language; it had to be done. However, times have changed and today we feel that we do not need to advertise in any foreign language newspaper, and that is the only thing this amendment does; it will eliminate the foreign language newspaper field.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, does not the bill also reduce the maximum number of daily papers from five to three?

Mr. TRONZO. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McDEVITT. And reduces the minimum from three to two, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TRONZO. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McDEVITT. So that, Mr. Speaker, there will not be as broad an advertising of contracts as there has been in the past, regardless of the elimination of foreign language newspapers.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the last question of the gentleman, the only thing this bill does is to eliminate the foreign language newspapers from receiving the advertising from the city, and immaterial how much it saves, it does save the taxpayer, and that is after all the only thing we are trying to do in this bill. I also would like to add, Mr. Speaker, that we do have three daily papers in the City of Pittsburgh and this bill will in no manner, shape or form affect them.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it would appear to me that since we in our public schools teach French, Spanish, Latin, German and various other languages and that this nation is made up of a collection of peoples of all types, then it will be entirely unfair, un-American and highly unreasonable that we limit the advertising to only English language papers. I would ask that in considereation of the fact that many of my constituents are people of German, Slavish, Italian and various other racial connections, that we vote down this proposition to confine this advertising only to English language papers.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, I want to start off by saying that this bill affects only second class cities, which means strictly the City of Pittsburgh, so that it will have no effect on any other community in the Commonwealth. We haven't done anything wrong in it. We surely will not go into the foreign publication field and publish our advertisements in all the foreign language papers. We feel that our daily papers can handle the field rather well, and that is all we are endeavoring to do in Pittsburgh, to eliminate all unnecessary expenditures.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Reising.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Beaver permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. REISING. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman point out to me in what section of the bill the advertising is limited to only English language newspapers?

Mr. REISING. The inference of the bill, Mr. Speaker, that it prohibits advertising in papers in foreign languages is sufficient in my judgment for its condemnation because our nation is made up of all peoples.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, this bill applies only to cities of the second class and does not limit the advertising to any specific language. If the City of Pittsburgh desires to advertise in Polish and Slavish or any other language, I believe that this House has sufficient confidence in the city administration of the City of Pittsburgh to allow it to determine how it shall advertise its ordinances.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, I would say that it is on the principle of the philosophy that we should segregate or confine our advertising to a particular language in America.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I wish to reaffirm the position of the city administration of the City of Pittsburgh, that there is no limitation as to what language they can advertise in.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1299, entitled:

An Act to establish a separate orphans' court in and for the County of York.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to inquire of the gentleman from Delaware whether this is the bill on which he wished to interrogate me?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I had some idea of interrogating the gentleman from York on this bill. I thought that he was going down to the Liquor Control Board, but since he came back I have kind of lost my enthusiasm to interrogate him.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Delaware have any questions upon which he desires to ask me at the present time?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, we had an old judge down in our county who was perhaps endowed with more horse sense than any man I ever knew. He used to say when I was a young lawyer "it is a good thing to know when not to ask questions". I do not desire to interrogate the gentleman from York further, but, Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recognized.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York yield to the gentleman from Delaware?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, realizing that any interrogation that I might have now of the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, will be rather useless, I would like to speak in reference to this bill. I am taking this method now so that he can not answer me by interrogation. First, I understand that all of the orphans in York County have been taken care of by the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, and, therefore, there is no use to have an Orphans Court. Second, what I want to know is this: We have a great many judgeship bills, and it seems to me as though everybody's judgeship bill but mine, providing for an additional law judge in Delaware County, gets out of committee. I now see that Senator Shapiro has decided that he was mistaken in regard to creating Common Pleas Court Number Six of Philadelphia County, and now feels that he needs a Common Pleas Court Number Seven. Of course, seven is a good number. It is a good number if you roll it the first time, but if you roll it the second time you are out of luck. It seems to me that what my Democratic friends are up against is they have a lot of lawyers and they have to take care of them, and they could not do so by Common Court Number Six—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from York will state his point of order.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, the bill before the House is for the establishment of Orphans Court Number One in York County, and not the Court of Common Pleas Number Seven in Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will confine his remarks to Orphans Court Number One.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I was speaking about orphans and leading up to Orphans Court Number One. There is a large number of the members of the Bar in Philadelphia and elsewhere who need jobs, and if our Democratic friends would just get together and sit down with Senator Shapiro, with Jack Kelly and Dave Lawrence and all the rest of the boys and decide how many judges they need to take care of all these lawyers, then we could put out a group of bills to provide for judges in the several counties. It would be a sort of an omnibus bill, such as we have in relation to roads, when we say "you will get fifty per cent of the roads in your county". We can say "you are to have fifty per cent of the judges in your county". For instance, we have three judges in Delaware County, which would give me one and one-half. I am in favor of reducing that, I will be generous and will make it one judge.

A few minutes ago Mr. Schrope slipped through a bill, and the Schuylkill County Democrats came down to my desk and talked to me, so that I wouldn't notice it until the vote was over. Mr. Cohen came down, and he said to me "I have got to collect a few fees from the Liquor Control Board". I looked at the calendar and saw that this bill was coming up and so I circulated through the House and tried to get a lot of fellows to vote against it. They would have voted against it if he had not been there, but as soon as they saw him, they changed their minds

I think that York County is very well taken care of. The Chairman of the Appropriations Committee can very well see that they are very well taken care of without putting an Orphans Court in York County. It would sort of be a blot upon its long record. They haven't had any need for an Orphans Court. As the gentleman from York might be a candidate for that office, I would rather wait and have this bill lay over until he gets out of the House, so that we can have him appointed. I am sure if the Democrats were in authority and in power that they would see that Herb is appointed an Orphans Court Judge. They are all in favor of getting him out of the House, to have him appointed as an Orphans Court Judge. If the Republicans are in power, I am confident we will all go to work for him because we realize the tremendous benefit that will accrue to the State in not having him on the Appropriation Committee. Therefore, I suggest that this bill be defeated for these reasons which I have not given.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to take this opportunity to thank the gentleman from Delaware for his support of this measure. You can always rely upon the gentleman from Delaware in the choice of language to give a declamation that this House can always utilize as a reference of the highest degree of oratorical accomplishment. His support of this measure was indicative of his past forensic accomplishment, and I appreciate that sincerely.

On the question recurring,

Legislative Journal.

Session 1937. 132d of the General Assembly.

Vol. 21. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 14, 1937. No. 43.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, April 14, 1937.

The Senate met at twelve o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Our Father, tense, yet pensive, we hark back to a tragic day. Three score and twenty years ago, an assassin's bullet pierced the body of nature's nobleman—one who, "with malice toward none and charity for all," had just restored the Union of States. Under darkest sky of sunless day, mortal put on immortality—and Abraham Lincoln was given to the ages.

We would forget the epoch of turmoil and animosity which followed this cruel tragedy. Four days before, two chieftains met face to face; the one superbly generous in victory, the other magnificient in defeat. After all, how beautiful the drama of Appomattox!

We would that the sacrificial blood of the scholarly Garfield, of the amiable McKinley, which brought a nation to its knees, may mingle with the martyr blood of Lincoln; and in true spirit of Appomattox, efface sectional lines, obliterate points of the compass, and with Thy blessing, promote a rivalry of patriotic devotion. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT —A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. DANDO, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

COMMITTEE OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY TO WRITE A CHAPTER ON THE ART-TREASURERS OF THE STATE CAPITOL TO BE PRINTED IN THE 1937-1938 PENNSYLVANIA MANUAL

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I move to proceed to the consideration of Senate Resolution No. 111 reported from the Committee on State Government on April 13, 1937.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the Senate, March 23, 1937.

Whereas, the State Capitol of Pennsylvania is a veritable treasure-house of great paintings and inspiring murals, and

Whereas, the central themes of such great paintings as the "Apotheosis of Pennsylvania," "Penn's Treaty with the Indians," 'Reading the Declaration of Independence," "Unity," "Lincoln at Gettysburg," "Washington Delivering his Constitutional Address," "Valley Forge" or of the awe-inspiring murals adorning the Supreme Court Room of the State Capitol and known as "The Divine Law," "The Scale of Law," "The Golden Age," "Themis," "The Decalogue," "The Beatitudes," "Code of Justinian," "Blackstone's Commentaries," "Spirit of William Blackstone," "William Penn as Law Giver," "Supreme Court of Pennsylvania," "Supreme Court of United States," "Supreme Court of the World," and "Disarmament," are of immense cultural and educational value to the people of our great Commonwealth, and

Whereas, the distribution of the reproductions of said murals, and the dissemination of descriptions and information pertaining to these classic paintings have not been heretofore commensurate with their scriptural majesty, awe-inspiring grandeur and thought-provoking value, and

Whereas, a planned and well-directed distribution of reproductions of said murals and paintings and the dissemination of descriptions and information pertaining to these great art treasures of our State Capitol would be conducive to both an increased tourist-traffic in Pennsylvania and an enhanced interest in the glorious past of our Commonwealth, and

Whereas, "The Pennsylvania Manual" published by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and compiled under direction of the Bureau of Publications of the Department of Property and Supplies is the official primary-source-book of information pertaining to our Commonwealth, its government and institutions, and

Whereas, thousands of exemplars of said "Pennsylvania Manual" are being annually distributed throughout the nation and our Commonwealth, thus providing a channel for the dissemination of valuable information, and

Whereas, preparations are now being made for the publication of the forthcoming issue of "The Pennsylvania Manual" for the 1937-1938 biennium, therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That the forthcoming issue of "The Pennsylvania Manual" for the 1937-1938 biennium shall contain in addition to its usual material also a new chapter devoted to the description of the art-treasurers of the State Capitol together with the reproductions of its paintings and murals, and be it further

Resolved that the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint three (3) Senators and the Speaker of the House appoint (3) Representatives, who together shall form a Committee to write and to edit said chapter, and be it further

Resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to his Excellency the Governor of Pennsylvania, and the Secretary of Property and Supplies.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 827, entitled:

An Act to further amend section five of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred forty-four), entitled "An act relating to salaries, compensation, bonds, offices, and supplies of certain county officers, their deputies and clerks, in counties of the sixth class," by fixing the time for annual meetings and requiring other meetings of the salary board.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, for the information of the members of the Senate, this bill pertains only to sixth class counties. Under the present law the salary boards in sixth class counties may meet only once a year; and this bill provides that they may meet more than once a year.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 372

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 372, entitled:

An Act to amend section two hundred fourteen section two hundred sixteen as amended and section two hundred seventeen of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" authorizing the Governor in certain cases to fill vacancies in boards of school directors in districts of the fourth class was defeated.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I voted "No".

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I voted "No".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I would like the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, to explain to us the purpose of this bill we are about to vote on.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, this is a very simple bill and a very harmless one. It has to do with fourth class counties and fourth class school districts, and the purpose of the bill is given in this sentence at the end of Section 3: "If the court shall remove any board or any of its members in a district of the fourth class, in a county of the fourth class, it shall certify such action to the Governor, who shall fill such vacancy or vacancies for the unexpired term or terms."

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, has the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, any fourth class districts in his district?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I have a few fourth class school districts in my Senatorial district, yes. This bill merely permits the Governor to fill the vacancy caused by an unexpired term of a school board member when there is no agreement as to who shall succeed that member.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I would ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, whether the Governor is more competent to fill the vacancy than the local judge, who is acquainted with the district.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, the difficulty lies, in some districts, in the inability of the group to get together on who shall constitute the board members; and I know of an instance, at this moment, where it is important to agree upon the proper, or agreeable, member of this board.

This pertains only to unexpired terms; and the bill is really a harmless one in every respect, I think.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. RODGERS.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator in what class county his Senatorial district lies.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, it lies in a second class county.

Mr. EALY. Then, Mr. President, this bill does not affect his county in any way?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I do not represent the county, you understand; but then, of course, the bill would apply to fourth class counties only.

Mr. EALY. Then, Mr. President, I understand this bill would not apply to any school district in the county from which the Senator comes.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, that is correct; but, of course, I am legislating for the State, you understand.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, representing a fourth class county, as I do, I cannot see the use of this bill. In Lancaster we have no difficulty that we cannot overcome; and I cannot see why the Governor can better appoint a school director than the school directors themselves, which under the law, when there is avacancy, at this time they do.

Why should we further subvert local government when there is no necessity for it? I protest, as representing a fourth class county, that our rights should be usurped in a manner like this.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I will.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, will state his point of order.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, my point of order is that the Senators are discussing the nature of the bill rather than the motion to reconsider the bill.

The PRESIDENT. The members are permitted to discuss the bill for five minutes.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, did I understand the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, to say that he is in a second class county?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, that is correct.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, the Senator is not, therefore, affected by this bill?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, that is correct.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, then the Senator said he was legislating for the State?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, that is correct.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, would the Senator further the passage of a similar bill applicable to second class counties?

Mr. RODGERS. Well, Mr. President, I quite am of the opinion that such a bill would not be harmful.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, if I should introduce such a bill would the Senator from Allegheny support it?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, the school directors, for thirty days, under this bill, are permitted to fill their own vacancies,—

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, that does not answer my question.

The PRESIDENT. Let the Chair suggest that the Senator be permitted to answer in his own way.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, will state his point of order.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, my point of order is that we are not permitted to solicit any votes on the floor of this Chamber.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I should be glad to vote for such a bill, for I know I should be the only member of the Senate to vote for it.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, for second class counties?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, if he thinks such a bill would be good for his county.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, it might be; I cannot see how it could do any harm.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, in other words, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, would be for such a bill?

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I would give it very serious consideration.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I repeat my objection of the other day—that this is a further invasion of the rights of local government.

We are asked to legislate here generally to cover some small specific wrong. Not only that, but we are asked by a member of the Senate, who admits that he does not have in his county any school district that would be affected by the bill under discussion, to vote for the bill. I ask the Senate to repeat its vote of the other day, and vote it down.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. CAVALCANTE and Mr. FREY, and were as follows:

YEAS—32

Cavalcante,	Henney,	Law,	Roberts,
Dando,	Huffman,	McCreesh,	Rodgers,
Dent,	Jacobs,	McGinnis,	Ruth,
DiSilvestro,	Jaspan,	Mundy,	Shapiro,
Eroe,	Kahle,	Pytko,	Sipe,
Frey,	Kilgallen,	Rankin,	Sones,
Gilson,	Kunkel,	Reed,	Stiefel,
Haluska,	Lanius,	Rice,	Thompson,

NAYS—9

Buckman,	Gelder,	Homsher,	Rupp,
Deitrick,	Heyburn,	Mallery,	Wolfenden,
Ealy,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I am opposed to this bill not only because it encroaches upon local government, but I think it is an unfair imposition upon the Governor of this Commonwealth. The Governor has many arduous duties to perform, and it seems to me to be unfair to saddle upon an already busy Executive matters that should be ironed out locally. This is purely a local affair, and I am led to believe, by reason of the fact that the bill has been introduced, that there is an unfortunate condition that exists in some part of the State; and while I sympathize with the people of that part of the State, it is a matter that I believe time will cure. It is unfair to put these petty matters on our Governor.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I think that the apprehensions of some of the members, which have just been found, that this is an infringement on the powers of local government, are not justifiable by the facts. The bill itself states, in the first part, that for the first thirty days the school directors will have the right to fill this vacancy; and nothing could be made complete in the way of self-government than the school directors may fill vacancies in their own body. That is more in line with local self-government than to give the local judges a right to fill such vacancy.

I think we should all stop for a moment and recall that in cases of vacancies in the office of Justice of Peace throughout the different sections of the State the Governor is called upon to fill those vacancies.

I think our apprehensions are, to a large extent, unfounded.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, the very wording of the bill shows that this is merely an attempt to play politics with school districts in a certain class of counties; because the bill says "in a district of the second or third class the Court of Common Pleas of the proper county, and in a district of the fourth class in a county of the fourth class, the Governor * * * shall fill such vacancy * * *."

There is no reason why the Court of Common Pleas cannot fill the vacancies. Apparently there is a determination to avoid going to the Court of Common Pleas, because some persons, in some counties of the fourth class, feel they will not get the sort of appointment they want politically—of the persuasion they want politically; and the sudden change of opinion on the part of some of our friends on the left would suggest to me that the famous "midwife" spoken of during the early part of the week has again visited this Chamber.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, there is another objection to this bill which has been raised, and which I simply desire to mention. This bill would provide a double classification, and therefore that would render the bill unconstitutional. In voting on it I hope the members will bear that in mind.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—31

Cavalcante,	Henney,	McCreesh,	Rodgers,
Dando,	Huffman,	McGinnis,	Ruth,
Dent,	Jacobs,	Mundy,	Shapiro,
DiSilvestro,	Jaspan,	Pytko,	Sipe,

Haluska,	Law,	Roberts,

NAYS—9

Deitrick,	Heyburn,	Lanius,	Rupp,
Ealy,	Homsher,	Mallery,	Wolfenden,
Gelder.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of Senate Bill No. 235 (House Bill No. 50) on third reading, postponed, entitled:

Article IV, Sections 52 to 63 inclusive of the bill where read as follows and agreed to.

Section 52 Presumptions in Ascertaining Legislative Intent In ascertaining the intention of the Legislature in the enactment of a law the courts may be guided by the following presumptions among others

(1) That the Legislature does not intend a result that is absurd impossible of execution or unreasonable

(2) That the Legislature intends the entire statute to be exective and certain

(3) That the Legislature does not intend to violate the Constitution of the United States or of this Commonwealth

(4) That when a court of last resort has construed the language used in a law the Legislature in subsequent laws on the same subject matter intend the same construction to be placed upon such language

(5) That the Legislature intends to favor the public interest as against any private interest

Section 53 Grammar and Punctuation of Laws Grammatical errors shall not vitiate a law A transposition of words and clauses may be resorted to where a sentence is without meaning as it stands

In no case shall the punctuation of a law control or affect the intention of the Legislature in the enactment thereof

Words and phrases which may be necessary to the proper interpretation of a law and which do not conflict with its obvious purpose and intent nor in any way affect its scope and operation may be added in the construction thereof

Section 54 Construction of Titles Preambles Provisos Exceptions and Headings The title and preamble of a law may be considered in the construction thereof Provisos shall be construed to limit rather than to extend the operation of the clauses to which they refer Exceptions expressed in a law shall be construed to exclude all others The headings prefixed to chapters articles sections and other divisions of a law shall not be considered to control but may be used to aid in the construction thereof

Section 55 Constitutional Construction of Laws The provisions of every law shall be severable If any provision of a law is found by a court of record to be unconstitutional and void the remaining provisions of the law shall nevertheless remain valid unless the court finds the valid provisions of the law are so essentially and inseparably connected with and so depend upon the void provision that it cannot be presumed the Legislature would haye enacted the remaining valid provisions without the void one or unless the court finds the remaining valid provisions standing alone are incomplete and are incapable of being executed in accordance with the legislative intent

and manifestly so intended by the Legislature

Section 57 Construction of Uniform Laws Laws uniform with those of other states shall be interpreted and construed to effect their general purpose to make uniform the laws of these states which enact them

Section 58 Rule of Strict and Liberal Construction The rule that laws in derogation of the common law are to be strictly construed shall have no application to the laws of this Commonwealth hereafter enacted

All provisions of a law of the classes hereafter enumerated shall be strictly construed

(1) Penal provisions
(2) Retroactive provisions
(3) Provisions imposing taxes
(4) Provisions conferring the power of eminent domain
(5) Provisions exempting persons and property from taxation
(6) Provisions exempting property from the power of eminent domain
(7) Provisions decreasing the jurisdiction of a court of record
(8) Provisions enacted prior to the effective date of this law which are in derogation of the common law

All other provisions of a law shall be liberally construed to effect their objects and to promote justice

Section 59 Penalties No Bar To Civil Remedies The provision in any law for a penalty or forfeiture for its violation shall not be construed to deprive an injured person of the right to recover from the offender damages sustained by reason of the violation of such law

Section 60 Penalties for Each Offense Whenever a penalty or forfeiture is provided for the violation of a law such penalty or forfeiture shall be construed to be for each such violation

Section 61 Intent to Defraud Whenever an intent to defraud is required in any law in order to constitute an offense the law shall be construed to require only an intent to defraud any person or body politic

Section 62 Laws in Pari Materia Laws or parts of laws are in pari materia when they relate to the same persons or things or to the same class of persons or things

Laws in pari materia shall be construed together if possible as one law

Section 63 Particular Controls General Whenever a general provision in a law shall be in conflict with a special provision in the same or another law the two shall be construed if possible so that effect may be given to both If the conflict between the two provisions be irreconcilable the special provisions shall prevail and shall be construed as an exception to the general provision unless the general provision shall be enacted later and it shall be the manifest intention of the Legislature that such general provision shall prevail

BILLS INTRODUCED

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SHAPIRO, read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 957 entitled:

An Act changing the procedure in civil actions hereafter brought in any of the Courts of Common Pleas of Philadelphia County: providing for trial without jury and for the filing of agreements therefore: providing for the payment of jury fees.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary Special.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, in connection with the introduction of this bill I would like to say that this is a further work of the Attorney General's Conference on Crime. There has been, for years, a movement on foot for uniform statutes to assist in the protection of the public by making it easier to recall criminals who have gone beyond State lines, to obtain the return of witnesses who have gone beyond State lines, and to permit interstate contacts on the matter of the control of paroled criminals.

In the 1935 Session there was a bill introduced, and passed, for the securing of the attendance of witnesses. For some reason or other it appears to have been mistaken for a parole administration bill, and to have been sterilized in the course of its passage. We are now endeavoring to bring this into conformity with the law of New York, New Jersey and numerous other States.

These other Acts, providing for the arrest and custody of persons pursued, and to the making of contacts for the control of persons on parole, are for the purpose of making our law conform to the law of New York, New Jersey and other States; and they will provide for immediate reciprocity upon enactment.

BILLS INTRODUCED

Mr. LAW, read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 958 entitled:

An Act to amend sections one, two, four, five and seven of the act, approved the fifteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (P. L. 1017), entitled "An act relating to criminal procedure; providing for the securing of attendance of witnesses from without the State in criminal cases; and making uniform the law in reference thereto," by further regulating the attendance of such witnesses; and limiting the powers with respect thereto to judges learned in the law.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 959 entitled:

An Act providing for the arrest and custody of persons closely pursued in this Commonwealth by peace officers of other states; and imposing certain duties on magistrates, aldermen and justices of the peace, and the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 960 entitled:

An Act providing for the making of compacts by the Commonwealth with other states for mutual helpfulness in relation to persons on probation or parole; and imposing certain powers and duties on the Governor and the Board of Pardons.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. HENNEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HENNEY from the Committee on State Boards re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 341, entitled:

An Act to re-enact and further amend the title and the act, approved the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws fifteen, 1933-34), entitled as amended, "An act to regulate and restrain the sale, manufacture, possession, transportation, importation, traffic in, and use of alcohol, and alcoholic and malt or brewed beverages; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board and its agents, the Department of Public Instruction, other officers of the State government, courts, and district attorneys; authorizing the establishment and operation of State stores for the sale of such beverages not for consumption on the premises, and the granting of licenses, subject to local option, to sell such beverages for consumption on and off the premises; forbidding importation or bringing of such beverages into the State except as herein provided; prohibiting certain sales or practices in, connection with, and transactions in such beverages by licensees and others; making disposition of the receipts from State stores and of fees; and imposing penalties;" further regulating the manufacture, sale, importation, use and traffic in liquors, alcohol and malt and brewed beverages; conferring additional powers and imposing additional duties on the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board; further regulating those licensed under this act; imposing additional filing fees and increasing fees for certain permits, and providing for the disposition thereof; further regulating the establishment of State liquor stores and the employment and use of personnel by the board; regulating and providing the procedure for the granting, transfer, revocation and suspension of licenses and for compromises in certain cases and the disposition of moneys arising therefrom; providing for the forfeiture of certain property; regulating the jurisdiction of courts and local option procedure; prohibiting certain interlocking business; and providing penalties.

Mr. HENNEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Also from the Committee on State Boards reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 342, entitled:

An Act to re-enact and amend the act, approved the nineteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred twety-six (Pamphlet Laws, sixteen), entitled, as amended, "An act regulating, under permit, through the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, the manufacture, production, distillation, development, use in manufacture, denaturization, redistillation, rectification, blending, recovery, reuse, holding in bond, holding in storage by bailees for hire, and transportation for hire, of any alcohol, alcoholic liquid or alcoholic beverage, by certain persons; requiring the registration of Federal permits;also providing for fees and the disposition thereof, and for appeals to the courts; also authorizing the inspection of the records of permittees and purchasers of said alcohol, alcoholic liquid, and alcoholic beverages; also declaring certain places nuisances and providing for their abatement; also providing penalties; and also repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act;" further regulating the manufacture, sale, use and traffic in alcohol and alcoholic liquids; conferring additional powers and imposing additional duties upon the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board; further regulating those licensed under this act; imposing filing fees; changing the method of calculating certain license fees; providing for the use of the word "license" instead of "permit"; regulating and providing the procedure for the granting, suspension and revocation of licenses, and for compromises in certain cases; providing for the disposition of fees, compromise penalties and forfeitures; regulating the jurisdiction of courts; and providing penalties.

Mr. HENNEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Also from the Committee on State Boards reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 343, entitled:

An Act to re-enact and further amend the title and the act, approved the third day of May one thousand nine hundred and thiry-three (P. L. 252), entitled as amended "An act to regulate and restrain the traffic in malt and brewed beverages, as herein defined; providing for the licensing of the manufacture, transportation, sale and distribution of such beverages; imposing license and permit fees, and providing for collection and distribution thereof; restricting ownership and interest in licensed places; permitting municipalities and townships, by vote of the electors, to prevent the licensing therein of places where such beverages may be sold for consumption on the premises, and regulating elections for this purpose; imposing duties upon county treasurers, the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, quarter sessions courts district attorneys, the Department of Justice, proper authorities of political subdivisions of the State, and election officers; providing penalties; and repealing existing acts;" defining and further defining and regulating licensees, application for licenses and sales by licensees; and providing for the licensing of package retailers, and fixing fees for such licenses, and for amusement permits; regulating the granting, suspension, revocation and transfer of licenses and the procedure therefor; and conferring jurisdiction on certain courts; providing for the granting of licenses by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board instead of the county treasurer, and prescribing the powers and duties of said board; providing for compromises where licenses are suspended and for the disposition of application, license, permit fees, forfeitures and penalties; and providing penalties.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1027

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1027, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Commonwealth to negotiate temporary emergency loans to defray the current and other expenses of the State government during the two fiscal years beginning the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven evidenced by tax anticipation notes secured by and payable from current revenues levied assessed collectible and accruing during such two fiscal years defining the powers and duties of the Governor the Auditor General and the State Treasurer in relation thereto providing for the payment of interest on and the repayment of such loans and making an appropriation

Whereas the present Session of the General Assembly has provided revenues of the Commonwealth amounting to three hundred fifty-four million dollars ($354,000,000) for general purposes for the biennial fiscal period beginning June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven and

Whereas such revenues though levied and assessed will not be available in large part for the current and other expenses of the State government until the later parts of the two fiscal years respectively of the said biennial fiscal period and the collectible revenues will not be sufficient to defray the current and other expenses of the State government during the earlier parts of such fiscal years respectively and

Whereas in order that the obligations of the Commonwealth may be met promptly and in order that the State government might not fail through lack of funds it is necessary temporarily to obtain funds to defray the current and other expenses of the State government during the fiscal period aforesaid until the revenues that are subsequently accruing to the State Treasury during said fiscal period are available for this purpose

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the Governor the Auditor General and the State Treasurer on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are hereby authorized and directed during the two fiscal years beginning the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven from time to time to borrow on the credit of the current revenues of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania such sum or sums of money not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of one hundred seventy-five million dollars ($175,000,000) as may be necessary to defray the current and other expenses of the State government during such fiscal years

Section 2 (a) Such loans shall be evidenced by notes of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania All of said notes shall mature not later than the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine Such notes are hereby declared to be tax anticipation notes Such notes or renewals thereof shall be issued from time to time for such total amounts in such sums and subject to such terms and conditions rates of interest not in excess of four and one half per centum (4½%) per annum and time of payment of interest as the Governor Auditor General and State Treasurer shall determine and direct

(b) All notes issued under the authority of this act shall bear the facsimile signatures of the Governor the Auditor General and the State Treasurer and a facsimile of the great seal of the Commonwealth

(c) The current revenues of the biennial fiscal period beginning the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven are pledged for the payment of principal and interest of such notes which shall be payable in lawful money of the United States All notes issued under the provisions of this act shall be exempt from taxation for State and local purposes

Section 3 The proceeds derived from the negotiation of loans under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the General Fund of the State Treasury and shall be used for the payment of appropriations made from such fund to defray the current and other expenses of the State government for the biennial fiscal period beginning the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven

Section 4 Any loans negotiated under the provisions of this act shall be secured by the current revenues levied and assessed for revenue purposes of every kind or character accruing to the General Fund of the State Treasury during the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven and shall be paid out of such revenues and so much of such revenues as may be necessary for the payment of the principal and interest of such loans are hereby specifically appropriated The Department of Revenue shall allocate such revenues to said payments The sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated for the purpose of providing tax anticipation notes and incidental expenses in connection with the issuing of the same

Section 5 The provisions of this act are severable and if any of its provisions are held unconstitutional the decision so holding shall not be construed to impair any other provision of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein

Section 6 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

SENATE MESSAGES

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

HOUSE BILL No. 1344.

An Act to amend sections five hundred and fifty-one six hundred and seventy-five and six hundred and seventy-six of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet laws one thousand two hundred seventy-eight) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" by extending authority therein granted to include leasing of real property

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 2, page 2, by striking out beginning in line 15, the following:

"Section 675 Authority to Sell and Lease Real Property The board of Commissioners may sell or lease either as lessor or lessee any real property belonging to the county on petition to the court of common pleas setting forth a description of the property to be sold and the reason therefor the court shall thereupon fix a day for hearing and notice of which shall be given in at least two newspapers in said county of general circulation once a week for three consecutive weeks After hearing the court shall make such order and decree as shall seem right and proper Such sale shall be returned to the following term of court as orphans' court sales are now returned and said court shall confirm or refuse to confirm said sales as it may deem best for the interest of the county" and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 675 Authority to Sell or Lease Real Property The board of commissioners may or sell or lease any real property belonging to the county on petition to the court of common pleas setting forth a description of the property to be sold or leased and the reason therefor the court shall thereupon fix a day for hearing and notice of which shall be given in at least two newspapers in said county of general circulation once a week for three consecutive weeks In the case of any lease of county property hereunder such property with any and all improvements or additions thereon or thereto shall in the hands of the lessee be subject to taxation by such county and any other municipal or political subdivision therein in the same manner as all other real estate located in such county all of which taxes shall be levied and assessed against and paid by the lessee After hearing the court shall make such an order and decree as shall seem right and proper Such sale or lease shall be returned to the following term of court as orphans' court sales are now returned and said court shall confirm or refuse to confirm said sales or leases as it may deem best for the interests of the county."

Section 31 Constitutionality The provisions of this act are severable and if any of its provisions are declared unconstitutional the decision so holding shall not be construed as impairing any other provision of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included therein

Section 32 Effective Date This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

Section 33 Repeals All other acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill now under consideration provides for the formation of a Family Court in Philadelphia. At the same time it is a part of the general ripper scheme of that same court. This present bill would establish a Family Court to take over the duties and functions of the Domestic Relations Court as now constituted, in so far as those duties refer to certain domestic affairs.

First of all, I would like to give you a history of the court and the work that it has been doing. The court was created in 1913 by an act of the Legislature. There are at this time eleven judges in the court. The court started its jurisdiction in all domestic affairs, such as non-support, dependent, delinquent or neglected children, street walking, offenses of minors, adoption, morals, and so forth. In addition the court has civil and equity jurisdiction and criminal jurisdiction, subject to certain limitations.

At the time of its creation there was no doubt in anybody's mind that the city needed a court to handle domestic affairs. It was also probably considered that a poor man's court was necessary. What the people of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia and the members of the Legislature overlooked was the fact that the common pleas setup in Philadelphia was in such a shape that the court business was stalled and it was absolutely impossible to handle the civil business of the City of Philadelphia. The result was that the poor man had his court, but the attorneys of Philadelphia saw an opportunity to get their cases disposed of expeditiously and brought suit in the Municipal Court instead of bringing suit in the Common Pleas Court. The result is that from 1914 to date over three hundred thousand civil suits have been commenced in that court and over ten thousand civil cases are disposed of in a year. Lawyers get their cases disposed of in about six months. If they did not get a fair trial by fair and competent judges, they would not bring suits at the rate of ten thousand and upward a year in the Municipal Court. Of course, what we are particularly interested in today is the domestic relations side of the Court. The whole picture however should be considered because this particular ripper is only a part of the plan to destroy the court as a whole. You ladies and gentlemen from smaller cities and country districts cannot realize the scope of this court's activities. In one year, in the Juvenile Division, there were over twelve thousand cases disposed of, and thirty-nine thousand cases investigated. In the twenty-three years of activity of the court three hundred and thirty-five thousand cases of that character have been disposed of. In the Domestic Relations Court itself there are fifteen thousand cases a year and they are cases which involve non-support or something of that character, and about two-thirds are handled by the Reconciliation Division without the necessity of a formal court hearing. That division of the court collects about $1,355,000 a year for the benefit and relief of deserted wives, children or parents. The total figure is almost $30.000,000. The Misdemeanants Division handles yearly the cases of about 3,700 men, women, boys and girls. In the Criminal Division there have been about seventy thousand bills of indictment presented. Over eleven thousand cases involving illegitimate children have been handled. Then, of course, there were a large number of mental and physical examinations in the court's Medical Division, amounting to about nineteen thousand a year. In addition there are more than ten thousand cases a year disposed of in the Civil Division, and four thousand five hundred cases a year in the Small Claims Division. Therefore, you see that the poor man's feature of the court has not been overlooked, when there are four thousand five hundred cases in that division alone.

That is a physical picture of the court you are asked to destroy. Some of you men know this has been a model for other cities of this country and foreign nations. It is a complete judicial setup in itself.

From a court organization standpoint it cannot be improved upon. Why destroy it? Well, the Shapiro Committee said that the community needs a Domestic Relations Court and a Civil Court of limited jurisdiction. This setup won't do because there are politicians working in the court and some of the judges knew they were not only politicians but Republicans in the bargain. Also one judge appointed his son as his secretary, and another as a court crier. Those two young men were college graduates and entirely fitted for the positions which they held. Another judge appointed his brother as secretary. Another judge apointed two or three competent members of his family. In referring to this outrageous example of nepotism, bear in mind that the qualifications of men can be impeached. True the brother of one judge, who after performing well an important position for about twenty years, went blind in the service. Senator Shapiro of course referred to that as an incident of mismanagement in the court.

The other reasons why you should destroy the court are that three employes receive more than the twenty-five hundred dollars fixed by statute. In other words, the statute limits the salary of twenty-five hundred dollars and they received a couple of hundred dollars more than they were entitled to according to this interpretation of the act. Those employes are repaying back the amount of money which they received over and above the twenty-five hundred dollars.

The question for this House to decide is whether or not the Representatives of the State of Pennsylvania will permit the destruction of a court because you want the five hundred or so jobs it contains, or if you are going to demand proof of impeachable offenses on the part of the judges of that court before destroying it. This is a State issue and not a local one. The judges with two exceptions are not and have not been politically active. As a matter of fact they have no political interests whatsoever. The Municipal Court has the respect of the people of Philadelphia, even in the face of the gyrations of the Shapiro Committee. The burden is on the sponsor of the Municipal Court a partial substitute to prove not only the judges as a whole are and have been guilty of impeachable offenses, but that the Family Court would be an improvement on the present court as now constituted.

I am going to ask you to listen to the debate on this subject with great care, as it is a most important issue and I am going to ask you to lay aside politics and decide whether or not the present charges, if any, are of such a serious nature that you should destroy the court which is rendering such wide and useful service to the people of Philadelphia and has been doing so over a period of more than twenty years.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in rising to ask for your support of House Bill No. 108, I wish to preface my remarks with this adage that "He who seeks to command respect must deserve that respect," whether it be a person, institution or a court.

There has been a movement on foot for many years to reconstruct this court and not destroy it, because in December, 1936 one of our Philadelphia newspapers ably stated this point:"

"Municipal Court's self probe recalls blocked 1927 quiz." Probation setup exposed; judges withdrew cooperation.

"The Municipal Court is about to engage in the curious undertaking of investigating itself. Maybe the investigation will be a real one. Maybe the judges will announce that they have discovered their administration is full of faults. Maybe they will order a general house-cleaning and begin firing their own appointees. Maybe.

"Back in 1927 the court was supposed to cooperate in a somewhat similar investigation. Everything went like a breeze until a few embarrassing facts began coming to life.

"Then, suddenly, the investigation was over. The Bureau of Municipal Research, which was making the probe at the invitation of Judge Raymond MacNeille (Then President judge of the court) announced:

'"The inquiry has ended because of lack of cooperation on the part of the court'.

"The trouble was the resignation of Judge MacNeille, to enter Common Pleas Court.

"'With Judge MacNeille's resignation' the Bureau reported, 'the court's cooperation in giving access to information needed for the survey came to an end'.

"But the probe, made by fifty trained investigators, already had uncovered a few indications pointing to 'political influence and lack of inspiring and competent leadership'.

"What investigators found. Here are a few of them:

"Probation officers were asked to make contributions to the Republican Committee.

"Probation officers charged with the delicate task of keeping criminals and delinquents on the straight path, were paid less than $2,000 a year, while tipstaves and court criers who announce the opening and close of court each day were paid between $2,500 and $3,000 a year.

"Workers on the court's million dollar payroll were busy with politics in their home wards. When investigators called upon them at their offices they were, frequently, peacefully sleeping.

"And here are some specific instances of laxity and laziness the investigators uncovered," and they were not investigators of the Shapiro Committee but they were trained investigators of the Municipal Research Bureau.

"In the Men's Criminal Division workers due at nine straggled in from nine-thirty to ten.

"Telephone inquirers who called too early were told the men were 'making investigations' on their way to work. There was 'a general air of slackness' about workers' headquarters.

"One officer naively reported he had so many people visit his home he couldn't get to work until late.

"Some probation officers, due to put probationers through a searching quiz each week, would say briefly: 'Name? Working? O. K. Come in next week' ".

An so on and on and on. This investigation was started in 1927, but the party in power at that time did not see fit or did not have the gumption to do what we are endeavoring to do today, that is, to clean house in the Municipal Court of Philadelphia. As a matter of fact this is a non-partisan proposition because there are Democratic as well as Republican judges in the Municipal Court at this time. Still further, in December of 1926 after the November election, when the Democratic Party came into power, some of the judges of Municipal Court knew that somethings of this sort would inevitably occur and therefore they asked permission and decided that they would start an investigation of their own. Those judges made the investigation and reported to the balance of the Board of Judges and that report advocated the elimination of politics in the courts and it advocated the elimination of several hundred employes at an annual saving of several hundred thousand dollars to the people of Philadelphia. That report was shelved and the entire budget of the prior year was asked for so that Council could appropriate that money for the Municipal Court. This is the condition of the court today. It is purely a political court, and, we, with the establishment of the Family Court and with the passage of various other bils which are pending before the House and Senate, are endeavoring to make the Domestic Relations Court in Philadelphia an institution worthy of its name. We are endeavoring under this Family Court Bill to take out from the Municipal Court the civil jurisdiction and then transfer that into a higher court, the Common Pleas Court. We are endeavoring under House Bill No. 108 to put under civil service the probation officers and the employes of Municipal Court. We are endeavoring under House Bill No. 108, not only to clean house but also to save the taxpayers of Philadelphia several hundred thousand dollars.

I might call your attention to that part of the Shapiro report which was submitted to this House on March 27 1937, as follows:

"Whereas, Certain of the judges at the present time on the Board of Judges of the Municipal Court may personally be fine fellows and may personally be able and ought to command certain respect, nevertheless they sat in at the meetings and confirmed everything that the Board of Judges decided and approved their illegal action."

There were certain features in the Court activity that the Shapiro Committee brought out which were absolutely illegal and contrary to the statutes of Pennsylvania. Nevertheless, all judges acquiesced. Not only did they run this court politically but they ran the court illegally in certain respects, and that is another reason why they ought to be removed in whatever manner this Legislature will later decide.

This bill is directly in line with the rest of the good things we are endeavoring to do in Philadelphia. If we were ambitious or if we were selfish or politically minded, we would not put civil service in this Family Court. We are endeavoring in this bill as well as in every other bill we are endavoring to put through to put in certain qualifications for the employes of the various branches of government of the City of Philadelphia. We are attempting to do a good job because the people in November told us to do so by their votes. House Bill No. 108 is the result of that mandate of the people, it is the result of an investigation made in 1927 by an impartial body, is the result of the investigation made by a joint legislative committee of the House and Senate.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is very important and vital to the people of Philadelphia that House Bill No. 108 be passed and that all related measures which are before the Legislature be passed because in that way and in that way alone will we be able to make Philadelphia as free as possible from political activities in the courts and we will be able to save several hundred thousand dollars a year for the taxpayers of Philadelphia.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, I would like interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Ominsky.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to interrogated?

Mr. OMINSKY. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, when he refers to patronage, if the patronage does not still remain under his bill in the Board of Judges?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the question of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McDevitt, I will say that is not correct. The patronage does not remain in the Board of Judges, except that they set up a civil service and every employe will be obliged to take an examination, both written and oral, and the employes will be selected from that list after they pass the examination. The patronage is not directly under the control of the Board of Judges as such.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, in other words, the list is made up by the Board of Judges and they then pick out from that list the people that they want to appoint, is that correct?

Mr. OMINSKY. No, Mr. Speaker, that is not correct, they pick out from the first three names on the list.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, then I understand that the Board of Judges takes one from the first three and then they continue the same as you would under any civil service law that exists at this time.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, that is exactly the same provision as is contained in the Federal civil service law.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, regardless of his position on the list, if he is skipped three times, he goes off the list, is that correct?

Mr. OMINSKY. That is correct.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, what provision does this bill contain that cannot be placed in the Municipal Court Act by amendment?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, there are many features of the bill that cannot be replaced or amended in the Municipal Court Act, but the most important feature is this, even if we were able to amend the present Municipal Court Act there isn't any likelihood that the court will carry out the intentions of the act, as shown by their actions prior thereto.

Mr. McDEVITT. Is it the idea of the gentleman from Philadelphia that these new appointees with no experience whatsoever in any line of judicial duty, will perform their duties better than trained men who have served for over twenty years, and who have not in any way been criticized or accused of any wrong doing?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, the question of the gentleman from Philadelphia embraces so many theories that I must answer it in my own way. I would say this, where a judge has been sitting in a court for twenty or twenty-five years, he may have become imbibed with certain principles and does not conform to the changed times. Therefore, I feel, especially as it involves a Domestic Relations problem, that new blood can do as good, if not better work, than older people.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, in referring to the Bureau of Municipal Research, may I ask the gentleman if he is familiar with their pamphlet dated March 30 in which they criticize the civil service provision of this bill as being very weak?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I am very familiar with that pamphlet in which they analyze House Bill No. 108, but in that pamphlet, like a good many other research agencies of that type they do not take a definite step as to whether or not the Family Court should be established. It seems to me they want to play both ends.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, of course, the gentleman understands that the court is operating every day on a large scale and that they have cases listed for a period of time and that it is necessary that immediate facilities be provided to carry on those duties. Will the present employes be continued or will new appointments be made temporarily?

Mr. OMINSKY. In answer to the question of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Speaker, I can assure him as well as this membership that the court's work and functions will not cease for one moment because the civil service provision under this act does not start until after ninety days. The employes of the Municipal Court will probably continue that function under different heads the same as our present new Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission is functioning. The employes in the court today will be given an opportunity to take the examination, and by virtue of their experience in the court, if they have had any experience, or by virtue of their work, if they have done any work, will more than likely be able to pass the examination, and they will be eligible for reappointment.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, we of course realize that the present employes or anybody else in the City of Philadelphia at least could take this examination but what provision does this bill contain, or what provision is there in the bill that would prevent the immediate firing of a large number of these employes and the appointment of new employes and in that event how would they be removed before taking examination?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman's question, I will say this that I believe in some respects a lot of those employes ought to be fired. If the new appointments are made during these ninety days their appointments will be revoked at the end of that time, and after an elegible list has been drawn up by the Board of Judges those who pass the civil service examination will be appointed.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, is it not true that there is no provision in this bill that would prevent the continuance in office of the temporary employes or the new employes put in by the new Board of Judges, however you want to classify them.

Mr. OMINSKY. That is not correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, may I inquire what provision there is in the bill by which they may or could be removed at the end of that period of time.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I believe that under the civil service section of the bill no employe can hold a provisional appointment for more than ninety days, if I recall the act correctly and, therefore if they were appointed during the interim and they haven't passed the examination at the end of ninety days they cannot hold office.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, doesn't that provision refer to vacancies subsequent to the first examination?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, it refers to all employes.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, once more I rise, not speaking upon the merits of the bill so far as it relates to Philadelphia, but as I happen to be a country boy, coming from a rural section, and not being familiar with the plans or the purposes or the desires or the intentions of the boys from Philadelphia to change their government and their governmental employes, I have no criticism nor will I take any part in it, but as once before on a similiar measure in this House, when it vitally effects the rest of the State, when it effects the State itself, we who represent the rural districts, and many of my colleagues on this side of the House are from the rural districts, and many of the men on the other side of the House are from rural districts, we would like to know what effect it will have upon us. We must rely upon the Press, we must rely upon the spoken word as to how your system is being operated in Philadelphia. I have listened with a great deal of interest to the two preceding gentlemen and I have the greatest respect for them, both as to their sincerity and ability. After listening to these gentlemen I am undecided as to whether this proposed change in the system in Philadelphia is just another ripping out to put in employes of a new political party or whether it is a necessary change in the conduct of Philadelphia affairs, but the men from rural sections of the State feel that this is not purely a Philadelphia bill. It is a bill which the rural counties of the State will be called upon to pay. We ought to know in the rural sections, who are helping to pay the bill, who is being ripped out by this bill, if it is purely ripper legislation. If it pertains only to local Philadelphia employment and they are paying the bill then I believe that we should keep our fingers out of it, but when we pay the bill for the judges, when the taxpayers from the rural counties as well pay the bill, it has an entirely different aspect.

I have been following this proposition of the ripping out of courts in the newspapers and in the investigation, and I am vitally interested in two things. First, the court, and, secondly, in economy, as the people from the rural sections which I represent will help to pay the bill. I have before me some of the newspaper articles, which I will not read in detail. I believe we are dependent, in the rural sections at least, upon newspaper reports. If Philadelphia really needs this change, we in the rural sections will not complain about paying the extra cost, but if Philadelphia does not need this change then it is unfair for us to take the money from the pockets of our people in order to satisfy ripper legislation.

I will quote from the Bulletin of the Bureau of Municipal Research, which both gentlemen cited in their argument, and concerning which I believe there has been no criticism. We find this:

"A question which does lie within the Bureau's field is whether the machine which the new judges would operate would be an improved one." The Bureau from its investigation made this relevant statement that in their opinion the system would not be an improved model to that which exist today. The opinion, says the Bureau, is based after a careful analysis.

I have been following the various matters as they have appeared in the newspapers. I am quoting from a newspaper article in one of the Philadelphia newspapers:

"Analysis of the Family Court Bill as made by the nonpartisan nonpolitical Bureau of Municipal Research shows that it will not eliminate abuses known to exist in the Municipal Court. The greatest complaint against the present tribunal has been that it is dominated by politics which have ruled in the selection of employes * * * but the difficulty is that the law governing the proposed new court does not correct any of the evils that have been cited against the Municipal Court. That body has done an outstanding piece of social work in its handling of domestic and juvenile problems."

The article goes on to say:

"In fact many other provisions of the bill are criticized in the analysis. They all point to the desire of the Democrats to run the Municipal Court in the same manner that it has been run. There is no evidence of sincere desire to correct evils. Apparently it is to be prostituted to Democratic purposes in the future as it has been to the Republican uses in the past."

Then I noticed another newspaper article in which they commented on a public hearing that was held on this bill, in which they said that it was difficult to get any proponents of the bill to appear before the committee. However, they go ahead and say that there is a public demand for the abolition of the Municipal Court. "The witnesses who were expected to say they favored the change in courts just could not be heckled or cajoled into saying that they favor the Shapiro plan. They seemed determined to express their own ideas. Almost without exception they made it plain to the committee that while evils are known to exist in the Municipal Court they could be corrected by amending the present act. In fact, they suggested that a good civil service system for the court was all that was needed. One witness went so far as to condemn the bills advocated by Senator Shapiro. He said they should make specific provision for physicians, physiologists and psychiatrists. He insisted the Juvenile Court is well assisted by Judge Rosen and then he astounded his examiners by saying, 'Judge Brown has done a definite service to Philadelphia as a pioneer.' What made it worse is that he is State Director of the Democratic created National Youth Administration. It is significant that those who were summoned to condemn were found testifying that the good in the Municipal Court should be preserved and that the evil is easy of correction."

Then I received a letter from a gentleman whom I do not know closely but who from my investigation from sources available to lawyers and from other sources has a very high and able place at the Philadelphia Bar. I think many of you members received one of these letters and perhaps you have thrown it away, but it throws a significant light upon the Municipal Court, so far as we of the rural districts are concerned. This letter was addressed, as I say, to the member who is speaking and I think it was sent to each of the other members, and calls attention to the great waste of money in the Pennsylvania State Treasury that would result from the abolition of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia. The letter states that the Act of July 12, 1913, which created the court, Section 2 provides: "The judges of the said court shall be learned of the law and shall be elected by the duly qualified electors of said county, for terms of ten years if they so long behave themselves well".

The letter further states that the requirement that they be learned of the law brings them particularly within the provisions of Article V, Section XV of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which reads:

"All judges required to be learned of the law, except the judges of the Supreme Court, shall be elected by the qualified electors of the respective districts over which they are to preside, and shall hold offices for the period of ten years, if they so long behave themselves well; but for any reasonable cause which shall not be sufficient grounds for impeachment, the Governor may remove any of them on the address of two-thirds of each House of the General Assembly."

The letter goes on to state further:

"The Constitution having fixed ten years as the term of office for these eleven duly elected judges, it inevitably follows under the principle illustrated by the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Commonwealth v. Gamble, 62 Pa. 343, that the General Assembly cannot legislate these judges out of office during the periods for which they have respectively been elected.

He then referred to a ruling of the Supreme Court and made a comparison."

The letter goes on to say:

"If an act were passed attempting to divest these judges of office all they would need to do would be to notify the Governor and the Chief Justice of Pennsylvania that they stood ready to perform judicial duties whenever and wherever assigned, and their salaries would have to be paid to the ends of the terms for which they were elected. In dollars this would mean, figuring only from the end of the year 1937, that the amounts thus payable as salaries would be as follows:

"The President Judge and five additional judges, whose terms expire the first Monday of January, 1944, would have to be paid their salaries for the years 1938, 1939, 1940, 1941, 1942 and 1943, six years each—

The President Judge at $10,500	$ 63,000
Five judges at $10,000 a year each	300,000
Three judges whose terms expire the first Monday of January 1942 would have to be paid for four years each, making a total of	120,000
One judge whose term expires the first Monday of January 1936, would have to be paid for eight years	80,000
Grand total of salaries thus payable	$563,000

"Further, four of those judges are at this time entitled to accept the benefit of the State Retirement Act. At the expiration of the term to which they have been elected, three additional judges would be entitled to the benefit of that act, making a total of seven judges to receive pensions to the ends of their lives.

"Further, under Article V, Section 18, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, JUDGES ARE PAID BY THE STATE.

"The Municipal Court is performing every function which it is proposed to transfer to five family court judges and three small-claims court judges which the legislature is asked to create. The salaries of the five family court judges at $14,000 a year each would be $70,000, and of the three small-claims judges at $7,500 a year each would be $21,500, total $91,500.

"Is there any need to waste the taxpayers' money in this way, besides later saddling the State with a pension bill of such dimensions?"

I haven't expressed any personal views in this matter. I have merely quoted articles from the Philadelphia Press and a letter written by a Philadelphia practitioner, and I tell the members of the House who are representing the rural sections that this is one bill which you will be called upon to pay, as well as the City of Philadelphia, and I ask you to act accordingly on the bill.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to thank the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Perry, for putting more aptly than I did the work of the Municipal Court in the past. He said in referring to the court that the court has been prostituted to Republican uses in the past. Now, I hesitated to use that word, but inasmuch as he has used it for me, I wish to thank him. He referred to the report of the Bureau of Municipal Research. I want to remind the members of the House that on the last page of that report the following observation appeared.

"The reader is reminded that in the introductory pages of this memorandum the Bureau of Municipal Research states the purposes of its discussion and the conclusions concerning the family court bill which it derives from the detailed analysis. It seems desirable to reiterate that on the question whether the best family court act would be a law setting up a new court or an amended municipal court act the Bureau takes no position."

I hope that answers the question about the merits or demerits of the new setup. Now, there is a vital question as to whether the State will pay the salaries of the judges who under this bill will be taken out of office. You know that even Philadelphia lawyers as well as judges may be wrong in the law, or may change their mind. I believe that is only one phase of the legal aspect as to whether the State will have to bear the brunt of the salaries of the judges in the future. We feel and we have competent legal advice that the State will not have to pay the salaries of those judges for the balance of their terms, but we also intend to take two precautions to prevent any possibility of a Supreme Court ruling otherwise. In the first place, we have been advised that several of the judges as soon as this Family Court bill is passed will resign, and on the question of resignations, I might mention the matter of those who may be eligible for pension. I might say that when an employe of the State or when an officer of this State goes on pension the State does not have to pay any additional money for his retirement because they have already paid in a certain amount of money to which they are entitled, the same as under an insurance policy, therefore, in that case the State will not bear any additional burden because if any of those judges do resign they will be eligible to that pension regardless of any pending legislation. As far as salaries are concerned I wish to say this, if after this set up which we have in mind is finally approved by the House and the Senate, and a transfer of the various functions is taken over from the Municipal Court and put in the Common Pleas Court or in this Family Court, then those judges will have nothing to do, and as a matter of fact if they still persist in claiming salary we will take steps to prevent them from doing so under this method. In the first place we have a right on petition of two-thirds of both Houses to recall those judges, and as a matter of fact where there is no work to do and the Legislature has seen fit to transfer their powers, the Legislature of necessity must see to it that they are recalled. Secondly, it is our intention to see to it that the State of Pennsylvania does not appropriate any further moneys for the payment of salaries to Municipal Court judges, but the appropriation will go to the Family Court judges. This is what it will do: It means that so long as the Commonwealth does not appropriate that money those judges will not be paid their salaries, even though they request that payment. And there is no legal action against the Commonwealth, because the Commonwealth is a sovereign power. In addition to that, in line with the legal proposition, the Commonwealth would have no moral right to appropriate to the Municipal Court the balance of the salaries due to those judges. Therefore, on that score, members of the House, I feel that there is no fear that the rural membership or any part of the State will suffer the payment of any additional salaries, which would in any event effect the City of Philadelphia probably more so than any other ten or fifteen counties in Pennsylvania.

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Perry.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Blair permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PERRY. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Perry, whether or not he is of the opinion, if the abolition of the Municipal Court is a desirable thing for the public interest, that he would be in favor of such a bill.

Mr. PERRY. I would, Mr. Speaker, but I also wish to state that from the newspaper reports which I have read and analyzed I am convinced that there is no such need at this time.

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, may I ask if the gentleman is familiar with the poll conducted by the Philadelphia Bar Association?

Mr. PERRY. I am, Mr. Speaker, but not enough to quote from it.

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman from Blair familiar with the fact that a poll was conducted by the Philadelphia Bar Association?

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, I received a letter to that effect some time ago.

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, may I call the attention of the gentleman from Blair as well as the membership of the House to the fact that the poll was conducted by 3,758 members of the Philadelphia Bar association and the poll resulted in 934 members of the Philadelphia Bar voting in favor of the abolition of the Municipal Court, and 1,293 members of the Philadelphia Bar voting against the abolition of the Municipal Court, and that there were fifteen hundred members of the Philadelphia Bar who did not vote on the question. I would ask the gentleman from Blair whether or not it would seem to be a subject of fit discussion, that over fifteen hundred members of the Philadelphia Bar did not think enough of the Philadelphia Municipal Court to vote on this question.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the question of the gentleman from Philadelphia, I would say it would be a phase to take into consideration in forming an opinion on the question, but at the same time there are certain interests in the Bar Association that might prohibit the expression of a true opinion, which does not exist in the Press nor does it exist in the Research studies or investigations of the Municipal Research Bureau.

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Blair what interests in the Philadelphia Bar Association would prohibit a fair discussion?

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, only from my own immediate experience as a practitioner before the courts; I would hesitate to vote to abolish my court unless I was certain it would be done.

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman from Blair familiar that the poll was a secret poll conducted by the certified public accountants without the names of those supplying the answers on a postcard, upon which the questions were asked.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, not as to the procedure, but I understand also that the Literary Digest had a secret poll and they were a little wrong on the ultimate vote.

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, I notice that the gentleman from Blair quoted a case of Commonwealth v. Gamble, which he cites with approval. I am sure that the gentleman from Blair would not cite that case with approval unless he has read the case. May I ask the gentleman if he did read the case.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, I was quoting from a Mr. Detweiler, a man of very high repute and skilled in that city.

Mr. BLANK. Mr. Speaker, I again ask the gentleman from Blair if he has read the case?

Mr. PERRY. I may have during my school days, Mr. Speaker, but I cannot qualify as having done so in recent times.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, so far as the poll is concerned, no matter which way you gentlemen look at it the proponents did not win. I might also say that the supporters of the Municipal Court have taken the position from the beginning to the end that the court cannot be ripped out as a legal proposition. Very recently there has been no activity whatsoever on the part of the court itself. It is also a well known fact, if we are considering influences, one way or the other, that a great number of our lawyers in Philadelphia, particularly the younger attorneys, are Democrats, as you well know from the membership of this House, and I believe I can also state from my own personal knowledge and as a result of being told by a large number of people that the telephone wires were burned up by the proponents of this bill seeking votes in favor of the bill. Regardless of how you look at it the poll is in favor of the opponents of the bill. Our idea is that we receive fair play on this bill. I also realize after hearing the statements on the other side of the House that they do not dare to impeach the personal integrity or character of the gentleman sitting on the bench of that court. I will admit that possibly two men out of eleven might be cited for impeachment, one because of his political activities, and the other because of some other reason, but they are only two out of eleven. As I said before, when we had the hearing here a week ago five of the judges appeared before the committee. Senator Shapiro said that with the exception of the President Judge that he had the highest opinion of the judges. Now, isn't this a very slight line of demarcation to say, that these judges, who are not businessmen, but judges learned in the law, when each one said that he did not want to have anything to do with patronage, that he did not have time to bother with it, that his judicial duties took up all his time, that it would be a great relief to separate them from the patronage, that what they wanted to do was try cases, to carry out their duties as judges of the Municipal Court. In all fairness if you had heard the president and secretary of a large national organization, who said he had been a Democrat for over fifty years, that after waiting for this long period of time for his party to come into power, that he would be confronted with the situation such as this, something he thought they would never do. If it is a question of patronage, I do not believe that these two judges will desire to hold on to it. If it is a question of personal integrity with all or any of these judges on the bench, why not try to impeach them. That would be the proper procedure and not the destruction of a setup which has continued for a period of over twenty years and which has been a model for many other states and cities and foreign countries. I ask you to vote against this bill.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Perry.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Blair permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PERRY. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, do I understand the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Perry, to state that he would vote against the bill now pending before this body on quotations that he read from the Philadelphia newspapers?

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, one quotation is from a pamphlet received from the Bureau of Municipal Research, and from a letter signed by an attorney, whose name I mentioned a few minutes ago.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has a great deal of faith, has he not, in newspaper articles?

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, I put faith in all the newspapers that are published in the State of Pennsylvania over the course of the last few years.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman read more than one Philadelphia newspaper?

Mr. PERRY. I read, Mr. Speaker, both the Inquirer and the Record.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, did the gentleman quote from the Philadelphia Record?

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, I did not quote from the Record.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, did the gentleman read the entire newspaper quotation, which he read into the record?

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, inasmuch as those quotations are in the hands of the stenographers, I do not know.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman from Blair were endeavoring to determine somebody's character and there were twelve hundred thirty-five witnesses who said he was of good character, and there were nine hundred some odd witnesses, who said he was of bad character, what would he assume the gentleman's character to be?

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, I cannot quite see the relevancy on that question inasmuch as no character has been attacked.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, is not the gentleman aware of the fact that accusations have been made against the judges for violations of the Act of Assembly?

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, I am not familiar with any accusations as to violations, applying to the judges in Philadelphia.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, if the judges deliberately and openly violated Acts of the Assembly, would the gentleman feel that they were fit to sit as judges in their court?

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, before passing my opinion as to anyone's character, just the same as passing upon my opinion on this bill, I would like to know the facts back of each case before I would express an opinion of that nature.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, March 23, 1937.

Whereas, the State Capitol of Pennsylvania is a veritable treasure-house of great paintings and inspiring murals, and

Whereas, the central themes of such great paintings as the "Apotheosis of Pennsylvania", "Penn's Treaty with the Indians", "Reading the Declaration of Independence", "Unity", "Lincoln at Gettysburg", "Washington delivering his Constitutional Address", "Valley Forge" or of the awe-inspiring murals adorning the Supreme Court Room of the State Capitol and known as "The Divine Law", "The Scale of Law", "The Golden Age", "Themis", "The Decalogue". "The Beatitudes", "Code of Justinian", "Backstone's Commentaries", "Spirit of William Blackstone", "William Penn as Law Giver", "Supreme Court of Pennsylvania", "Supreme Court of United States", "Supreme Court of the World", and "Disarmament", are of immense cultural and educational value to the people of our great Commonwealth, and

Whereas, the distribution of the reproductions of said murals, and the dissemination of descriptions and information pertaining to these classic paintings have not been heretofore commensurate with their scriptural majesty, awe-inspiring grandeur and thought-provoking value, and

Whereas, a planned and well-directed distribution of reproductions of said murals and paintings and the dissemination of descriptions and information pertaining to these great art-treasures of our State Capitol would be conducive to both an increased tourist-traffic in Pennsylvania and an enhanced interest in the glorious past of our Commonwealth, and

Whereas, "The Pennsylvania Manual" published by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and compiled under direction of the Bureau of Publications of the Department of Property and Supplies is the official primary-source-book of information pertaining to our Commonwealth, its government and institutions, and

Whereas, thousands of exemplars of said "Pennsylvania Manual" are being annually distributed throughout the nation and our Commonwealth, thus providing a channel for the dissemination of valuable information, and

Whereas, preparations are now being made for the publication of the forthcoming issue of "The Pennsylvania Manual" for the 1937-1938 biennium, therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) that the forthcoming issue of "The Pennsylvania Manual" for the 1937-1938 biennium shall contain in addition to its usual material also a new chapter devoted to the description of the art-treasures of the State Capitol together with the reproductions of its paintings and murals, and be it further

Resolved that the President Pro-Tem of the Senate appoint three (3) Senators and the Speaker of the House appoint three (3) Representatives, who together shall form a Committee to write and to edit said chapter, and be it further

Resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to his Excellency the Governor of Pennsylvania, and the Secretary of Property and Supplies.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

BILLS SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

Bills numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 664.

An Act to amend Section twenty-one of the act approved the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred thirty-six (Pamphlet Laws 551) entitled "An act relating to roads highways and bridges" providing for the vacation of parts of former State roads and turnpike roads where State highways are changed or relocated

HOUSE BILL No. 1564.

An Act to amend section four hundred thirty-nine of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 1278) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" as amended providing that certain forms used by the county commissioners relative to the compilation of war records of deceased service men shall be prescribed but not furnished by the Department of Military Affairs

HOUSE BILL No. 1659.

A Joint Resolution authorizing the appointment of a commission to make a thorough and impartial investigation into the operation of the oil industry in this Commonwealth with special reference to the adequate efficient and economical supplying of lubricating oils and gasoline to the people of this Commonwealth conferring upon the commission full power to issue subpoenas requiring the Governor together with its recommendations as to such regulatory legislation as may be needful to correct any abuses and evils connected with industry which are prejudicial to the interests of the citizens of this Commonwealth authorizing the commission to employ counsel and employes and making an appropriation

HOUSE BILL No. 1674.

An Act directing the Department of Military Affairs to select procure award and provide for the furnishing of certain service medals

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1559, entitled:

An Act concerning vocational education providing for the acceptance by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania of the provisions of the act of Congress approved June eighth one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six entitled "An act to provide for the further development of vocational education in the several States and Territories" and conferring powers and imposing duties on the State Treasurer and the State Council of Education

Whereas An act of Congress approved June eighth one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six to provide for the further development of vocational education requires the states participating in its benefits to accept the provisions of said act therefore

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1261, entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand and forty-six of the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 519) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" providing for the employment by auditors and for the compensation of an attorney

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1802, entitled:

An Act authorizing County Commissioners to refund taxes and license fees erroneously and inadvertently paid by persons and corporations into the county treasury and limiting the time within which claims for refunds must be made

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Westrick.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the gentleman from Cambria explain this bill.

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker, what we are attempting to do here is to give to the man who buys a half-year's automobile license, as well as the one who buys the last quarter of a year's license, their money's worth. By that I mean that when they buy a half-year's license they are receiving six month's service. If you will refer to the bill you will find that we are setting the date ahead one month, from the first of August to the first of July in the half-year's license, and for the last quarter we are setting it ahead from November first to October first. I have always been under the impression that it is only the poorest of people who wants to buy a half-year's license or a quarter year's license, and, therefore, I am firmly convinced that those are the people who are entitled to their money's worth.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, it must have been apparent to the Assembly who passed this act originally that there was some discrepency in the six month's or the half-year's license, and I presume that there was some reason for making it August instead of July. I wonder if the sponser of this bill is familiar with those reasons. The original bill calls for August instead of July.

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker, in answering that query, not knowing the exact date on which the bill was written. I would say that it was written in the horse and buggy days before automobiles were so generally used as they are today and that it was done to encourage the buying of a whole year's license rather than a half-year's. Today with their general use there is only one class of people that are buying a half-year's or a last quarter's license and those are the downright poor.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1119 as follows:

An Act to amend section one and sections two and eleven as amended of and to add section five and one-tenth to the act approved the thirteenth day of March one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws 21) entitled "An act defining optometry and relating to the right to practice optometry in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and making certain exceptions and providing a Board of Optometrical Education Examination and Licensure and means and methods whereby the right to practice optometry may be obtained and providing for the means to carry out the provisions of this act and providing for revocation or suspension of licenses given by said board and providing penalties for violations thereof and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith" by further regulating the practice of optometry and providing for the licensing of optometric eye specialists having the right to treat the human eye

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of the act approved the thirtieth day of March one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws 21) entitled "An act defining optometry and relating to the right to practice optometry in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and making certain exceptions and providing a Board of Optometrical Education Examination and Licensure and means and methods whereby the right to practice optometry may be obtained and providing for the means to carry out the provisions of this act and providing for revocation or suspension of licenses given by said board and providing penalties for violations thereof and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the practice of optometry is hereby defined to be the employment of any means other than the use of drugs for the measurement of the powers of vision and the adaptation of lenses for the correction and aid of the vision of human beings

The term "optometrist" shall mean one licensed as provided in this act to engage in the practice of optometry

The term "optometric eye specialist" shall mean one

licensed as provided in this act to engage in the practice of optometry and to practice all the arts and sciences necessary for the treatment and diagnosis of diseases of or injuries to and the complete care of the human eye but shall not include surgery of the eye or the making of any tests or diagnosis or the giving of any treatments other than for the eyes

Section 2 That section two of said act as amended by the act approved the nineteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws 260) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 2 That on and after January first one thousand nine hundred and eighteen it shall not be lawful for any person in this Commonwealth to engage in the practice of optometry or to hold himself out as a practitioner of optometry or to attempt to determine by an examination of the eye the kind of glasses needed by any person or to hold himself out as a licensed optometrist or optometric eye specialist when not so licensed or to hold himself out as able to examine the eyes of any person for the purpose of fitting the same with glasses excepting those hereinafter exempted unless he has first fulfilled the requirements of this act and has received a certificate of licensure from the Board of Optometrical Education Examination and Licensure created by this act nor shall it be lawful for any person in this Commonwealth to represent that he is the lawful holder of a certificate of licensure such as is provided for in this act when in fact he is not such lawful holder or to impersonate any licensed practitioner of optometry or any optometric eye specialist

Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction be subject upon his first offense to a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment for not more than six months in the county prison or both or either at the discretion of the court and upon conviction on second or later offenses shall be subject to a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars and imprisonment for not less than six months nor more than one year at the discretion of the court

Section 3 That said act is amended by adding thereto after section five a new section to read as follows

Section 5.1 (a) Every person desiring to be licensed as an optometric eye specialist shall in lieu of the course in optometry hereinbefore provided in section five of this act have completed a course of optometry and graduated from a school or college of optometry recognized by the Department of Public Instruction as recommended by the Board of Optometrical Examiners Said course shall consist of instruction covering the entire field of ocular science including ocular pathology therapeutics and clinics and shall be of the same length in hours and years but in no case less than four years as in approved schools or colleges of medicine and surgery osteopathy or dentistry

(b) Every person now licensed after examination to practice optometry who shall desire to be licensed as an optometric eye specialist shall present to the State Board of Optometric Examiners a certificate from a school or college of optometry recognized by the Department of Public Instruction as recommended by the Board certifying that such person has satisfactorily completed at least two years' additional training of not less than one thousand hours in ocular pathology therapeutics and clinics and other subjects not covered in any previous training

(c) On and after June thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven all candidates for examination for licensure as provided in this act shall submit proof of having the education requirements set forth in subdivision (a) of this section and shall upon satisfactorily passing such examinations be licensed as optometric eye specialists

Section 4 That section eleven of said act as amended by the act approved the thirteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws 659) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 11 Nothing in this act shall be construed as conferring on the holder of any certificate of licensure issued by said board the title of doctor oculist ophthalmologist or any other word or abbreviation indicating that he is engaged in the practice of medicine or surgery or except in the case of an optometric eye specialist that he is engaged in the treatment or diagnosis of diseases of or injuries to the human eye or has the right to use drugs or medicines in any form for the treatment or examination of the human eye The title "Doctor" or the abbreviation "Dr" shall not be used before the name of any registered optometrist or optometric eye specialist without the word "optometrist" or "optometric eye specialist" following the name

STATEMENT BY MR. LONGAKER

Mr. LONGAKER, asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, within the past twenty-four hours the people of our Nation have again been appalled and horrified by the lynching of two Negroes in Granada, Mississippi. Past experience has shown us that it is only through Federal legislation and Federal action that this particular crime can be abated or can be done away with entirely. There is before the Congress of the United States at the present time and there is being debated in the halls of the Congress a bill known as the Anti-Lynching Bill. Now, members of the House, is the time to act as representatives of this Commonwealth and, therefore, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I offer the following resolution and ask the unanimous consent of the House for its immediate adoption.

STATEMENT BY MR. HERBERT B. COHEN

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to join with the sponsor in asking unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the offered resolution.

STATEMENT BY MR. BROWN

Mr. BROWN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to say that I join also with the sponsor in asking unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of this resolution. May I express further, Mr. Speaker, my appreciation of what has been said by Mr. Longaker in this regard and I also express by appreciation to the members of this House, because I feel that the members of the Congress from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will consider it an honor to put their stamp of approval on the bill now pending before Congress to wipe out in this country one of the most brutal, terrifying, heinous and barbaric institutions known to the civilized world. I do not understand how we in this country can let such things as have just happened in Mississippi go unchallenged. I have read, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, of many instances of torture in the Black Ages, but I do not believe there is a parallel anywhere in history of the thing that happened in one of the states of our Union yesterday, where two human lives were blown out by blow torches put to their skin. It does seem to me that we ought to bow our heads in shame, that something cannot be done in the interest of those innocent people who are now asking the law to protect them, to give us justice, to give us humane treatment, to give us the protection of the law and to place America where it ought to be placed. As it is now we hang our heads in shame. Though we be citizens of this great Nation and though we be citizens of this Commonwealth, I tell you now Mr. Speaker and members of this House that unless things such as happened yesterday in Mississippi are stopped we cannot subscribe longer to the principles upon which this Government were founded and in the interest of the protection of those principles it seems to me that this message ought to go to Washington immediately.

STATEMENT BY MR. LONGAKER

Mr. LONGAKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, let me extend to the majority floor leader, the gentleman from York Mr. Cohen and the gentleman from Allegheny Mr. Brown, who has just finished speaking my sincere regards and appreciation of their willingness to join in this resolution, which we trust will have the desired effect upon the members of the Congress from our Commonwealth and upon those members of the Congress from other states who, I am sure, will join with us to blot out the record of the past in which this atrocious crime has been committed. I thank you gentlemen.

LYNCHING

Mr. LONGAKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, April 14, 1937.

Whereas, While Congress is debating the enactment of Federal anti-lynching legislation, the Press announces that in Granada, Mississippi, two negroes were seized from a sheriff and his deputies and burned at the stake and a third severely whipped and driven from the county; and

Whereas, It appears that lynching can be controlled only by the enactment of Federal law because many states will not support the enactment or enforcement of such laws; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby memorializes the Congress of the United States to enact Federal legislation to prohibit and control lynching within the United States as early as possible.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States by the Chief Clerk of this House.

STATEMENT BY MR. WOODSIDE

Mr. WOODSIDE asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker. Last week when Mr. Habbyshaw and I introduced our Hershey Strike Resolution, we did so first to prevent a collapse of the milk market in Pennsylvania, which would have been inevitable had the strike continued much longer, and secondly to prevent the violence which happened last Wednesday when the strikers were driven forcibly from the plant.

We do not condone violence. But before we criticize the farmers for settling this strike in their own way we should remember the facts. We should remember that there was being thrown upon the market over 350,000 qts. of milk a day, that the collapse of the milk market was imminent, and that nearly $15,000 a day was being lost to the farmers at a time when they could least afford it. Above all we cannot forget that during all this time the Governor was keeping a very discreet silence concerning the entire situation.

Had the Governor made any effort to meet this problem, the violence would not have occurred. The responsibility for all lawlessness that occurred at Hershey rests with the Governor and not with the farmers or any other group.

One acquainted with the situation cannot help but conclude that had the Governor merely opened his mouth he could have persauded the strikers to permit the operation of that part of the plant which would have made possible the use of the farmers' milk. There was a close connection between the Governor's followers and the strikers. Meetings of the Union were held in the rooms of the Democratic Clubs in the vicinity. The Democratic Senator from the District spoke at one of the first meetings which was held. The theme song of the strike was—"We cannot be moved, the Governor is back of us." Telephone calls were made from strike leaders directly to the Governor's office, keeping him informed of the situation. But, through it all our Governor mimicking Washington, kept a discreet silence, while the farmers suffered.

It is interesting to compare the quality of the courage that existed among the farmers with the official cowardice at Harrisburg. Prior to the time that the violence occurred, it had been announced to the group of farmers that the strikers had machine guns in the building. Although in fact false it was believed at the time. With their own eyes they saw and faced guns, knives and other weapons which apparently were going to be used on them should they enter the building. In spite of this, determined to do what in their opinion was right, they entered the factory and gave it back to its owners so that they and their fellow farmers would not be threatened with financial ruin. Was it the farmers or the officials of Pennsylvania who disgraced the Commonwealth?

The farmer is the backbone of the American civilization. No laboring man knows more about labor. No man arises earlier, puts in more hours or works harder than the farmer. No brow perspires more profusely. No man is in a position to appreciate the problems of labor more than the farmer. On the other hand he is a business man who must buy, sell and employ. All farmers own property and appreciate that a property right is a human right which must be respected. Their opinions and their rights are entitled to the greatest respect. When they were denied a market for their milk, they were deprived of an income of $15,000 a day; when their milk industry was threatened with ruination, they had a right to expect the Governor of this Commonwealth to be active in assisting them in solving this problem. When that help was not forthcoming, they took it upon themselves to solve it in their own way.

It doesn't go down well with the farmer to be called a disgrace to the Commonwealth for solving a problem which the Governor should have solved. The farmers of this section, peaceful and lawabiding as any group of citizens in the County, did not want to deal with this problem. But just as their ancestors of 1775 were provoked to violence by their ruler George the III of that day so the farmers were provoked to violence by our ruler George the III of this day.

The Governor's attempt to hide behind the skirts of the Sheriff is childish. His own Attorney General furnished him with an opinion that he could send in his police. The way the Governor and the State Democratic party has stuck their nose into all manner of local problems, it is amusing how when the issue gets hot they pass the buck.

The Governor knew of the situation. All the County knew. The Governor even had telephone calls from the strikers which strangely he referred to the Lieutenant Governor who under the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth has nothing to do with law enforcement.

The Governor cannot hide behind the fact that his subordinates have now secured an agreement. The fact is the Governor permitted the violence. The fact is the Governor made no effort to solve the problem as it related to the farmers.

Although the violence was unfortunate and not to be condoned, considering mob psychology and the feeling that existed, it is fortunate that there were no more serious injuries. We must remember that feeling ran high among those who appreciated what the great philanthropist had done in the community. We must remember that feeling ran high against certain of the strikers who Mr. Hershey had educated. We must remember that the community realized that Mr. Hershey had given away even the roof over his own head in his unselfish effort to build a model community. Why pick on the farmers who in addition to their own losses had their keen sense of justice aroused?

The Governor has permitted anarchy in the coal regions and he permitted it in Hershey. That the "disgrace to the Commonwealth" should only appear to him when the farmers step in to the scene is to the rural communities most reprehensible.

Violence breeds violence. Even the Governor should know that you cannot sow the seeds of anarchy and reap orderly government.

STATEMENT BY MR. HERBERT B. COHEN.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not propose to answer the statement of the gentleman from Dauphin categorically. The statement was much too long and the facts that the gentleman from Dauphin wished to present to this House are much too involved, but I think the gentleman from Dauphin had missed, decidedly missed the crux of the present situation. Undoubtedly one unlawful action begets another, but undoubtedly if the inciting and the unlawful action, if it were unlawful, persisted it was due to the fact of a reluctant Supreme Court, for months overdue, withholding a decision on the validity of the Wagner Relations Act, as the members of this House will remember. As we progress economically, as our society becomes more involved, it is necessary for government to utilize different agencies to solve the problems with which it is confronted, and where a Supreme Court delays that progress, that progressive action endangers and prevents, through intervention, the government agencies from functioning in order to obviate labor disputes, in order to obviate or correct any maladjustment of the relationship between employer and employee, that and that alone is the crux of the situation. That has been demonstrated at Hershey, and the gentleman from Dauphin undoubtedly appreciates that by reason of the vacillating vote of but one Supreme Court justice today we have constitutionally enacted a law which will enable the Government of the United States to intervene in situations and to intervene legally in situations of the nature with which we have been confronted in the Hershey plant. I also appreciate the fact that the gentleman from Delaware has already given to this House the best declaration possible for the enactment of our labor relations acts by this House and by the Senate, he having already espoused the enactment of the McGinnis labor bills which are now under consideration by our Committee on Labor—those bills having passed the Senate. Those are the problems with which we are confronted and those are the problems with which any government that is developing is confronted and those problems must be solved by and with the necessary machinery of government, and I say to you, members of the House, that with the enactment and the signing of the present McGinnis labor bills and with the constitutionality of the Wagner Relations Act having been upheld that this Nation and this State will have the machinery to obviate any of the differences of opinion that might exist between employer and employee.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. RUSH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. RUSH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I notice in the Journal under date of March 29, on page 1514, that I was not recorded as voting on House Bill 64. I did vote "aye" on that bill and I would like to be so recorded.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Committee of General Assembly to write chapters in commemoration of the 300th anniversary of the landing of the ships Kalmar Nyckel and Fogel Grip on the Delaware in March 1638 and the establishment of the Colony of New Sweden and in connection with the National celebration of the 150th anniversary of the framing, the signing, the ratification by Pennsylvania and the final adoption and establishment of the Constitution of the United States, to be printed in the 1937-38 Pennsylvania Manual.

In the Senate, April 13, 1937.

Whereas the General Asembly by the Act approved July 22, 1936 Pamphlet Laws 70 authorized and directed the Pennsylvania Historical Commission of the Department of Public Instruction for and on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to arrange for the participation of the Commonwealth in a national celebration of the 150th Anniversary of the Framing, the Signing, the Ratification by Pennsylvania and the Final Adoption and Establishment of the Constitution of the United States and

Whereas The Honorable George H. Earle Governor of the Commonwealth did on the first day of August 1936 issue a proclamation to the Citizens of Pennsylvania calling their attention to the 150th Anniversary of the Constitution proclaiming the years 1937-38-39 a period of State-wide commemoration reminding them of the important and significant role of the Pennsylvania delegation in the Constitutional Convention of 1787 and of the vigorous steps taken by Pennsylvania to secure the ratification and establishment of the Constitution of the Government of the United States of America offering to the entire nation the whole hearted hospitality of this Commonwealth and calling upon all Citizens of Pennsylvania to give their loyal interest and support to local demonstrations throughout the Commonwealth to the end that from this period of commemoration may come renewed confidence in the vital strength of our Republic and a firm faith in its continuing greatness and enlightment and

Whereas the General Assembly by the Act approved July 28, 1936 Pamphlet Laws 79 authorized and directed the Pennsylvania Historical Commission of the Department of Public Instruction to set for and on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in arranging a suitable commemoration of the 300th Anniversary of the landing of the ships Kalmar Nyckel and Fogel Grip on the Delaware in March 1638 and the establishment of the colony of New Sweden as well as the coming of the first Dutch English German Welsh Irish and other settlers by whom were established the earliest settlements the first courts of law and the first capital within what is now Pennsylvania and

Whereas this General Assembly being mindful of the character and qualities of our founders and forefathers and of their achievement in establishing the colony of New Sweden and of maintaining and preserving peaceful and harmonious relations with the Indians and the neighboring colonies thereby laying the foundations for the subsequent Colony and of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and enabling it to develop quickly into the greatest richest and most populous province among the Original Thirteen Colonies and making possible Philadelphia's rise as the greatest city of colonial America and the establishment of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as the Keystone in the great arch of states and this General Assembly being mindful also that such character qualities pioneering efforts and achievements were the foundations upon which our Pennsylvania civilization is based and being mindful of the honorable pride and great interest of our citizens therein desires to make said Tercentenary Celebration an occasion of State National and world-wide reunion to commemorate those inspiring and momentous events and

Whereas the said Tercentenary Anniversary Celebration will arouse stimulate and encourage the interest of all of our citizens and the citizens of other states and countries young and old in a knowledge and study of the inspiring history of the founding establishing and development of this Commonwealth and will interpret and emphasize the spiritual and educational forces of the past and

Whereas adequate commemorations of these immortal events will enhance and further increase the interest of our Nation and the people of our Commonwealth in the glorious and inspiring past of Pennsylvania and

Whereas A thoughtfully planned and well-directed distribution of succinct summaries of these epoch making events that molded modern civilization and left their indellible marks upon the development of the Western Hemisphere, would be of great historical, cultural and educational value to the people of the United States and the inhabitants of our Commonwealth and

Whereas, "The Pennsylvania Manual" published by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and compiled under direction of the Bureau of Publications of the Department of Property and Supplies is the official primary-source-book of information pertaining to our Commonwealth, its government and institutions, and

Whereas, thousands of exemplars of said "Pennsylvania Manual" are being annually distributed throughout the nation and our Commonwealth, thus providing a channel for the dissemination of valuable information, and

Whereas, preparations are now being made for the publication of the forthcoming issue of "Pennsylvania Manual" for the 1937-38 biennium, and

Whereas, the inclusion of chapters dedicated to the 150th Anniversary Celebration of the Constitution of the United States and 300th Anniversary of the establishment of New Sweden will supply a glorious phase of the historical bach-ground of our Commonwealth, the ample description whereof, was heretofore not included in the "Pennsylvania Manual" and

Whereas, the inclusion of such chapters in the forthcoming 1937-38 issue of "The Pennsylvania Manual" will vitalize its contents and enhance its value as the primary source-book of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That the forthcoming issue of "The Pennsylvania Manual" for the 1937-38 biennium shall contain in addition to its usual material also new chapters dedicated to the 150th Anniversary Celebration of the Constitution of the United States and 300th Anniversary of the establishment of New Sweden, and be it further

Resolved That the President Pro Tem of the Senate appoint three (3) Senators and the Speaker of the House appoint (3) Representatives, who together shall form a Committee to write and to edit said chapters and be it further

Resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to His Excellency the Governor of Pennsylvania, the Secretary of Property and Supplies, and the Pennsylvania Historical Commission of the Department of Public Instruction.

Respectfully submitted

Signed: (C. HALE SIPE)
Signed: (ISRAEL STIEFEL)

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

The SPEAKER. The resolution is referred to the Committee on State Government.

STATEMENT BY MR. WOODSIDE

Mr. WOODSIDE asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not desire at this time to unduly prolong the discussion relative to the statement which I made but the majority floor leader has made two remarks about which I should just like to say a word. In the first place, concerning legislation of our own State relative to labor relations and the laws which would assist in settling such situations as existed in Hershey, I desire to call the attention of the House to the face that on February 2nd the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, the floor leader of the Republican party, introduced a bill which would bring about the desired effect. That bill has rested in committee since that time.

In regard to the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States declaring the Wagner Act constitutional, I desire to make this statement. I may not be very much of a constitutional lawyer but it has always been my understanding that an act of the Congress of the United States is constitutional until it has been declared unconstitutional by the Court. We certainly had the NRA in effect, and sent men to jail under it and proceeded to operate under it until such time as the Supreme Court declared it unconstitutional. The same thing was true of the AAA, and at the time this strike was going on in Hershey the Wagner Act was on the books and under the law it was constitutional. So the situation has not been changed and the delay of the Supreme Court of the United States had nothing to do with bringing about the present situation.

STATEMENT BY MR. YOURISHIN

Mr. YOURISHIN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answer to the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside, I might say that Mr. Turner has a bill in the Committee on Labor with reference to mediation but it is not a bill that is satisfactory to labor. I might say that in the session of 1933 and of 1935 a bill on labor was presented to this House which would have taken care of situations of this kind. In 1935 it passed this House but was killed over in the Senate by the Republican reactionaries.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The meeting of the Ways and Means Committee for Monday, April 19th has been cancelled.

The Committee on Labor will meet immediately after this session in Room 521.

The Committee on Agriculture will hold a public hearing on House Bills 1897 and 1898, known as the tobacco bills, in the House Caucus Room on Monday, April 19th at 2 o'clock P. M.

The Committee on Labor will hold a public hearing on Monday, April 19th at 10 A. M. on House Bills 1639 and 1640, known as the Labor Relations Bill, in the House Caucus Room.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to thank the members of the House for their patience this afternoon, and for the amount of work they did.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Monday, April 19, 1937, at 9:00 p. m.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 4.25 p. m.) the House adjourned until Monday April 19, 1937, at 9:00 p. m.

Vol. 21. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, APRIL 19, 1937. No. 44.

SENATE

MONDAY, April 19, 1937.

The Senate met at 9 o'clock p. m.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

Mighty fortress and sure refuge is our God! For he that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

When we consider our limitations, we would cower before the tasks which weigh upon us; yet assured of Thy grace for the asking, we go forward with confidence and hope, like unto an army with banners.

Give us mind and heart for the tense days ahead. Prompt us to heed the voices which rightly speak, the cry of the helpless and forgotten, the decrees of justice, the sovereign will of those for whom we speak. And to Thee will we give the praise. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT—A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

RESOLUTION

Mr. EROE offered the following resolution which was twice read considered and agreed to:

Whereas, rumors have been placed in circulation to the effect that irregular practices in the operation of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways have been countenanced with the result that the splendid reputation of this department for efficient management has been jeopardized.

Therefore, be it resolved, by the Senate of Pennsylvania, that the Governor is to be commended for his expressed determination to make an impartial and searching investigation of every phase of the conduct of the Highway Department especially with respect to the purchase and use of materials entering into highway construction.

The Governor is commended for his decision to clear up all doubt as to the integrity of the Highway Department and its' economical and efficient operation and the Senate assures him of its' desire to co-operate in every possible way to help him safeguard the national reputation of the Department for honest and efficient administration.

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, I move that Rule 39, which requires resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there any objection?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I object until I know what is in the resolution.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection. The Resolution is referred to the Committee on Highways.

RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE APPOINTMENT OF A COMMITTEE TO STUDY THE ADVISABILITY OF CONVERTING PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE INTO A STATE UNIVERSITY

Mr. CAVALCANTE offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

In the Senate, April 19, 1937.

PRELIMINARY REPORT OF THE TAX STUDY COMMISSION

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I would like to present a preliminary report of the Tax Study Commission:

Senators:

John H. Dent, Chairman
Israel Stiefel
Frederick T. Gelder

Representatives:

Harry E. Trout, Vice-Chairman
Samuel A. Weiss, Secretary
James E. Lovett

The following is a comparison of a study made last week of a particular coal mining company, this company having operations both in West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

The figures are taken from the company's books by our representatives.

We have other figures but lack of time does not permit a summary of such at this particular time.

To start with, let us first read into the records the figures that prove that Pennsylvania has lost its supremacy in the bituminous coal mining industry:

Bituminous Coal Statistical Summaries, 1935-36
February 10, 1937

The figures show that in

1913	Pennsylvania mined	173,781,000	tons
	West Virginia mined	71,254,000	tons
	Eastern Kentucky mined	11,099,000	tons

As against

1936	Pennsylvania mined	108,527,000	tons
	West Virginia mined	117,485,000	tons
	Eastern Kentucky mined	39,150,000	tons

Or a loss of 65,244,000 tons for Pennsylvania

And a gain of 46,231,000 tons for West Virginia and 28,051,000 tons for Kentucky

To carry this further, let us state that in 1913 Pennsylvania produced 36.32% of all the bituminous coal produced in the country; whereas in 1936 Pennsylvania produced only 25% of all the coal produced, or a loss of 11.32%.

West Virginia

In 1913, Eastern Kentucky produced 2.32% of all the coal while in 1936 Eastern Kentucky produced 9.02% of all the coal, or an increase of 6.70% of the total.

This of course shows the shift in the coal mining operations as it affects these three states. Your Commission hopes to get additional information just as rapidly as it can in order that this present Legislature may know some of the interesting facts on this industry.

Let us now compare actual figures from an operating company whose main operations are in Cambria County, Penna.

This company is the Johnstown Coal and Coke Company operating in:

Greenbriar Co. W. Va.	Cambria Co., Pa.
50.6 Cents per acre Limited by law to 15 mills	$3.00 per acre No limit	Taxes on coal lands
.0108 on 351,494 tons $3,800.46	.026 on 569,617 $14,832.62	Real Estate per ton
$40.00 or .0001-1/100	$4,946.55 or .0087—87/100 c	Capital Stock or Franchise
None	Depends on loans .003—8 mills	Corporate loan
None	Depends on income 10% proposed cut to 7%	Corporate income
$1.27 per ton	$1.62 per ton	Labor costs
.0689 cents per ton	.0908 cents per ton	Workmen's compensation
.0231 cents per ton	None	Sales Tax
Compensation 1.3758	1.7505 or	Total on this and Compensation
	.3747 greater cost	Differential with Sales Tax
	.0231 .3978 Sales Tax removed	Differential without Sales Tax
2.52 Gross ton to New Port News	2.67 Gross ton to Perth Amboy or 15c per ton greater	Shipping

The present figures of .0908 per ton cost of compensation will become.

If new Compensation Act. House Bill No. 99, increases cost 137% (Department claims), compensation will cost .2152 per ton.

If new compensation act increases cost 350% (Industries claim), compensation will cost .3178 per ton.

This does not include the corporate net income tax as this company showed no taxable income in Pennsylvania.

This also excludes the present amendment to the Capital Stock Tax as this act is still in Committee in the Senate. but figures will be available on the result of this tax in the near future.

This Commission has only scratched the surface in its endeavor to set up a comparison of Pennsylvania industries and competing industries in other States. We intend to extend our activities into other industries and other States as soon as this Legislature makes it possible through an appropriation of necessary funds. This picture given to you tonight is only one company's operations. We expect to give this body more of these illustrations as the Commission gathers the facts and figures.

This particular company was selected at random and its problems should be the problems of most companies in the same class and industry.

As a conclusion, let us look at this breakdown. The differential in producing a ton of coal by the same operator in Pennsylvania and West Virginia is:

.3747 with present existing laws and conditions
.4247 with rail rates included
.4891 with Department's figures on New Compensation Act, exclusive of proposed Occupational Disease Compensation Bill and rail rates
.6017 with industries' figures on New Compensation Act, exclusive of rail rate and Occupational Compensation.

As a further illustration, we have figures from four Pennsylvania companies as against four West Virginia companies:

Pennsylvania Companies

Production	Compensation & Taxes
Company A 570,000 tons	.1255 cents per ton Cambria Co.
Company B 190,000 tons	.1538 cents per ton Westmd. Co.
Company C 586,000 tons	.102 cents per ton compensation and real estate taxes only Cambria Co.
Company D 166,000 tons	.1498 cents per ton Fayette Co.

West Virginia Companies

Production	Compensation & Taxes
Company A 350,000 tons	.1029 cents per ton smokeless Greenbriar Co.
Company B 985,000 tons	.0706 cents per ton Poweltn. Co.
Company C 1,243,000 tons	.0896 cents per ton N. W. Va.
Company D 850,000 tons	.068 cents per ton Huston Co.

The average tax per ton in West Virginia is approximately .0343 cents, of which .0231 cents per ton is sales tax. Removing this sales tax, leaves average tax per ton in West Virginia of .0112 per ton as against average of .0641 cents per ton in Pennsylvania. These figures exclude corporate loan and corporate net income taxes and the operating companies did not have these figures available. These additions will naturally increase the cost per ton in Pennsylvania; whereas, there are no such taxes in West Virginia at the present time.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 467 (House Bill No. 916), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the seventeenth day of July one thousand nine hundred nineteen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand twenty-five) entitled "A supplement to an act approved the second day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine (Pamphlet Laws one hundred and eighty-four) entitled 'An act to provide revenue by imposing a mercantile license tax on vendors of or dealers in good wares and merchandise and providing for the collection of said tax'" by providing for the annual appointment by the Auditor General of mercantile appraisers in cities of the first class and terminating the terms of certain mercantile appraisers and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally ?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, my point of order is that this being a House bill recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment by the House, and having been so amended, the only question before the Senate is will the Senate concur in the House amendments? No other question can be considered by the Senate, nor by any committee of the Senate. And what I have said in reference to this bill should also have been said as to Senate Bill No. 467, which was just recently recommitted to committee.

I might say further Mr. President, that if the Senate concurs in the amendment, that is the end of it; if the Senate does not concur it goes back to the House for its insistance upon its amendment and a committee of conference must be appointed.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I have no objection. This matter will be discussed further. If the Senator from Bucks insists upon his point of order I would suggest that the bill go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection to the bill going over in its order?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to have my point of order decided.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is of the opinion that the point of order is well taken.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 579 (House Bill No. 1161), go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, in order to keep the records straight, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 467 was recommitted be reconsidered by the Senate.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, will state his point of order.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I think the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, is out of order. We have acted on that motion.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is well taken.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, may I submit that it was a motion to reconsider the vote by which this bill was recommitted to committee, and I take it that at any time, within a reasonable time, at least, a vote to reconsider may be made and acted upon by the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair was very careful in stating the motion, not only to recommit the bill, but also on the amendment.

The Chair rules that the motion is not in order.

ARTICLE IV

Construction of Laws

Section 51 Construction of Laws Legislative Intent Controls The object of all interpretation and construction of laws is to ascertain and effectuate the intention of the Legislature Every law shall be construed if possible to give effect to all its provisions

When the words of a law are clear and free from all ambiguity the letter of it is not to be disregarded under the pretext of pursuing its spirit

When the words of a law are not explicit the intention of the Legislature may be ascertained by considering among other matters (1) the occasion and necessity for the law (2) the circumstances under which it was enacted (3) the mischief to be remedied (4) the object to be attained (5) the former law if any including other laws upon the same or similar subjects (6) the consequences of a particular interpretation (7) the contemporaneous legislative history and (8) legislative and administrative interpretations of such law

Section 52 Presumptions in Ascertaining Legislative Intent In ascertaining the intention of the Legislature in the enactment of a law the courts may be guided by the following presumptions among others

(1) That the Legislature does not intend a result that is absurd impossible of execution or unreasonable

(2) That the Legislature intends the entire statute to be exective and certain

(3) That the Legislature does not intend to violate the Constitution of the United States or of this Commonwealth

(4) That when a court of last resort has construed the language used in a law the Legislature in subsequent laws on the same subject matter intend the same construction to be placed upon such language

(5) That the Legislature intends to favor the public interest as against any private interest

Section 53 Grammar and Punctuation of Laws Grammatical errors shall not vitiate a law A transposition of words and clauses may be resorted to where a sentence is without meaning as it stands

In no case shall the punctuation of a law control or affect the intention of the Legislature in the enactment thereof

Words and phrases which may be necessary to the proper interpretation of a law and which do not conflict with its obvious purpose and intent nor in any way affect its scope and operation may be added in the construction thereof

Section 54 Construction of Titles Preambles Provisos Exceptions and Headings The title and preamble of a law may be considered in the construction thereof Provisos shall be construed to limit rather than to extend the operation of the clauses to which they refer Exceptions expressed in a law shall be construed to exclude all others The headings prefixed to chapters articles sections and other divisions of a law shall not be considered to control but may be used to aid in the construction thereof

Section 55 Constitutional Construction of Laws The provisions of every law shall be severable If any provision of a law is found by a court of record to be unconstitutional and void the remaining provisions of the law shall nevertheless remain valid unless the court finds the valid provisions of the law are so essentially and inseparably connected with and so depend upon the void provision that it cannot be presumed the Legislature would haye enacted the remaining valid provisions without the void one or unless the court finds the remaining valid provisions standing alone are incomplete and are incapable of being executed in accordance with the legislative intent

Section 56 Presumption Against Retroactive Effect No law shall be construed to be retroactive unless clearly and manifestly so intended by the Legislature

Section 57 Construction of Uniform Laws Laws uniform with those of other states shall be interpreted and construed to effect their general purpose to make uniform the laws of those states which enact them

Section 58 Rule of Strict and Liberal Construction The rule that laws in derogation of the common law are to be strictly construed shall have no application to the laws of this Commonwealth hereafter enacted

All provisions of a law of the classes hereafter enumerated shall be strictly construed

(1) Penal provisions
(2) Retroactive provisions
(3) Provisions imposing taxes

(4) Provisions conferring the power of eminent domain

(5) Provisions exempting persons and property from taxation

(6) Provisions exempting property from the power of eminent domain

(7) Provisions decreasing the jurisdiction of a court of record

(8) Provisions enacted prior to the effective date of this law which are in derogation of the common law

All other provisions of a law shall be liberally construed to effect their objects and to promote justice

Section 59 Penalties No Bar To Civil Remedies The provision in any law for a penalty or forfeiture for its violation shall not be construed to deprive an injured person of the right to recover from the offender damages sustained by reason of the violation of such law

Section 60 Penalties for Each Offense Whenever a penalty or forfeiture is provided for the violation of a law such penalty or forfeiture shall be construed to be for each such violation

Section 61 Intent to Defraud Whenever an intent to defraud is required in any law in order to constitute an offense the law shall be construed to require only an intent to defraud any person or body politic

Section 62 Laws in Pari Materia Laws or parts of laws are in pari materia when they relate to the same persons or things or to the same class of persons or things

Laws in pari materia shall be construed together if possible as one law

Section 63 Particular Controls General Whenever a general provision in a law shall be in conflict with a special provision in the same or another law the two shall be construed if possible so that effect may be given to both If the conflict between the two provisions be irreconcilable the special provisions shall prevail and shall be construed as an exception to the general provision unless the general provision shall be enacted later and it shall be the manifest intention of the Legislature that such general provision shall prevail

Section 64 Irreconcilable Clauses in the Same Law Except as provided in section sixty-three whenever in the same law several clauses are irreconcilable the clause last in order of date or position shall prevail

Section 65 Irreconcilable Laws Passed During The Same Session Whenever the provisions of two or more laws passed during the same session of the Legislature are irreconcilable the law latest in date of final enactment irrespective of its effective date shall prevail from the time it becomes effective except as otherwise provided in sections seventy-two and ninety-four

Section 66 Irreconcilable Laws Passed At Different Sessions Whenever the provisions of two or more laws passed at different sessions of the Legislature are irreconcilable the law latest in date of final enactment shall prevail

Article V

Amendatory Laws

Section 71 Printing and Interpretation of Amendatory Laws The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall in printing amendatory laws cause to be printed the section or part of the law only as reenacted In the section or part of the law reenacted the secretary shall cause to be printed between brackets the words phrases or provisions of the existing law if any which have been stricken out or eliminated by the adoption of the amendment and he shall cause to be printed in italics all new words phrases or provisions if any which have been inserted into or added to the law by the passage of such amendment

In ascertaining the correct reading status and interpretation of an amendatory law the matter inserted within brackets shall be omitted and the matter in italics shall be read and interpreted as part of the law

Section 72 Effect of Separate Amendments on Code Provisions Enacted at Same Session Whenever any existing law incorporated into and repealed by a code is also amended by other legislation enacted at the same session of the Legislature such separate amendment shall be construed to be in force notwithstanding the repeal by the code of the law it amends and such amendment shall be construed to prevail over the corresponding provisions of the code

Section 73 Construction of Amendatory Laws Whenever a section or part of a law is amended the amendment shall be construed as merging into the original law become a part thereof and replace the part amended and the remainder of the original law and the amendment shall be read together and viewed as one law passed at one time but the portions of the law which were not altered by the amendment shall be construed as effective from the time of their original enactment and the new provisions shall be construed as effective only from the date when the amendment became effective

Section 74 Merger of Subsequent Amendments Whenever a law has been more than once amended the latest amendment shall be read into the original law as previously amended and not into such law as orginally enacted

Section 75 two or more amendments to same provision one overlooking the other Whenever two or more amendments to the same provision of a law are enacted at the same or different sessions one amendment overlooking and making no reference to the other or others the amendments shall be construed together if possible and effect be given to each If the amendments be irreconcilable the latest in date of final enactment shall prevail from the time it becomes effective

Section 76 Repeal of Laws and original laws subsequently amended The repeal of an amendatory law does not revive the corresponding provision or section of the original law or of any prior amendment Except as otherwise provided in section ninety-four the repeal of an original law or section or provision of an original law repeals all subsequent amendments to the original law or to the original section or provision as the case may be

Section 77 Ineffective Provisions not Revived By Re-enactment in Amendatory Laws Exception Provisions of a law no longer effective shall not be construed as being revived by re-enactment in an amendatory law unless it shall clearly appear that the Legislature intended to revive such provisions

ARTICLE VI

Re-enactments

Section 81 Effect of Re-enactment on Original Law Whenever a law re-enacts a former law the provisions common to both laws shall date from their first adoption Such provisions only of the former law as are omitted from the re-enactment shall be deemed abrogated and only the new or changed provisions shall be deemed to be the law from the effective date of the re-enactment

Section 82 Repeal and Re-enactment Whenever a law is repealed and its provisions are at the same time re-enacted in the same or substantially the same terms by the repealing law the earlier law shall he construed as continued in active operation All rights and liabilities incurred under such earlier law are preserved and may be enforced

Section 83 effects on re-enactment of intervening law A Law which re-enacts the provisions of an earlier law shall not be construed to repeal an intermediate law which modified such earlier law Such intermediate law shall be construed to remain in force and to modify the re-enactment in the same manner as it modified the earlier law

ARTICLE VII

REPEALING LAWS

Section 91 Implied Repeal by Later Law Whenever a law purports to be a revision of all laws upon a particular subject or sets up a general or exclusive system covering the entire subject matter of a former law and is intended as a substitute for such former law shall be construed to repeal all former laws upon the same subject

Whenever a general law purports to establish a uniform and mandatory system covering a class of subjects such law shall be construed to repeal pre-existing local or special laws on the same class of subjects

In all other cases a later law shall not be construed to repeal an earlier law unless the two laws be irreconcilable

Section 92 Non-Existence of Reason for Law does not Effect Repeal A law shall not be deemed repealed because the reason for its passage no longer exists

Section 93 No Implied Repeal by Non-User A law shall not be deemed repealed by failure to use such law

Section 94 Effect of Separate Repeals on Code Provisions at the Same Session Whenever a law repeals any provision of another law incorporated into a code adopted at the same session of the Legislature the law repealing the provision so incorporated into the code shall be construed to effect a repeal of the corresponding provision of the code

Section 95 effect of repeal on limitations Whenever a limitation or period of time prescribed in any law for acquiring a right or barring a remedy or for any other purpose has begun to run before a law repealing such law takes effect and the same or any other limitation is prescribed in any other law passed at the same session of the Legislature the time which has already run shall be deemed part of the time prescribed as such limitation in such law passed at the same sesion of the Legislature

Section 96 Effect of Repeal on Rights Et Cetera The repeal of any civil provisions of a law shall not affect or impair any act done or right existing or accrued or affect any civil suit action or proceeding pending to enforce any right under the authority of the law repealed Such suit action or proceeding shall and may be proceeded with and concluded under the laws in existence when such suit action or proceeding was instituted notwithstanding the repeal of such laws or the same may be proceeded with and concluded under the provisions of the new law if any enacted

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 768 (House Bill No. 1635), entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws two hundred eighty-four) entitled as amended "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as manufacturers and by others on malt or brewed beverages used sold transported or delivered within the Commonwealth prescribing the method and manner of evidencing the payment and collection of such tax conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Revenue and those using or engaged in the sale at retail or wholesale or in the transportation of malt or brewed beverages taxable hereunder and providing penalties" as amended and reenacted by imposing an additional reciprocal tax by providing for the assessment and revision of and appeal from additional taxes and by making further provisions with regard to refunds evidence of payment of the tax and penalties

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend section 11, page 10, by inserting the following between lines 13 and 14:

"In case any malt or brewed beverages upon which stamps or crowns have been placed by a manufacturer have been destroyed by him under the supervision of the Treasury Department of the United States of America, he shall be entitled to a refund of the actual amount of tax paid by him upon condition that he shall make affidavit that such malt or brewed beverages were so destroyed and shall also furnish the Department with a certificate executed by the representative of the Treasury Department of the United States of America who witnessed the destruction of such malt or brewed beverages to the effect that the said destruction has taken place and shall also furnish such other proof as the Department shall require whereupon the Department shall with the approval of the Board of Finance and Revenue issue to the manufacturer stamps or crowns of sufficient value to cover the refund."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 780, entitled:

An Act for conveyance to the United States of America of title in and to certain land comprising the Marcus Hook Pennsylvania Quarantine Station property and ceding to the United States jurisdiction over said land

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 796, on third reading, entitled:

An Act providing for the licensing of all persons engaged as blasters except in anthracite or bituminous coal mines or on farms requiring examination for such license providing for the payment of a fee for examination and for the issuance and renewal of licenses and providing penalties

Go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 801, entitled:

An Act to amend the title and sections one and two of the act approved the twenty-sixth day of April one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws one hundred eight) entitled "An act to give exclusive jurisdiction to the municipal court of Philadelphia over all houses of detention established within the limits of the city of Philadelphia for the care of delinquent dependent and neglected children providing that the board of managers of the said houses of detention shall be appointed and removed by the judges of the municipal court of Philadelphia and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith" transferring the jurisdiction therein vested in the Municipal Court of Philadelphia to the Family Court of the County of Philadelphia

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shal the bill pass finally?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, Senate Bill No. 801 is one of the bills introduced in this Senate commonly known as the "Philadelphia Ripper Bill". The issue raised by the Philadelphia "ripper" is above and beyond partisan politics. It is directly related to the preservation of the fundamentals of our government. To our minds those who propose this outrage upon constituted authority, this rape of our courts is a direct assault upon the citadel of our freedom and an open threat to the independence of our entire court system; for who shall doubt that, successful in this effort, conspiracy would be extended to the entire court system of Pennsylvania in an attempt to make all-powerful the political dynasty which this Administration is scheming to set up?

Deliberate attempts have been made by innuendo and subterfuge to win public support for these "ripper" bills by destroying confidence in the judicial branch of our government.

The proposed ripper of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia is an act of political infamy without parallel in the annals of Pennsylvania. A partisan majority, blindly held by a group of men hungry for spoils are preparing to destroy a court which is at the apex of service both in its relation to domestic welfare and its civil accomplishments. Most of these judges are men of the highest standing and reputation in public and social life in Pennsylvania.

President Judge Charles L. Brown was a member of this Senate during the sessions of 1896, and 1900.

Judge Vivian Frank Gable was a member of the Senate in 1906.

Judge Thomas Bluett was a member of the House of Representatives in 1922, 1924 and 1926. He was Speaker of the House in 1925, 1926 and 1927.

Judge Leopold C. Glass was a member of the House of Representatives in 1915, 1917, 1919 and 1921.

Judge Eugene G. Bonniwell, in 1918 and 1926, was Democratic nominee for the Governorship of Pennsylvania. In 1921 he was Democratic nominee for the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. He is a National Officer of the Sons of the American Revolution; a former President of the Firemen's Association of Pennsylvania, and was decorated by the governments of Italy, Poland and Montenegro.

Judge Utley E. Crane was and is President of the Prison Welfare Association and the President of the Board of the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital.

Judge William Lewis is Vice President of the Zionist Association of America, a member of the World Zionist Congregation, and Chairman of the United State Palestine Appeal for Funds.

Honorable Theodore Rosen has been for several years and is Chairman of the Crime Prevention Committee of the American Legion. He has been three times President of the 79th Division, Pennsylvania's own. He has been Chairman of the City Council of the American Legion of Philadelphia, and three times Commander of the Clair Post of the American Legion.

Judge William G. Knowles is a justly honored member of one of the most distinguished families of Philadelphia.

Eight of the eleven judges of the Municipal Court were unanimously endorsed by both the Democratic and Republican parties.

Now, Mr. President, I take it that those who are scheming to get control propose to carry out their plan by the creation of a Common Pleas Court No. 6, a Commn Pleas Court No. 7, and the creation of a family Court, a set up, in other words of a court with ten (10) judges.

Now, Mr. President and members of the Senate, when these bills are passed, when the jurisdiction of these Municipal Courts is transferred to these other courts, you will have to support in Philadelphia six of these eleven Municipal Court judges, who were elected by the people of Pennsylvania, holding office with no court and no duties to perform. One of those judges still has eight years to serve, six of them have six years more to serve, two have four years, one has two years, and one has one year, and the remaining judge, his term expires this year. The combined salaries that these judges will be entitled to receive for the balance of their terms for which they were elected amounts to $550,000.00, or over half a million dollars, which will come out of the pocketbooks of the taxpayers in Pennsylvania to pay the salaries of judges who have been shorn of their duties, to pay the salaries of judges who now perform the work that the ten new judges created by this Administration will perform. Now, Mr. President, these ten new judges created by these bills introduced by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will receive, each of them $14,000.00 a year, or a total of $140,000. annually for these new judges, as compared to $110,000., the salaries of these eleven Municipal Court judges, the judges whom they seek to throw out by these bills.

Now, Mr. President, I assume that this administration would not have the audacity to rip out these courts or transfer the powers to these other courts and to saddle on this Commonwealth an expense of $140,000. annually unless they did not propose to rip out these judges of the Municipal Courts.

Mr. President, I would like to read for the benefit of the Senate section 15, Article V, of the Constitution, which says:

> "All judges required to be learned in the law, except the judges of the Supreme Court, shall be elected by the qualified electors of the respective districts over which they are to preside, and shall hold their offices for a period of ten years, if they shall so long behave themselves well; but for any reasonable cause, which shall not be sufficient ground for impeachment, the Governor may remove any of them on the address of two-thirds of each House of General Assembly".

Now, Mr. President, I assume that it is the plan of the Democratic Senator, Mr. Shapiro, to attempt to remove these judges in spite of the fact that there is no charge against them, no attempt to impeach them, to have the Governor remove these judges and have it done by a two-thirds majority of the members of the House and the Senate.

Now, putting aside the question as to whether they can be removed except by impeachment, in that connection I want to call the attention of the Senate to the decision of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, in the case of Commonwealth vs. Gamble, in which the court said:

> "A judge having been elected and commissioned is by the constitution to continue in office ten years, if he shall behave himself well; its duration is assured to him subject to be determined only by death, resignation or breach of condition.
> Such breach cannot be determined by the legislature, but only on trial by the Senate on impeachment, or in case the breach amounted to total disqualification perhaps by address of two-thirds of each branch of the legislature.
> A legislative act which impinges on the tenure of the judges is invalid.
> The power and jurisdiction of a judge constitute the office, are the essence of it and inseparable from it.
> This grant of power is incapable of any limitation but that attached to it.
> The aggregate amount of the duties of a judge in any district may be diminished by the division of his district or by the election of an assistant.
> Constitutional grants imply a prohibition of any limitation or restriction by legislative authority.

The court also said in this decision that the object of the framers of our Constitution was "to establish the complete independence of the judiciary, not only in its operations among the people, but as against possible encroachments by the other co-ordinate branches of the government."

And the Supreme Court also said, in the case of Commonwealth vs. Mann.

> "The independence of the judges is equally requisite to guard the Constitution and rights of individuals from the effect of those ill humors which the acts of designing men, or the influence of particular conjunctures, sometimes create among the people themselves, and which, although they speedily give place to better information and more deliberate reflection, have a tendency, in the meantime, to occasion dangerous innovations in the government, and severe oppression of the minor party in the community."

So I say to you, Mr. President, letting aside the question of whether these judges can be removed except by impeachment and a trial by this Senate, I want to serve notice upon this administration and upon the Governor of this Commonwealth, on behalf of the Republican members of the Senate of Pennsylvania, that we do not propose, and we asure them now, that there will not be a single Republican vote for the removal of these judges, nor will they consent to the removal of these judges unless it be for cause shown and after a fair trial, and I give this warning on behalf of my colleagues, that this administration and this Governor may understand, that if that expense of $550,000. is saddled on the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and paid to men who have been shorn of their duties, the fault must not be laid at the door-step of the Republican members of this Senate. We are giving you this notice today before these bills pass, before they have been signed by the Governor, that you must not expect any support from the Republican members of this Senate in the carrying out of this diabolical scheme. Whatever burden comes to the taxpayers of Pennsylvania by reason of the passage of these bills and as a result of these rippers will be the sole responsibility of the Democratic machine in this State.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, it must be very beautiful to be able to live in the wilds of northwestren Pennsylvania, far away from the troubles of a large city and the newspapers, and the facts that simmer through sometimes so far as Harrisburg. I am afraid the Senator from Tioga does not even read the Harrisburg papers. I am afraid the Senator from Tioga is building up a straw man and trying to knock him down. It is a strange sight to see a Tioga man get worked up about conditions in Philadelphia County. I think it is the best thing that could have happened, that somebody who does not know anything about it to talk, because then you can confuse the mind further, if you do not know what is being talked about. I assure the Republican members of the Senate that they will not be blamed further, because I think they have enough trouble now from the burden of their behaviour in the past; that it would be cruel and barbarous treatment to add further suffering to their burden. Whatever the responsibilities are, I am sure the Democratic Party can take full and complete responsibility, and it will need no aid or comfort from the Republican Party. In fact my experience has been, and I am sure the experience of most of the older members of the Senate has been that you can get no aid or comfort from the Republican Party for something that is constructive and decent. There has been much heard here about a scheme to oust judges which is proof positive that the Senator from Tioga does not know what he is talking about, and I am talking now about the facts of the situation. Yes, there are some judges of that court who are fine gentlemen. As I said once before, and I repeat now, it is no personal pleasure to me to proceed with the course mapped out in this case. One of the gentlemen to whom the Senator from Tioga referred is a former law partner of mine, the other gentlemen is a man whom I knew when he was in short pants. As I said before, I think I went with him when he first enlisted, I met him when he returned a wounded soldier, I took him into the Law School and I suggested to him that he practice law. He spent two years in my office. He is a very fine gentlemen and a very able jurist, but the charge is not against the individuals on this Board, but it is against the Court as a Whole.

I can point to two other gentlemen on the bench who cannot claim the same reputation as those two gentlemen. The Senator from Tioga does not know that one of the members of this court is a man against whom charges of having packed a jury were brought, and nothing done, even by the Bar Association or the Court. I can say to the Senator from Tioga from first hand knowledge that I personally made the charges; I personally brought it to the attention of the President Judge, and that member of the Judiciary is still a members of that Board. I can say further to the Senator from Tioga, that he probably does not know that this same President Judge, who was a member of this Senate, has violated an Act of Assembly passed by this Senate, that he has violated the laws of the Commonwealth in more ways than one. I recommend that the Senator read the facts contained in the testimony produced in the hearings before the Legislative Committee. I might say further to the Senator, that if he take the trouble to read—and I am sure he did not—the report, the facts that are on file here in the Senate, the testimony of witnesses, he will find that Philadelphia has known for the past few years that this court was not a Court, and I agree with the Senator from Tioga that we should be very careful about our courts; and the only way any political party or the judiciary can maintain respect of the people for the party or the judiciary, is by having self respect, and there was no self respect in the management of this Court. This Court was not conducted as a Court; this Court never knew in the last ten years what is meant by an arm of the judiciary branch of the Government. If anything will bring disgrace upon our judiciary, it is the conduct of this Court. I take second place to no one in my desire to maintain respect for the Court, because I realize the importance of its functions; but no one can have any respect for a Court that has lost its own respect and forfeited the right of respect in the minds of the people. There is no attempt necessary to build up publicity and public opinion for the ousting of this Court. The people have been waiting for it and have been waiting for several years. I do not know what the people of Tioga County would have thought of it if they had it in their own county, but I know what my people in Philadelphia think of a judge who would pack a payroll for the purpose of carrying political elections in a county. I know what the people in my county think about a President Judge of a Court who packs a payroll of a $110,000 to $250,000 in only one ward. I know what they think of a Court who appoints to a job, which requires watching the future welfare of families, probation officers who guide the future of children; I know what the people in Philadelphia think of a Court who appoints politicians and illiterates to look after these children, to guide them in their schools for their future welfare. I do not need any publicity to find out what they say; I know what the people of Philadelphia think about the Municipal Court. I know that I have a great respect for a member of that Court, but the fact is that none of these men stood up on their "hind legs" and protested against the procedure that went on in this Court, disgraced as it is now in the minds of the people of Philadelphia. We know that the people of Philadelphia have found that this Court was anything but a Court of Justice, a Court that has grown from a $224,000 payroll, and 166 employees to a 1,250,000.00 payroll and 600 employes. We know what they think when they know that 90 per cent of these people had no qualification for the jobs they hold, and 80 per cent of them are politicians who are wards of the public. We know that it is no longer a Court, we know it is just a haven of rest for a political party. We know that the President Judge increased illegally the salaries of 75 employes. We know that for two years there was not a single approval of appointments made by the President Judge, because they were only appointed for political purposes. We know that a man who was Speaker of the House as early as 1930 objected to the appointments and said they were illegal but that is all the further he went and that is all the further anyone went. They permitted this to grow and to be used for political purposes. They permitted the payrolls to be padded around election time so that they could have a real majority in the various wards. It was strange to have someone to come before this Committee, and when we called the employes to tell us their qualifications, what we heard was the bragging of the fact, "Yes, I am a committeeman," "How did you get your job?" "I went to the Ward leader and I told him I wanted a job." He said, "where do you want to go?" He said, "I don't care where I go, but I want a job." And so he got a job as a Probation Officer in the Municipal Court. We heard dozens of these men were either not performing their duty or were on a doublt payroll—one had three sources of income; one from Municipal Court; the other from private business and the third from being secretary to a Congressman, on a Federal payroll, and he was receiving $3,000 a year for ten years from the Federal Government while he was receiving $2,500 a year fom the City Government, on the payroll of the Municipal Court. We know that they attended political meetings when they should have been at their duties; we know letters were sent to employes to attend political meetings, and with all this glamour and criticism against the Court, and with the admission by everybody that maybe the Court did do something wrong that maybe it has been political, that only last week we produced evidence at a hearing that a lady who was vice-president of the Women's Republican Club of Pennsylvania is on the payroll of the Municipal Court. Last Tuesday she was subpoenaed by our committee and she was in the City Committee Headquarters, in the Market Street National Bank Building at 10:00 o'clock where she had been from ten until twelve o'clock, and also accompanied by other workers who had received notices to attend that meeting. They do not care about the Legislature, they do not care about public opinion. In the midst of all this investigation, they were political women holding political meetings at the expense of the community, and what is more brazen, the Secretary to the President Judge admitted that. On Friday of last week, or the week before last, she notified the heads of all the departments in the Municipal Court not to leave their offices until they received some petition from her, and that they waited there for several hours, and that the head of each department was given half a dozen petitions to go out amongst neighbors and get protests against the ripping out of the Municipal Courts. All the heads of the departments of the Municipal Court, who were supposed to be non-political, were engaged for two days in a hurried effort to bring in the petitions which the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, presented last week, and that was done at the expense, during the activities of the working days, when they should have been at their jobs earning salaries that they got.

It is not so much of the fact that they may have spent two or three hours on it, but it is the fact that this court, which is now before the public eye, charged with political activity, this Court which had the sponsors—speaking of respect—this same Court thinks nothing of going on with its activities, believing that we might faulter in the purpose, which I think is credible, because someone who knows nothing about it may make his speech that might be impressive to those who want to believe what he said, depending upon how the listening in is tuned, as to whether you go along with this proposition or not.

There is nothing wrong about this. I recommend to the Senator from Tioga that he reads House Bill No. 108 which was reported out tonight, and he will find that for the first time in the history of the Municipal Court some provision that the judges shall post notices publicly, setting forth the character of the position and the qualifications for the office, for the first time in the history of that court, the Senator from Tioga will find in the bill that examinations must be held, that appointments must be made from a list resulting from those examinations. I recommend to the Senator fro Tioga, that he give further consideration to the facts before he makes further statements that we are engaged in the job grabbing business, and I suggest to him that the House passed the Bill tonight which ripped out of office the receiver of taxes with 365 employes, and not a single one will be appointed again. The Democratic Party is not creating offices, but is transferring the functions, and there will be 367 jobs less to fill, and there will be a payroll of $676,000 less to meet by the City of Philadelphia. I recommend that the Senator from Tioga refer to the Bill which we passed here, ripping out the board of Revision of Taxes and reducing the payroll from $585,000 to $130,000. and if this be job grabbing, give us more of that; and if this is what the Democratic Party can be accused of, then give us more of this. The payroll of the City of Philadelphia, the whole payroll reflects the attitude of the Republican Leaders of the City of Philadelphia. It is not alone, the Municipal Court, but it is every department of the City that has people who have no experience and no competency for the job. They are paraded from one public office to another, they move their Receiver of Taxes to Register of Wills, from the Register of Wills to Clerks of Court, and they have no more experience for either than they had when they first went in. It was either that a truck driver, or inspector. That is the experience given for any kind of a job. The only thing you had to have in Philadelphia to get a job in the Municipal Court, in the Office of the Clerk of Quarters Sessions, in the Office of the Reporter of Deeds, of the Register of Wills, was the proper influence and the proper majority in the division in which you live, and that is what you call a Court! That is not a Court, that is a Chamber of Political Commerce. That is what it is, and nothing more, and the sooner we get rid of it, the better it will be for all of us. Nobody has anything to say about some of the individuals on there, but let me suggest to the Senator from Tioga, that when I brought to the attention of the President Judge the fact that one of their associates had packed a jury, had called committeemen without going through the regular procedure of drawing them from the jury wheel, but sent his tipstaff out to bring in political brethern, who would roam around on election day and give them $4.00 a day to serve on the jury. When I was told about this matter, I went to the Court and the Court hesitated and saw to it that some excuse should be offered to prevent action to be taken against that judge. And what was the excuse? That they could not do it, because this particular man had been elected on the Democratic ticket and there were some other judges in the Court who had done the same thing, but they were Republicans, and so because they did not want to hurt their fellow Republicans, they could not even hurt a Democrat; so they did not like to take any action. And let me suggest to the Senator from Tioga, that I was not a member of the Democratic Party but I was a member of the Philadelphia Bar, and I resented the condition that has been brought out. I appreciate it is a privilege of practicing before the Court, I appreciate the high privilege that is mine to be a member of the Bar, and it is because of that, I am glad to be doing something which, I think, will cleanse this Philadelphia Jurist System at points where we will not have to be ashamed of it. I said before, and I repeat, that lawyers should be the last ones not to have the courage of their conviction when it comes to doing something about the Court condition; and I say now, that lawyers of Philadelphia have been disbarred for less than what some of these gentlemen on the Municipal Court have done. If a lawyer had dared to do what this particular judge had done, packed the jury with ten men, or spoken to a single juror in the way that might by construed as an attempt to influence him, he would have been disbarred, and there is no greater right in a judge who is not fit to be on the bench, to stay there, than there is for a lawyer to stay as a member of the Bar Association of Philadelphia, or a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, which sent to the committee its recommendations and literature and had the same matter before them. I personally brought it to their attention; and what did their committee do with it? The devil will quote scripture to suit his purposes, and you can quote your cases, and even though the case in question refers to a Judge of a Court of Common Pleas, which is a constitutional court, and, therefore, has no application to the Municipal Court, which is not a constitutional court.

I want to suggest to the Senator from Tioga that he need have no fear about the salaries of these judges. First assuming that we will lose $550,000 over the period of their terms, Philadelphia is a part of Pennsylvania and contributes taxes, and the State of Pennsylvania can afford to lose $550,000 if as a result it will pay Philadelphia a million dollars a year during the eight years which it will consume to pay up the $550,000. Philadelphia will save $8,00,000 and will reduce its deficit of $9,000,000 by that amount. But we need not worry about those salaries, because if the Republicans will not join us in the recall of those judges, the Democratic Party will be able to take care of the situation.

Mr. President, I want to say, with no intent to be personal, that this Senate cannot afford to sit idle and not do anything about this Philadelphia situation. I have been here for four and a half years now, and I know the attitude of some of the gentlemen that come from various counties towards Philadelphia, some of their attitudes and opinions may be justly deserved by Philadelphia, most of it is not, and I am frank to say that their general opinion, not specific but general attitude, has come about by reason of the fact that Philadelphia has been complaining against the rest of the State. The complaints should not have been made against the rest of the State. At first I resented the attitude, but having gone into the picture and learned some of the things, I am surprised that the legislature did not shut down on Philadelphia long ago. Philadelphia does not need help from the State of Pennsylvania, if it runs its government properly. If it had thrown out the Republican party years ago, it would have been the best city in Pennsylvania, and we would not have had any worry about it, but it is the same organization that passed legislation to increase Philadelphia's debt, or emergency borrowing capacity, to send warning to them to decrease the expenditures. Philadelphia played an important part in the Republican Party in the State of Pennsylvania, because it gave a large majority at the expense of the State and at the expense of the people of Philadelphia, because it padded its payroll for the purpose of giving those majorities, and the pepole on the payrolls had to produce or they could not be kept on the payrolls, and the evidence shows that these people on the payrolls had no qualifications for the highest positions, but they did not get the lower salaries. Men were put on who were twenty-one or twenty-two years of age and were given $500, more than women who spent a lifetime in social work were given $1500.00 and $1200.00. When I suggested that a certain gentleman was receiving $1800. compared to someone else who was receiving $1200 and that the $1200 person had an experience of twenty years, and this man was getting $1800 as probation officer and could not read or write, I was told, he wasn't a probation officer, he was a colored door tender who probably opened and shut the doors for the judges when they went out, and held their robes up from the dirt of the street. And what about the dirt there was in the court? What about the dirt known for years around that court? And they were all elected because the Democratic Party did not have the courage of its convictions, they held to the story about re-electing sitting judges. That is a theory that should have been thrown to the winds long ago. A judge who is not fit has no more right to sit than a lawyer who is not fit has a right to practice law. Why should not the people stand up and tell the truth about a judge? He does not hesitate to tell the truth and sit in judgment upon people who were practicing law; he does not hesitate to disbar them because of economic pressure, if they have stolen $100 or $200 from their clients. And we have this same Municipal Court admitting to practice members of the bar who never went to law school, who received the approval of the county committee. Look at the Municipal Court list and see how many lawyers were admitted to practice [illegible] in that court. You will not find them having that privilege in the Common Pleas or the Supreme Court, but because of a friendly act these men were admitted in the Municipal Court. What manner of court was this that my friend can say, "all these things mean nothing"; that expenditures of a million and a quarter can be made for ten years, enough to pay for our deficit in Philadelphia, wasted for political purposes, and that the President Judge can violate the law and nobody say anything about it, that men can be admitted to the bar that are not authorized to practice in other courts, and that juries can be packed?

If you want respect for your courts then do what your real conscience tells you to do, get rid of these courts who do not have respect for the people, or you will not have law and order. Everybody knows that this government depends upon law and order and its enforcement, and no one can rely upon courts like that. I take great pride in participating in this legislation which will eliminate from Philadelphia its worst smear. I take great pride in it, even though I do regret the necessity of hurting two or three men, two of them are personal friends, but friendship has nothing to do with that. These men will find their proper places. They can walk out of their court tomorrow with their heads high, and I think we are doing them a favor by getting rid of the court so that they can take their places in the community which will be much more favorable for them, and so they do not have to have lawyers come up here who have not the courage of their convictions to state publicly what they stated privately. I charged before and I charge again that all these lawyers who came here to our committee and told us about the wonders of the Municipal Court publicily, are the same lawyers who told me and others privately what contempt they had for this court. What is the sense of talking about speeches that were made by people like that, and what is the sense of giving heed to people who talk in favor of this court who know nothing about it?

I suggest to the Senator from Tioga that he come down to Philadelphia and he will change his opinion.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I do not want to prolong this discussion to any great extent, but I would like to say something on the remarks of my colleague the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro. I am surprised that he does not understand the attitude of us men who represent the up-state in Pennsylvania. He complains that we concern ourselves with the Constitution. I say to you, Mr. President, that every member of this Senate has a right to be concerned with the expenditure by the State of $530,000—over a half million dollars—for useless service, merely to give this administration the right to appoint ten new judges. Now, they talk about demands in Philadelphia for this Municipal Court ripper. I have witnessed, as the other members of the Senate have witnessed, petitions containing the names of a total up to 80,000 people in the City of Philadelphia, who have protested against this Ripper Bill. Every newspaper in Philadelphia, save one, and it is not necessary to mention the name of that one, is against this ripper. That newspaper has come out publicly for it. Every newspaper in Philadelphia save the one mouthpiece of this administration.

Now, I can understand how the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, does not understand about the employees going around getting the attitude of the people of Philadelphia. The Republican Party and the judges do not have any W. P. A. workers to call upon to sign petitions. They go to the electorate to find out their feelings in the matter.

For the benefit of this Senate, I would like to quote from a copy of a letter which was sent to the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, by a lawyer from Philadelphia. He said:

"We all know, professionally, at least, the Court's many weaknesses and perhaps occasional vices, but none of us should allow the dungcart of partisan politics to blind our honest conviction that the men on that Bench have been devoted, conscientious, hard-working servants of the Commonwealth, who deserve a better fate from their neighbors than to be cast dismally into the discard with the irreparable loss of their vast, priceless experience and the machinery they have created for making certain types of social adjustments, merely because of fancied grievances that are certainly susceptible of ready correction. No greater crime against human decency can be conceived than the ingratitude of a State towards its Judges who, having honorably and completely sacrified their private practices and business contacts, in order to serve even-handed justice, are suddenly and brutally asked to rehabilitate themselves anew without even the consoling mercy of a thanks, simply to make way for others, not because of any merit the latter possess, but whose only claim to the succession springs from servile loyalty to the party in power and nothing more.

Among the many infamies already ventured in the maligned name of Democracy, this emasculation of a noteworthy tribunal bids fair to be its greatest mockery. Can you afford to blight your career with this devastating mistake?

Remember well that the verdict of time is impartial and just and the man in power, who seeks to deceive truth and those fundamental canons of fair play that we associate with civilized beings, may gain a temporary ascendency, but in the end deceives himself and must finally pay the harsh penalty that that verdict entails. Because you run with the wolfpack is no reason why you need howl like a wolf.

I send this letter purely as my personal conscience dictates—I represent no party faction or privileged viewpoint, and, needless to say, I send it entirely without the prior knowledge or consent of the Court's members.

It is merely my humble tribute to an institutional tradition, conceived in noble ideals and executed by its stewards, even if at times haltingly, in the spirit of its conception."

Now, the Senator speaks of the infamous crimes which have been committed by some of the members of this Court. I suggest, Mr. President and members of the Senate, that the law provides means for removing any judge who violates the law, and that means his impeachment, and this same Senator who now rants and raves about this Court was a member of the same political organization who now complains bitterly against, and sat in this Senate for several years as a member of that party, and never once did he raise his voice about those crimes which he says have been committed by the members of this Court; never once did we hear a suggestion from him to bring impeachment proceedings; never once did we hear that they ought to be removed until he thought he saw the light of day and that the Roosevelt Band Wagon would bring this about, and he took hold of the tail of the kite. That is the situation, members of this Senate, as I see it. As I said before, I do not want to prolong this discussion, but I want to repeat again, if this is saddled on the State of Pennsylvania do not come to the door step of the Republican members of this Senate and say that it is our fault that they are not removed, because we are giving you notice now that you will not get any votes from us.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I did not mean to prolong this debate, but the Senator form Tioga gives me an opening when he says that I have sat in the Senate four years and he never heard a word from me complaining about the actions of this Municipal Court. I certainly did some talking in this Senate, particularly when I was read out of the Republican Party, some three months after I was in the Senate. The Senator from Tioga knows that I spoke in the caucuses, if he has his memory with him, two months after I was a member of this Senate, and he knows that I protested against the activities in the Republican Party; he knows I was not four months in this Senate before I moved to discharge the Committee who had in charge the old age pension bill, because we had campaigned on the platform to give old age pensions. The Senator from Tioga knows when I was in caucus that I finally refused to sit in caucuses because there was no use talking about anything in the caucus, the Republicans then had the majority, and there was no reason for saying anything or considering the other side. They said: "we have the votes" and they went through with it. The Senator from Tioga talks about expense, but not one voice was raised in protest when the road running to New York City, the Lincoln Highway, was diverted to go around a cemetery to give a front entrance to a cemetery, which the State paid for. Nobody said anything about that money, and I imagine that cost a great deal more than $550,000. But very few people in the Senate knew the inside of that, but if you take a trip, before you get to Trenton you will find the Lincoln Highway turns to the right and goes around the cemetery, which now has a front door instead of a back door. I suppose that was necessary for the improvement of Pennsylvania, but if you look at the road that was left and see the property that was destroyed, you might get some idea of how the Republican Party works.

It looks to me as though they are falling down, and that next November we will be able to make a showing on the Democratic side. So far as I am concerned, and I have no axe to grind, the Democratic Party will have to tolerate me on the same basis that the Republican Party did. Whether I am in the Senate or not, it makes very little difference, except the amount of work that is being done, and I consider that I am in a position of being able to say what I think, and it does not mean anything to me how the other fellow feels about it, except that I hope I am trying to say things that are right. If the Democratic Party attempts to do something with which I do not agree, I am sure I would take the same position as I do with the Republican Party, but one thing I promise, that there will be no Republican Party to go back to, and that is a little bit annoying, and unless the Senator offers something which is more constructive, the less hope there will be for any Republican to go back to, or tie up with. The point that we are trying to get to the Senator from Tioga and his followers is this: If you do not know anything about what the Municipal Court has done, we have prepared the evidence for you in typewritten form, so that he who runs may read, and those of you who are closer to Philadelphia, if you want to do constructive things, if you want Philadelphia to come up here and help it in getting rid of this bonded indebtedness for $514,000,000 created by the Republican Party, then you had better help them get rid of some of their expensive political departments. Out of that $514,000,000 over $240,000,000 of it represents mandamuses, which it acquired by taking from the members of the Republican Party properties assessed at $8,000 and giving them $80,000 for it, and properties worth $85,000 giving them $880,000.

These are the things that at least I am trying to help to rid Philadelphia of. If the Democratic Party is attempting to take advantage of it, that is unfortunate; the Republican Party, they could have done it themselves. I did protest against the Municipal Court's activities. There are 11 judges there; what have they done about cleaning house? As soon as it was brought to their attention that the President Judge made illegal appointments, and they knew about that before, what did they do about cleaning house? They sat down in conclave with the other judges to confirm and approve his illegal appointments, by urging that those employes who received more than the law allowed them should pay it back.

Now, may I say one more word: that there are ten judges appointed to take the place of the 11 members of this Court has nothing to do with this proposition. The Bar Association in Philadelphia for four years have passed resolutions asking this legislature to create two new Common Pleas Courts. They said that they were behind in their work and that they could not catch up. When the question of the Municipal Court came up, they immediately recommended the increase and establishment of No. 6 Common Pleas Court and they protested the abolition of the Municipal Court, and so we passed the bill creating the No. 6 Court.

Now instead of 11 judges there are only 7 judges, and instead of $110,000 in salaries, there will be $98,000, and instead of a payroll of $1,250,000 there will be a payroll of less than $300,000; in other words there will be a saving to the City of Philadelphia of $900,000.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, it is a delicate moment to make any comment, and I would like to say it with flowers. I listened to the Senators on this Municipal Court Bill and I am firmly convinced that the Democratic Party is completely "lily white;" but as I turn over a page and read about Common Pleas Court No. 7, I say that the Democratic Party's flower is a "for-get-me-not."

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, do I understand the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, to say that the State Supreme Court decision referred to by Senator Owlett has no application to the Municipal Court Judges?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is correct; it deals with the Common Pleas Court Judges, which is a Constitutional Court, and the Municipal Court is not.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, one question.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, if I understood him correctly, when I understood him to say that the majority of the newspapers in Philadelphia sold their policy for the sake of the patronage and advertising that they got from the Sheriff's office?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I thought I made pretty plain what I meant to say, that I am still convinced that those newspapers are very much influenced by the advertisements that they get from the Republican Party.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, did I understand the Senator from Philadelphia, to mean that they changed their policy by reason of that patronage?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, oh, no, their policy has always been the same.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I cannot allow to go by without protest the answer to Senator Reed's question. Senator Reed asked the question whether the opinion of the Supreme Court applied to the Municipal Court of Philadelphia, and the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, replied very confidently that it did not; "Oh, no," he said, "that is a Constitutional Court, the Court of Common Pleas." I would like to call the attention of the Senator that the Municipal Court is also a Constitutional Court. Under the Constitution in any court of record the judges who are learned in the law and elected for a period of ten years, is a constitutional court, and if the Senator from Philadelphia will read the decision in Commonwealth vs. Gamble, and I think if Senator Reed will read it, they will be convinced that it is a Constitutional Court and that this decision applied to it.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, my Republican neighbors, have told me that they understood perfectly my reference to the Democrats being "lily white," but I have no made my point about the for-get-me-nots. This bill which is a forget-me-not bill, increasing the number of Courts of Common Pleas in the County of Philadelphia. I visualize the City Hall of Philadelphia as made up in the future entirely of six courts and the Mayor and nobody else. Every Democratic lawyer of any prominence, I think will be for these courts; then we ought not protest against it. In the first place if we adopted the plans I proposed of a State-wide Common Pleas Court, we need not have these additional courts, and in the second place, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, is doing good work by saving money on one hand, while on the other hand he makes two new Common Pleas Courts, therefore, I say, as far as the tax payers are concerned, the last suggestion is worse than the first.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 801, entitled:

An Act to amend the title and sections one and two of the act approved the twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (P. Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 9, on second reading, entitled:

An Act creating a Safety Commission as an Independent Administrative Commission of the Commonwealth and defining its powers and duties go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 104, as follows:

An Act authorizing boroughs that have relying on invalid bond issues authorized by the electors entered into contracts whereby indebtedness exceeding the constitutional limitation has been incurred and where such contracts have been wholly or partially performed to provide for the payment of the reasonable value of such performance to contract for completion and to increase their indebtedness therefor and validating ordinances agreements increases of indebtedness and bonds heretofore adopted entered into issued or to be issued to accomplish such purposes

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of he same That whenever heretofore any borough has in the manner provided by law let any contract for any municipal improvement or public work which is authorized under the provisions of the borough laws of the Commonwealth and more than half of the work on said contract has been performed in a satisfactory and workmanlike manner and the improvements or public works or any part thereof are being used by the borough or by its inhabitants if such contract does not evidence any fraud or conspiracy to violate the provisions of the Constitution or laws of this Commonwealth and the borough has not suffered any pecuniary loss as the result of such contract then such borough may by ordinance provide for the payment of the reasonable value of the work already performed and the materials already supplied and may enter into an agreement with the same or another contractor for the completion of the unfinished portion of such work if any notwithstanding the fact that the obligation undertaken by the borough under the original contract was predicated upon the assumption that the funds for the payment thereof would be available from the proceeds of the sale of bonds issued pursuant to an increase of indebtedness authorized by the electors but which bond issue has subsequently been held illegal because it proposed to create a debt of the borough in excess of its constitutional debt limit and notwithstanding the fact that such contract may under the circumstances have created a debt of the borough which together with any other indebtedness thereof exceeded the constitutional limitation on the indebtedness of such borough

Section 2 Any ordinance adopted pursuant to the provisions of section one of this act shall provide for the payment of the amount agreed upon out of the current revenue of the borough or out of the proceeds of any bond issue duly authorized for such purpose or partially out of current revenues and partially out of the proceeds of any such bond issue Provided That the creation of any new indebtedness thereby shall not together with all other indebtedness of the borough exceed the constitutional limitation on the indebtedness of the borough

Section 3 Any such borough may in the manner and subject to the limitations provided by the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth increase its indebtedness and issue bonds for the payment of the whole or any part of the amount agreed upon under the provisions of section one of this act

Section 4 All ordinances and agreements heretofore adopted or entered into which conform to the provisions of this act are hereby ratified and made valid and binding and all increases of indebtedness and all bonds securities and obligations issued or to be issued pursuant thereto are hereby made valid and binding obligations of every such borough Provided That all other requirements of the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth concerning such ordinances agreements increases of indebtedness and issue of bonds have been complied with

Section 5 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILLS RECOMMITTED

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 341, on second reading, entitled:

An Act to re-enact and further amend the title and the act, approved the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. The seventh section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 7 Whenever the Commission decides to acquire any such tunnel or tunnels lands rights easements and franchises or interests therein by condemnation as hereinbefore provided and has tendered a bond in sufficient sum to secure the owner or owners for damages and the same has been accepted or if the acceptance of said bond has been refused and the same has been filed in and approved by the court in which such condemnation proceeding is instituted the Commission shall have the right to immediate possession of the property which is the subject matter of the condemnation proceedings and shall enter thereon in the name of the Commonwealth If the owner lessee or occupier of any of said premises shall refuse to remove his personal property therefrom or give up possession thereof the Commission may proceed to obtain possession in the manner now provided by law for the obtaining possession by the Secretary of Highways of occupied structures.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the sections?

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I move to amend Section 7, page 11, lines 12 to 21, by striking out the following: S "as herein-" in line 12, all of lines 13 to 20, and "enter thereon in the name of the Commonwealth" in line 21, and in lieu thereof: "it shall have no authority to take actual possession of such property until after the filing of the viewer's report, and then only if the commission (a) has sufficient unobligated funds in its possession to pay for the property so to be taken, injured and destroyed, and (b) has tendered payment to the owner of the amount awarded by the board of viewers, or if the commission is of the opinion that the award is excessive, then has tendered such amount as it deems just and proper, and (c) if the amount tendered is less than the amount awarded by the viewers, has tendered to the property owner a bond in sufficient amount to secure the owner for any amount of damage over and above the tender made by it, or if the acceptance of such bond is refused, then after the same has been filed in and approved by the court in which such condemnation proceeding has been instituted. Any property owner may accept the amount tendered by the commission and the commission may pay such tender without prejudice to his or its right to prosecute an appeal or to file exceptions to the report of viewers, but if the owner shall appeal or file exceptions and the final award shall not be greater than the amount tendered by the commission, then the property owner shall pay all costs of the proceeding, otherwise the same shall be paid by the commission"; amend section 7, page 11, line 22, by inserting after the word "shall" the following: "S after the right of lawful entry by the commission"

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, this bill provides for condemnation of real property, but it does not make clear nor assure the land-owner against property taken, injured or destroyed and in order to provide for that contingency I wish to offer this amendment:

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 894, as follows:

An Act to ratify and adopt a compact or agreement negotiated by commissioners designated by the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and commissioners designated by the Governor of the State of Ohio relative to the development use and control of the Pymatuning Lake and the State owned land surrounding said lake for fishing hunting recreational and park purposes

Whereas Commissioners for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and commissioners for the State of Ohio negotiated a compact or agreement relative to the development use and regulation of Pymatuning Lake and the State owned land surrounding said lake for fishing hunting recreational and park purposes and

Whereas Such compact or agreement has been executed in duplicate one for each State on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by and through the Water and Power Resources Board and on behalf of the State of Ohio by and through the Conservation Division which compact or agreement is contained in he following words

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA AND THE STATE OF OHIO RE PYMATUNING LAKE

This Agreement made and concluded between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania acting by and through its lawfully authorized agency namely the Water and Power Resources Board as party of the first part and the State of Ohio acting by and through its lawfully authorized agency namely its Director of Conservation as party of the second part

Witnesseth

Whereas By act of Assembly of Pennsylvania approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 1503) as amended by the acts approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws 84) the twenty-fourth day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws 67) and the ninth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (Pamphlet Laws 619) the Department of Forests and Waters of Pennsylvania acting through the Water and Power Resources Board was authorized inter alia to complete the work begun and continued under an act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws 1270) entitled "An act providing for the erection of a dam at the outlet of Pymatuning Swamp and the establishment of a reservoir to conserve the waters thereof providing for the taking of land and materials necessary thereto vesting certain powers and duties in the Water Supply Commission and making an appropriation" and did duly complete said work whereby there was created a lake or reservoir now known and hereinafter called Pymatuning Lake extending in part across the boundary line between said States of Ohio and Pennsylvania into the State of Ohio and

Whereas The primary purposes of the project by which said lake was created was to conserve water draining said swamp all of which has its source in Pennsylvania as well as control floods and regulate the flow of water in the Shenango and Beaver Rivers and secondary thereto permit the water and the land surrounding the same to be used for fishing hunting recreational and park purposes under such terms and conditions as the Water and Power Resources Board might determine in such way or ways as in the opinion if the said board will not materially interfere with the primary purpose in said acts of assembly and hereinbefore specifically referred to and

Whereas In view of the fact that a certain part of the lake extends into the State of Ohio whereby it is necessary and desirable that the use of the lake for the secondary purposes namely hunting fishing and recreational use be uniformly provided for as well as to guard against inconveniences and mischiefs which might hereafter arise from the uncertainty or jurisdiction within and on said lake to the end that the lake may be adequately policed and conflicts of jurisdiction for the arrest and punishment of offenders be avoided

Now Then Therefore In order that law and justice may in all cases be executed and take effect upon said lake from shore to shore in all parts and places thereof where the lake is a boundary between said states the said parties hereto do agree for and in behalf of their respective states in the manner following

1 General Use

It is hereby agreed that the entire Pymatuning Lake or Reservoir subject to the primary use thereof by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for regulating the flow of the water in the Shenango and Beaver Rivers as in Paragraph 9 hereinafter more specifically mentioned shall be open for recreational use equally to the citizens of both contracting parties save as restricted as to hunting fishing and boating in this agreement set forth or hereafter mutually agreed upon by both parties but no person shall be permitted to hunt or fish therein or thereon unless the lawful holder of a fishing or hunting license authorizing him or her so to do issued by the proper authorities of Pennsylvania or of Ohio

2 Arrest and Prosecution of Offenders

That each state shall enjoy and exercise a concurrent jurisdiction upon the water (but not upon the dry land) between the shores of said lake including the islands therein with respect to the arrest and prosecution of offenders but in such sort that any boat or vessel fastened to or aground on the shore of either state shall be considered exclusively within the jurisdiction of said state but that all capital and other offenses trespasses or damages committed on or over said lake the judicial investigation and determination thereof shall be exclusively vested in the state wherein the offender or person charged with such offense shall be first apprehended arrested prosecuted or first brought to trial it being the intent of this agreement that an offender may be pursued and arrested anywhere on or over said lake or shores thereof or islands therein regardless of the boundary line by any peace officers or persons of either state authorized to make arrests whether the offenses be committed on or over any part of the lake on the shores or islands therein regardless of the state in which the place where the offense was committed lies

3 Islands

All islands within the lake shall be considered as part of the State of Pennsylvania

4 Pollution of Water

The lake shall forever be protected against pollution of its waters by industrial trade waste individual or municipal sewage from shore or boat and the discharge of any noxious or deleterious substance liquid or solid into the waters of the lake which is or may become inimical or injurious to public health or to animal or aquatic life is hereby expressly forbidden

No sewage may be discharged into the waters of the lake except after complete treatment and then only upon permit first approved by the Health Departments of both states

5 Boats and Vessels

No power or motor boats nor hydroplanes or aquaplanes shall be permitted anywhere on said lake except such police or administration motor boats to the number which shall be mutually agreed upon by the parties hereto Sail boats row boats and canoes shall be permitted provided they first obtain a license from the respective state of which the owner is a resident under such regulations as each party to this agreement may now have or hereafter adopt

6 Fishing

Any person possessing a duly issued fishing license by either state shall be permitted to fish anywhere on the entire lake between the low water marks (except such portion thereof as is closed to fishing by Paragraph 8 hereof or such further portion as may hereafter by regulation be mutually agreed to by the parties hereto) but no fisherman shall be entitled to fish from the shores of the state of which he is a nonresident unless he complies with the non-resident fishing license law of said state

In order to permit the fish to fully propagate and develop no part of the lake shall be open for fishing until the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven and thereafter shall be closed in each year between the tenth day of December and the thirtieth day of June

Until otherwise mutually agreed to by both parties hereto the creel size and season limits for the respective kinds of fish caught shall be such as may hereafter be agreed upon between the two states

7 Reciprocal Hunting Rights

Reciprocal hunting rights are hereby granted to the licensed hunters of each state on the water of that portion of the lake both in Pennsylvania and Ohio over the area bounded on the south by an east and west line crossing the State boundary five-tenth of a mile north of Simons Ohio and on the north by a line drawn between the point at which the Padanaram Road crosses the State boundary and a point formerly known as the Polleck Bridge but such reciprocal hunting rights hereby granted shall extend only to such wild migratory birds as are covered by the Federal Migratory Bird Treaty and Federal Laws adopted thereunder

Hunting in such portions of the lake as are not included in the area above described and designated shall be and remain under the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

No permanent blinds shall be erected anywhere on the lake and shores thereof but this provisions shall not be interpreted as forbidding the use of a boat as a blind temporarily moored to or grounded on the shore of the lake or islands thereof

8 Wild Game and Fish Sanctuaries

A The Game Commission of the State of Pennsylvania having established a wild migratory bird and game sanctuary or refuge in that part of the lake located northwest of the Pennsylvania Railroad Crossing it is expressly agreed that nothing herein contained shall be interpreted as entitling the residents of either state whether licensed to fish or hunt or otherwise to fish or hunt trespass or enter upon said sanctuary for any purpose whatsoever Anyone so doing shall become amenable to prosecution therefore under the Game Laws of the State of Pennsylvania applicable to game refuges

B The Conservation Division of the Department of Agriculture of the State of Ohio having established a fish sanctuary and game refuge in the following portion of the lake

Being the southerly parts of Lots Numbers 79 and 80 Richmond Township all of Lot Number 41 and all of Lot Number 42 except the westerly 1000 feet thereof in Andover Township Ashtabula County Ohio

Beginning at a point in the west line of Lot Number 79 that is 1523 feet south of the north line of Lot Number 79 also being the center line of Padanaram Road thence southerly along the County Highway along the westerly side of Lot Number 79 1869.5 feet to the north line of Andover Township thence westerly along the northerly line of Andover Township 939.7 feet to the northwest corner of Lot Number 41 thence southerly along the highway that marks the westerly line of Lot Number 42 1000 feet to a point thence of Lot Number 42 thence easterly along the north line of Lot Number 42 1000 feet to a point thence in a southerly direction parallel to and 1000 feet easterly from a westerly line of Lot Number 42 2734 feet more or less to the southerly line of Lot Number 42 thence easterly along the said southerly line of Lot Number 42 5180.4 feet to the Ohio and Pennsylvania State line thence northerly along the said Ohio and Pennsylvania State Line 7297.6 feet more or less to a point that is 1523 feet southerly from the north line of Lot Number 80 thence in a westerly direction 1523 feet southerly from and parallel to the north lines of Lots Numbers 79 and 80 5260 feet more or less to the place of beginning

It is expressly agreed that nothing herein contained shall be interpreted as entitling the residents of either state whether licensed to fish or otherwise to fish in hunt trespass or enter upon said sanctuary for any purpose whatsoever Anyone so doing shall become amenable to prosecution therefore under the laws of the State of Ohio applicable thereto

9 Reservation of Pennsylvania's Right to the Body of the Water

It is expressly agreed that nothing herein contained shall operate to deny limit or restrict the right of the Water and Power Resources Board of Pennsylvania or any authority established hereafter by said state to exercise such power to at any time now or hereafter raise or draw off so much of the waters of the lake as in their sole judgment may be necessary to maintain or regulate the flow of the Shenango and Beaver Rivers in furtherance of the primary purpose for which said lake was established and said Water and Power Resources Board shall without let or hindrance have the full right irrespective of other considerations to release so much of the water as they may deem proper to maintain the flow of the Shenango and Beaver Rivers irrespective of its effect on the level of the lake or use thereof for other purposes

In witness whereof The parties hereto have hereunto set their respective hands and seals by for and under the authority of their respective states this 28th day of October 1936

Our heavenly Father, we invoke Thy divine blessing upon our Nation; upon our Commonwealth; upon The President of our nation; upon The Governor of our State; upon The Speaker of The House; upon all members of The Assembly; upon all employes and upon all guests present. Thy benediction is a constant encouragement so oft are we cast down by words, not of benediction but malediction. The swank fragrance of just a few flowers enriches and quickens tired souls of the living more than banks of flowers on tomb stones. Holy Spirit, heavenly dove, may we feel Thy electrifying presence here tonight. In Christ's name. Amen.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General for the purpose of further study and possible amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODSIDE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to inquire of the gentleman from Dauphin the nature of the amendments that are contemplated to be added to this bill.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, I might say that I did not say that the bill would necessarily be amended; I said possible amendments. There is this situation existing relative to the courts of Dauphin county: in addition to the usual work in the county, the courts of Dauphin County also attend to considerable Commonwealth business, and there is also the question as to what rights the Orphans' Court, if established, shall have and what work the judge shall do. There are a number of questions that are concerned in this general proposition, and that is one of the reasons why I moved that it be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, has the bill passed first reading?

The SPEAKER. The bill has passed first reading.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I offer no objection to the motion to recommit.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILLS ON FIRST READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2152, (Senate Bill No. 558), entitled:

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2153, (Senate Bill No. 559), entitled:

An Act to amend Article ten of the act approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 309) entitled, "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue, and repealing all laws, general special or local, or any parts thereof, that are so may inconsistent therewith," by requiring the Superintendent of Public Instruction to withhold appropriations from school districts until all reports required by law are filed, and making permissive the withholding of appropriations from school districts failing to comply with health and safety regulations.

And said bill having been read at length the first time, Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

STATEMENT BY MR. JIROLANIO.

Mr. JIROLANIO asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, on November 3, 1936 the citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania saw fit to elect to the office of Auditor General one of the greatest Senators that this State has ever had, and I am very, happy to say that the gentleman came from my county, the County of Northampton. The gentleman of whom I speak is none other than your friend and my friend, Senator Warren R. Roberts.

It has been the policy of the Democratic Party from its very inception to always adhere to a program of economy, and, lo and behold, last week I was amazed to read in the newspapers that a special writ had been issued in order that Northampton County may hold a special election to fill the place which will become vacant on May 4 when Senator Warren R. Roberts shall become Auditor General of this Commonwealth. The cost of this election will be between fourteen and sixteen thousand dollars, which will have to be borne by the citizens of Northampton County, and this amount is coming at a time when the people of my county are suffering from over-taxation, when the budget of Northampton County has already been made up and when the people of Northampton County have been saddled with taxes for the past five or six years. I do not think it is fair that the people of Northampton County should be forced to assume the additional burden of an amount between fourteen and sixteen thousand dollars, at a time when there are people in my county suffering from lack of work and suffering from lack of nourishment, and even children crying for milk. Being asked to hold a special election, and even if the special election should be held, if it runs true to form like all other elections in the State of Pennsylvania, not more than thirty per cent of the citizens entitled to vote will exercise their franchise, and thirty percent of the registered voters is not the voice of the entire county. I say to you that even if a special election were held and that only thirty percent of the voters were to exercise their franchise, that would not be a true representation of the electorate of Northampton County.

I do not think it is fair that the county commissioners after they spend a long period of time in making up a budget should be confronted with this situation of an additional expenditure of fourteen to sixteen thousand dollars, when our county has within the past five years been forced to raise its tax rate from seven mills to fourteen mills, and if this special election is called it will mean that a special assessment will have to be gotten somewhere in order to pay for the special election. I do not believe it is fair to my people, I do not believe it is fair to the people of this Commonwealth, that this county should be called upon to suffer such a great expenditure of money for a cause as simple as this. It is also an affront to that great man who has seen fit to serve the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the past twelve years in the office of Senator. When he was elected to that office he made a statement that because he had the taxpayers' interest at heart he did not believe it was necessary to hold a special election, and for that reason he would continue in office as long as it was humanly possible. Now comes this special writ or special call, issued by the Senate of the State of Pennsylvania, directed to the Sheriff of Northampton County to the effect that notice be given that a special election will be held. I say to you members that in due fairness and in keeping with the platform which the Democratic party has endorsed, and in due fairness to all the people of the State, especially the people of Northampton County, who will be called upon to pay the expense, that no special election be held. Although the Constitution may say that the President Pro Tem shall order a writ to be served, there is also something in the law, which would have the effect of permitting the Democratic party and the Senate of the State of Pennsylvania to carry out their mandate, and at the same time give the people of Northampton County what is justly due to them. And they can do that in this fashion, by recalling the writ, which has been issued upon the Sheriff of my county, in order that the people of my county will not suffer additional burden to the extent of between fourteen and sixteen thousand dollars. I thank you.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 500, entitled:

An Act relating to local taxation establishing a system in counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes for the collection of county borough town township school and poor taxes with certain exceptions through the county treasurers as county tax collectors and city tax collectors in cities of the second class A and third class defining the rights powers and duties of the collectors of county borough town township school and poor district taxes in certain counties defining the rights powers and duties of such taxing units regulating the date of making and certifying of tax levies abolishing the office of county borough town township school and poor district tax collectors except county treasurers and certain tax collectors in cities upon the expiration of existing terms and in cases of vacancies imposing certain duties upon the Department of Internal Affairs defining certain criminal offenses imposing penalties and creating liens and repealing existing laws

Section 3 Saving Clause A The provisions of this act in so far as they are the same as those of existing acts shall be construed as a continuation of such acts and not as new enactments The repeal or superseding by this act of any existing act or any part thereof shall not be construed to revive any act or part of any act heretofore repealed or superseded

B Except as otherwise specifically provided in this act the provisions of this act shall not affect any act done any liability duty or obligation incurred or any right accrued or vested prior to the effective date of this act nor shall they affect any suit or prosecution pending or to be instituted to enforce any right or penalty or to punish any offense under the authority of any act repealed or superseded by this act

C All resolutions regulations and rules made pursuant to any act repealed or superseded by this act shall unless inconsistent with any provisions of this act continue with the same force as if such act had not been repealed or superseded

The fourth section was read as follows:

Section 4 Constitutional Construction It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that if this act cannot take effect in its entirety because of the decision of any court holding unconstitutional any part hereof the remaining provisions of the act shall be given full force and effect as completely as if the part held unconstitutional had not been included herein

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 4, page 4, line 27 by inserting at the end of the line after the word "herein" the following: "In the event that the provisions of subsection B of section seven of this act are held unconstitutional it is hereby declared that it is the legislative intent that the remaining provisions of this act are to become effective in each county subject to the provisions of this act as if the provisions of subsection B of section seven had not been included herein.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The fifth and sixth sections were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 5 Construction of References and Section Headings A Any reference in this act to any act by title or otherwise shall be construed to apply to and include any codification wherein the provisions of the act referred to are substantially re-enacted

B Any reference in this act to the provisions of law on any subject shall apply to statutes and decisions becoming effective after the effective date of this act as well as to those then in existence

C Section headings shall not be construed to effect in any manner the scope or meaning of any portion of this act.

Section 6 Jurisdiction of Courts Except where otherwise specifically provided the provisions of this act shall not be deemed to curtail in any manner whatsoever the equity jurisdiction and powers of the courts of this Commonwealth

The seventh section was read as follows:

Section 7 Scope of Act A This act shall be construed to apply to the collection of all county borough town township school and poor taxes in counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes except (a) school taxes in school districts of the first class and (b) poor taxes levied only in cities on the city assessment and valuation

B This act shall not be construed to apply to the collection of (a) city taxes nor (b) any taxes levied on unseated lands which shall continue to be collected as now provided by law

C Nothing contained in this act shall be construed as repealing or changing the existing laws providing for the return of seated real estate to the county commissioners for the collection of delinquent taxes nor the laws relating to the filing and collection of tax claims in and through the office of the prothonotary except that for taxes which are within the scope of this act the making of the returns to the county commissioners and the certifying of the taxes to the proper corporate authorities for entry of liens in the office of the prothonotary shall hereafter be performed only by the persons who are under the provisions of this act the collectors of such taxes and except also that interest shall only accrue and be collected on such deliquent taxes in accordance with the provisions of this act and not otherwise

On the question.

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

Amend section 7, page 5, line 14 by inserting after the figure "7" and before the word "Scope" the following: "Referendum

Amend section 7, page 5, line 14 by striking out at the end of the line after the word "shall" the following: "[be con-]"

Amend section 7, page 5, line 15 by striking out at the beginning of the line before the word "apply" the following: "[strued to]"

Amend section 7, page 5, line 16 by inserting after the word "in" and before the word "counties" the following: "such"

Amend section 7, page 5, line 20, by inserting at the end of the line the following:

"Provided, That in the event the provisions of subsection B of this section are held unconstitutional, this act shall apply to the collection of all county, borough, town, township, school and borough taxes in counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes, except (a) school taxes in school districts of the first class and (b) poor taxes levied only in cities on the city assessment and valuation.

B. At the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven there shall be submitted to the electors of each county, except a county of the first class, a question to determine the will of the electors of such county with respect to the acceptance of this act and the collection of county, borough, town, township, school and poor taxes under the centralized system of collection established by this act. Such question shall be in the following form:

Do you favor the abolition of the present system of collecting local taxes and the acceptance of Act No. approved 1937 which establishes a centralized county system for the collection of all local taxes (with certain exceptions) through the office of the county treasurer?	Yes
	No

The said question shall be printed on separate official ballots in bound form by the county commissioners of each county and sufficient number of ballots shall be furnished to the election officers in each election district of the county so that one ballot may be supplied to each voter at such election. In districts where voting machines are used, such question shall appear on the face of the machine where the machine is properly equipped for such purposes.

The votes cast on such question shall be counted by the election officers and returns thereof made by them and by election officers where voting machines are used, to the prothonotary of the county, who shall lay the same before the return board for computation at the same time and in the same manner as other election returns. The return board shall compute the vote for the entire county and certify the results thereof to the county commissioners, the county treasurer and to the corporate authorities of each political subdivision within the county.

If a majority of the electors voting on such question in any county shall vote "no" on the question submitted, then this act shall not apply to such county and the existing laws for the collection of such taxes shall be continued in force in such county and its various political subdivisions; but if a majority of the electors voting on such question shall vote "yes" then the existing laws, so far as the same are inconsistent with the provisions of this act, shall be repealed when this act shall come into full force and effect in such county.

In any county where the provisions of this act are not in effect by reason of the negative vote of the electors of the county, the question as to whether the provisions of this act shall apply to such county may be resubmitted from time to time in the manner aforesaid to the electors thereof at any election occurring at least two years prior to the election at which tax collectors are elected for the boroughs and townships in such county upon petition of electors equal to at least ten per centum of the highest vote cast for any office in the preceding municipal or general election held in such county.

Amend section 7, page 5, line 25 by striking out at the beginning of the line the following: "[C]" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "D".

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1981, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws 1116) entitled "An act for the protection of the Public Health and to prevent fraud and deception in the manufacture sale offering for sale exposing for sale and having in possession with intent to sell of adulterated or deleterious ice cream custard ice cream french ice cream french custard frozen custard sherbet ice and fruit ice including coated ice cream and the coating thereof fixing standards for ice cream custard ice cream french ice cream french custard frozen custard sherbet ice and fruit ice and to prevent the sale of imitation ice cream and defining said imitation ice cream providing penalties for the violation thereof and providing for the enforcement thereof" further regulating the manufacture importation and sale of such products providing for injunctions and changing the penalties prescribed

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That sections two three four nine and ten of the act approved the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws 1116) entitled "An act for the protection of the public health and to prevent fraud and deception in the manufacture sale offering for sale exposing for sale and having in possession with intent to sell of adulterated or deleterious ice cream custard ice cream french ice cream french custard frozen custard sherbet ice and fruit ice including coated ice cream and the coating thereof fixing standards for ice cream custard ice cream french ice cream french custard frozen custard sherbet ice and fruit ice and to prevent the sale of imitation ice cream and defining said imitation ice cream providing penalties for the violation thereof and providing for the enforcement thereof" are hereby amended to read as follows

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McArdle.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McARDLE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McArdle, whether under this bill a small retailer of ice cream, who is accustomed to putting ice cream out in a small round container or square container without a name of any kind on it would not be liable to the penalty under the act.

Mr. McARDLE. Mr. Speaker, as I understand the bill, he would be liable to the penalty under this act.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman not think that that is a very stringent provision and might work a hardship on a great many small merchants? For instance, if I may illustrate and make my point clear, I know that in my own neighborhood there is a great number of small merchants who buy ice cream from the large Philadelphia supply houses, like Breyers and Supplees, and if you want some of that ice cream they have signs outside their stores and so forth, and you go there and they dish it out in a small container, of cardboard or whatever it is made of, it bears no name. This would mean they would either have to have containers with names on or they would have to have their own printed on them, or if the merchant should be out of the container and somebody comes in and wants ice cream, he would be liable to the penalties under this act. Therefore, it appears to me that the thing to do, unless you want this bill to pass second reading,—I am sorry I did not see you in the House so that I could talk to you about this interrogation,— but it seems to me the thing to do is to pass the bill over and amend it to carify that situation.

Mr. McARDLE. Mr. Speaker, as I understand this bill, it covers the manufacturer of ice cream and then the retailer automatically meets the requirements of it.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, that is not the understanding that I have from the study of the bill that I have made, that it only applies to the manufacturer.

Mr. McARDLE. Mr. Speaker, I will be very glad to pass the bill over until we can get together on it.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman if he would not pass the bill over and then decide that question a little latter.

Mr. McARDLE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

BILLS PASSED OVER

There being no objection House Bill No. 1981, Printer's No. 601 was passed over at the request of Mr. McARDLE.

There being no objection House Bill No. 2143, Senate Bill No. 607, Printer's No. 175 was passed over at the request of Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2141, (Senate Bill No. 515), as follows:

An Act authorizing county commissioners in counties of the seventh and eighth classes to transfer surplus county moneys to the poor district and providing for the expenditure of the moneys so transferred for poor district purposes

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That whenever the current funds of the poor district of any county of the seventh or eighth class shall be exhausted it shall be lawful for the county commissioners of any such county at any time during the last nine months of the fiscal year to transfer from time to time to the account of the poor district any county moneys which in the opinion of the county commissioners will not be needed during the current fiscal year for general county purposes and the county moneys so transferred shall be available for expenditure by the poor district in the same manner and for the same purposes as if raised by taxation for poor purposes including the payment of any temporary indebtedness of the poor district

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

of said fund Upon the consolidation of the separate funds as aforesaid there shall be established and maintained by the retirement board for actuarial purposes the several hereinafter named ledger accounts equivalent to and which shall stand in lieu of the several separate funds hereby abolshed and all credits to each abolishd fund shall be credited by the retirement board to the ledger account hereinafter created to stand in place of said fund

(3) In the month of January nineteen hundred and twenty-six for a period covering the twelve months next preceding and semi-annually thereafter covering the six months next preceding the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall from the General Fund from special operating funds and from other agencies pay into the fund created by this act through the Department of Revenue on account of each new member of the retirement association who was a contributor for one or more months of such respective periods such amounts as shall be certified by the retirement board as necessary to provide by such method of payment during the prospective service as State employe of such new member the State annuity reserve required at the time of retirement for the disability or superannuation State annuity allowable by the State Commonwealth under the provisions of this act or required at the time of discontinuance of service under paragraph four of section eleven of this act which amount shall be credited by the retirement board to a ledger account to be known as the contingent reserve account The amount so certified by the retirement board shall be computed to bear a ratio to the salary earnable by such new member during the period for which the amount is certified which shall remain constant during his or her entire period of prospective active service and shall be based on such mortality and other tables as shall be adopted by the retirement board and on regular interest

(4) Upon the retirement of a new member an amount equal to his or her State annuity reserve shall be transferred by the retirement board from the contingent reserve account to the credit of a ledger account to be known as State annuity reserve account His or her State annuity shall be charged to said State annuity reserve account and paid from the fund created by this act Should said new member be subsequently restored to active service his or her State annuity reserve shall thereupon be transferred from State annuity reserve account to the contingent reserve account Should the State annuity of any such new member be otherwise reduced or discontinued in accordance with the provisions of this act his or her State annuity reserve or such proportionate part of his or her State annuity reserve as corresponds to the amount of the reduction of his or her State annuity shall be transferred from State annuity reserve account to the contingent reserve account

(5) The actuary after making the first valuation required shall determine the present value of the liability on account of all State annuities payable to original members and the percentage of the total compensation paid to all members during the preceding year which is equivalent to one twenty-fifth of the said liability The Commonwealth and other agencies designated by this act shall pay into the fund created by this act through the Department of Revenue annually beginning with the month of June nineteen hundred and twenty-five and until the accumulated reserve equals the present value of said liability the amount as certified by the retirement board which shall be equal to the per centum determined in accordance with this section of the total compensation paid to all members for service during the preceding year which amount shall be credited by the retirement board to a ledger account to be known as State annuity reserve account number two Each annual payment shall be sufficient when combined with that in the fund to the credit of the aforesaid account to provide the [pensions] State annuities payable by the Commonwealth during the year then current to original members then retired or to be retired as provided in this act Upon the retirement of an original member his or her State annuity shall be charged to the State annuity reserve account number two and paid from the fund created by this act

(6) There shall be credited by the retirement board to a ledger account to be known as the members' annuity savings account the amounts of the accumulated deductions from the salaries of contributors made under such rules and regulations as the retirement board shall prescribe as follows

From the salary of each member who is a contributor there shall be deducted and paid into the fund created by this act through the Department of Revenue such per centum of his or her earnable salary as shall be computed to be sufficient with regular interest to procure for him or her on superannuation retirement a member's annuity equal to one one-hundred sixtieth (1-160) [or] if the member [shall] has so [elect] elected prior to the effective date of this amendment or one one-hundredth (1-100) of his or her final salary for each year of service after the thirty-first day of December nineteen hundred twenty-three but after the effective date of this amendment every person becoming a member shall be required to contribute at the one one-hundredth (1-100) rate except that if the deduction so computed shall exceed [five] seven per centum of his or her earnable salary [and] the member [shall so elect] may request the board to be permitted to contribute at the lesser rate and if the board finds that there are reasons which justify such reduction then there shall be deducted [five] seven per centum of his or her earnable salary Provided That those members who have elected to contribute at a five per centum rate prior to the effective date of this amendment may continue such rate of contributions And further provided That a beneficiary restored to service shall not be required to contribute at a per centum rate of his or her earnable salary which is greater than the per centum thereof which he or she was required to contribute prior to his or her retirement The rate per centum of said deductions from salary shall be based on such mortality and other tables as the retirement board shall adopt together with regular interest and shall be computed to remain constant during the prospective service of the contributor

(7) Upon the retirement of a contributor a credit equivalent to the amount of his or her accumulated deductions shall be transferred from the members' annuity savings account to a ledger account to be known as the members' annuity reserve account His or her members' annuity shall be charged to said members' annuity reserve account and paid from the fund created by this act Should said contributor be subsequently restored to active service his or her members' annuity reserve shall thereupon be transferred from the members' reserve account to the members' annuity savings account

(8) No contributor who prior to the effective date of this amendment ceased to make contributions shall be required to continue to contribute to the State Employes' Retirement Fund after he or she shall have become eligible for superannuation retirement if her or she shall have already completed ten years of service [all contributions made thereafter to said Fund shall be voluntary] but any such contributor may elect at any time before retirement to resume contributions to the fund and shall also have the privilege to pay into the fund an amount equal to the total amount her or she would have contributed had he or she not elected to cease to make contributions Every contributor who after the effective date of these amendments becomes eligible for superannuation retirement shall be required to continue to make contributions so long as he or she shall remain in State service

(9) A contributor whether an original member or a new member who is in active service on the date when this amendment becomes effective may transfer from the one one-hundred-sixtieth (1-160) class to the one one-hundredth (1-100) class Provided That he completes the transfer on or before the thirty-first day of December one thousand nine hundred and [thirty-one] thirty-seven Provided also That in the event of such transfer the per centum of salary deductions applicable to such transferred member in the one one-hundredth (1-100) class shall be based upon the same age of the contributor as was used in determining the per centum of salary deduction applicable while in the one one-hundred-sixtieth (1-160) class

Where a member has transferred from the one one-hundred-sixtieth (1-160) class to the one one-hundredth (1-100) class as above provided his State annuity upon retirement shall be calculated as follow

(a) For service prior to the time of transfer at the one one-hundred-sixtieth (1-160) rate

(b) For service subsequent to the date of transfer to the date of retirement at the one one-hundredth (1-100) rate

(c) For all service prior to the time of commencing contribution as the time he contributed at the one one-hundred-sixtieth (1-160) rate bears to the total time of contribution and as the time he contributed at the one one-hundredth (1-100) rate bears to the total time of contribution

Section 5 That section ten of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Service Allowance

Section 10 In computing the length of service of a contributor for retirement purposes under the provisions of this act full credit shall be given to each original member by the retirement board for each year of prior service as a State employe as defined in section one paragraphs six and thirteen of this act As soon as practicable after each original member shall have joined the retirement association the retirement board shall issue to him or her a certificate certifying to the aggregate length of his or her prior service Such certificate shall be final and conclusive as to his or her prior service unless thereafter modied by the retirement board either upon application by the member or upon its own initiative The time during which a State employe is absent without pay shall not be counted in computing the [prior] service or the average salary of a contributor [unless allowed by the head of the department in which said contributor served at the time said leave of absence was granted and further unless said alowance shall be approved by the retirement board]

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts general local and special inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 3 This act shall become effective on the first day of May one thousnad nine hundred and thirty-seven

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, on today's calendar on bills on final passage, there are three Senate bills, Senate Bill No. 586, Senate Bill No. 589 and Senate Bill No. 590. Then on third reading there is House Bill No. 2081, and House Bill No. 2082. Those bills are all Philadelphia ripper bills and are all related to each other. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, in order to conserve the time of the House, I will ask permission of the House to discuss all the bills together but of course vote on them separately.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia asks permission of the House to discuss Senate Bills No. 586, No. 589, No. 590, No. 587 and No. 588. These bills all pertaining to the same subject and have some relationship to each other. The Chair hears no objection.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, I will ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Ominsky, to discuss these bills for the information of the members of the House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McDevitt, yields to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Ominsky.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McDevitt.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McDEVITT. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McDevitt, wish to interrogate me about any of these bills?

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, I would answer the gentleman from Philadelphia by stating that these five bills propose to make certain changes in existing departments, transfer certain duties and set up different systems. I would like the gentleman from Philadelphia to explain to the members of the House just what changes are made, what the purposes of the changes are, and what the savings if any are sought to be accomplished.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the question of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McDevitt, and for the information of the members of this House, I wish to say that the five Senate bills which he has mentioned are really not ripper bills. We call them reconstruction bills for the good of the city of Philadelphia. At the present time we have in the city of Philadelphia a Board of View composed of nine members, which has recently voluntarily reduced its membership to six, appointed by the board of Judges, who receive ten thousand dollars a year. They have also a Board of Revision of Taxes composed of five members, who are today receiving ten thousand dollars a year each. In addition to that we had until recently eighty real estate assessors, who received five thousand dollars a year, but by a recent act approved by this Legislature the number was reduced to thirty. We also have a Department of Receiver of Taxes, who receives ten thousand dollars a year, and who has several hundred thousand dollars of a budget to play with thoroughout the year. These five bills are a result of the investigation by the Shapiro Joint Legislative Committee, which at the present time is investigating the government of the City of Philadelphia. They found in their report, which was submitted to this House on March 15 of this year, that there is no necessity for the Board of View, that there is no necessity for the present membership of the Board of Revision of Taxes, that there is no necessity for the thirty assessors as constituted today, and that the work of the Receiver of Taxes can be accomplished by combining the work of the Treasurer as well as the Controller in this new setup of the Board of Revision of Taxes. Under the present set up the Board of View is abolished and the Board of View is taken from the membership of the Board of Revision of Taxes. It is set up with a membership of seven. The appointive powers are placed in the control of the Treasurer and the Controller of the county of Philadelphia. Three are appointed by each one of these officials and the seventh member is appointed jointly by both those county officials. In addition to that, after all the other assessors and personnel are eliminated, there will be appointed under these bills two deputy appraisers of personal property, who will receive five thousand dollars, twenty senior assistants instead of thirty who are now receiving five thousand dollars,—there will be twenty assistants who will receive four thousand dollars, and ten junior assistants who will receive from eighteen hundred dollars to twenty-seven hundred and fifty dollars a year, depending upon what the tax levying people will think is justified. In addition to that, all of the personnel or whatever personnel is necessary will be eliminated from the Receiver of Taxes, and the work will be done, the billing and so on, will be done by the Board and the taxes will be collected by the City Treasurer.

I just wish to call to the attention of the membership of the House, that in the report to which I alluded, submitted on March 15; it may be noted on page 39 that this will accomplish the following savings for the taxpayers of the City of Philadelphia: The present annual expenditures of the Board of View are eighty-three thousand six hundred dollars, the Board of Revision of Taxes has a budget of five hundred seventy-five thousand nine hundred thirty dollars; the Receiver of Taxes today has an expenditure of six hundred thirty-nine thousand eight-hundred fifteen dollars, and the Treasurer has an expenditure along the lines of collecting taxes of one hundred thousand dollars, which makes the grand total cost to the city of Philadelphia today of $1,399,345.

The estimated cost under the present five bills which we are now considering will be, as to the Board of View, there will be no cost because they will be eliminated. The Board of Revision of Taxes composed of seven members will cost seventy-two thousand five hundred dollars. The chief assessor will get eight thousand five hundred dollars; the two personal property assessors will receive ten thousand dollars each, and the twenty assistant assessors will be about eighty thousand dollars, which makes the grand total of $170,000 under the present setup.

In addition to that the extra clerical hire necessary under these bills will be approximately, estimated by the committee, sixty thousand dollars. The entire cost of the Receiver of Taxes will be eliminated and the city treasurer will have an additional expenditure of sixty thousand dollars together with one hundred thousand dollars which they are now spending, making a grand total of about four hundred thousand dollars under the present setup. Thus you can see there will be a total savings to the taxpayers of Philadelphia under the present new setup which we are asking you to vote on the nine hundred ninety-nine thousand three hundred forty-five dollars. To these savings must be added those savings which will accrue as a result of the transfer of the functions of the paymaster to the city treasurer and the resultant elimination of at least fifty-nine paymasters in the city of Philadelphia, and the cost of their bonds and such assistants that they now have in their work. Under those circumstances I cannot see how any one in this House who is interested in economy can do anything else but vote for the five measures which started in the Senate and are now up for consideration. Therefore, I ask the membership of this House to vote "aye" on all five measures, as they have been presented, Senate Bill No. 588, Senate Bill No. 586, Senate Bill No. 587, and Senate Bill No. 590 and Senate Bill No. 589. All these will accomplish the results I have enumerated.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if I believed these bills were anything but ripper bills, if I believed they did anything but transfer jobs from one department to another and a change that would make a complete and new functional setup for those offices, if I believed there would be a real saving for the city of Philadelphia I would not opppose the bills. My friend has referred to the Shapiro Committee Report and read it as though it were a bible. I do not believe this report has been analyzed so far. Now, might be a good time to do it and I firmly believe if any business enterprise set up their books like this report they would go to jail. Let us take a sample of the figures contained in that report, as appears on page 39. We find on that page the present annual expenditures are set up as follows:

Board of Viewers, $83,600. The report fails to state the personnel item is only $76,950. The Board of Revision is carried at $575,930 with a personnel item of only $562,005. The Receiver of Taxes is set up at $639,815, and the personnel item is only $558,230. So that the personnel total on all amounts to $1,197,135.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, as this report, in referring to the new setup, refers entirely to the personnel, in reference to the old setup, it also should refer only to the personnel, so if you take off those items that are not for personnel there should be deducted from the present cost $202,160. Of course, in addition as I will point out later, there has already been a reduction of fifty at four thousand a year as far as assessors are concerned.

Taking their setup on the new costs we find several changes have been made since the report was filed, but taking their figures as noted we see the costs of the new Board of Revision to be $256,000. Then there is the Treasurer $160,000. They forgot to put in the department which they had dropped from their plans, namely the Water Bureau, assessing and collecting all water rents, which will probably be run by the city of Philadelphia to which it has been turned over.

They failed to mention the fact in the setup, that the Bureau of Water assessing and collecting has been transferred to the city. That would cost some $160,000 a year and certainly should be considered in determining whether or not it is a saving under this plan. Also there is no provision for the increase in the cost of running the Controller's office. I understand with this setup the Controller is going to take over all the books now in the hands of the Receiver of Taxes, which are innumerable, they include lien books, and delinquent tax books. I believe a fair item for that service is $176,000. In discovering whether or not there is any saving, let us first of all take the true figure of the personnel cost $1,197,185, deduct from that $716,000 and you have an apparent saving of $481,185. Then we also find there is nothing in this new setup to cover the various expense, such as postage, running of the office or anything of that character, which will be a substantial item.

As I said before they haven't set up the reduction which has already been in force, by the dropping of fifty assessors at four thousand dollars a year. So, I believe we will come right back to the same point, that this new setup will cost just the same as the present setup will cost.

Members of this House, I feel this way: We are right in the middle of a tax year. The Tax Department is working every day, and anybody who has had any experience with them,—I might say I doubt very much if any of the members of the committee have ever been through the office of the Receiver of Taxes. It is a most interesting office, it is a most systematic office. Every day they are receiving visitors from all cities of the country to check up on new methods, and instead of going to Detroit or Cleveland or places like that, they come here and ask the Receiver of Taxes what form they use for this bill or that bill.

I might also point out that under the proposed personal property tax as the bill now stands, in other words, the State is to collect the part formerly collected by the county, and the State will charge the county one percent of the tax collected. The Receiver of Taxes in Philadelphia collected over ninety million dollars last year. The cost of that collection personnel, as I pointed out, was $562,000 or a little more than half of one percent. That is certainly not a high cost of collection. May I point out also that some reference has been made to the city of Detroit in the report to the effect that it only costs the sum of $450,000 to collect fifty-five million dollars in taxes. May I not point out that in the city of Philadelphia the Receiver of Taxes collected almost twice that much for a slightly increased cost. I do not believe that anybody can attack the office of Receiver of Taxes. Anybody who is at all interested in the affairs of that office, who has been enaged in politics, will know that the people employed there work, and they know it is certainly not a haven for drones. Anybody that comes in that office comes in with the understanding that he will have to work hard; it is not an eight hour job or anything of that kind, and at certain portions of the year they work until after midnight. I believe if you pass this legislation you will create disorder, you will break up the system when you are getting people used to paying taxes again. You are going to change the complete setup and you are going to break down certain customs, such as having certain places for paying taxes. I believe you are going to come out at the end of the year with less collections than we had the year before, if this system is disturbed. This is a political proposition, it is nothing else. I do not believe that a five cent piece will be saved by this change. I believe the tax collections will go down. In all fairness let us not break up this system, let us not break up a system that has been tried out for one that is untried, which will be purely a trial.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is not our intention to argue the question as to which figures are the true ones. Suffice is to say that these figures were brought out at the various hearings held in Philadelphia. There was no refutation of these figures. However one of the important things that the gentleman from Philadelphia has overlooked, and if he has read this report submitted on March 15, like a bible, to use his language, I believe he may be correct because some portions of the bible we would like to skip over and not read in full.

On page 10 of the report you will find in a majority of cases before the Board of View that they have awarded damages far in excess of the amount assessed for taxation purposes. As an illustration of their shuffling of values, the assessed values for taxation purposes are compared with those awarded by the Board. In one instance, the assessed value was two hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and the award by the Board was three hundred twenty-four thousand dollars. In another case we have an assessed value of one hundred thousand dollars and the award by the Board was eight hundred nine thousand dollars. Now, apparently one of those two bodies was wrong. Either the assessed value was far below what it ought to be or the Board of View granted an excess amount over what it should have granted. Both of these bodies we intend to eliminate, and in eliminating those bodies we will create that confidence which the people of Philadelphia should have in the assessed valuation of the real property of Philadelphia because today the real estate of Philadelphia in inequitably assessed. Under the proposed method which we intend to put forth in Philadelphia you will find that the Board of Revision of Taxes will be composed of experts, accountants, engineers, attorneys and businessmen, and in that way you will get a cosmopolitan sense of opinion of scientifically assessing real property in Philadelphia. As a matter of fact if he had read the report further on he would have found that one tract owned by the Wolfenden-Shore Company, consisted of about eleven acres, with a large building which had been used as a mill sometime prior to condemnation.

This property was acquired by the City of Philadelphia under condemnation proceedings at a cost of $885,000; and at that time the property was assessed for taxation purposes in Delaware County at $85,000, one-tenth of the amount awarded by the Board.

You can go on and find another tract of land consisting of 6.3 acres. The Board of View awarded to the owner of that property $141,000, in spite of the fact that the property was assesed for taxation purposes at only $9,000. This award was later reduced on appeal to $116,000.

Another result is that the City of Philadelphia paid $1,001,000 for property assessed for taxation purposes at $94.000.

Now of course there is something radically wrong; even if we were not to save one penny on this new setup, it would be worth while to make the change, let alone the fact that we propose to save close to one million dollars in this new setup. In spite of what our friends from Philadelphia have to say.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I overlooked one point which I intended to cover, and that is that the report of the Shapiro committee does not refer to paymasters. Anybody who has had any experience or cares to go into the department in Philadelphia, will find that the paymaster does not receive any compensation, but on the contrary is either somebody in that department who is designated for that purpose or else is the head of the department himself.

I might also point out that if we are really going to have any reform, if we are really going to make these departments non-political, why not make them bipartisan, why not have a civil service provision in the bill, why not have a provision in there that the employes cannot engage in politics. There is a very good reason why you don't have any of those because you have a lot of politicians you want to put in jobs. Senator Shapiro said very clearly at one of the recent hearings that he did not see any reason why a committeeman should be disqualified from holding a job. I don't either. Let us not carry water on both shoulders. If the present department is political, why not admit that the new one will also be political. I don't see that it is anything but a switch over from one hand to the other, I do not believe that a five cent piece will be saved regardless of all claims.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection House Bill No. 2083, Senate Bill No. 589, Printer's No. 279 was passed over at the request of Mr. OMINSKY.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2084 (Senate Bill No. 590), as follows:

An Act relating to tax assessments in counties of the first class conferring powers and imposing duties on the board of revision of taxes and its agents and employes and repealing general local and special laws.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the board of revision of taxes in counties of the first class shall establish a system of tax assessments and records thereof which shall include a complete survey of each parcel of ground and of each building and other improvement in the county and a record thereof showing in full detail descriptions character and size of both land and buildings and other improvements together with the names and address of the owners thereof and the amounts for which such land buildings and improvements respectively stand assessed and the basis upon which such assessments were made The records hereby required shall be in such form and of such kind and character as in the opinion of the board and the chief appraiser shall be necessary and proper to set up and maintain a scientific and modern system of appraisement

Section 2 Such records shall be set up as soon as conveniently may be after the effective date of this act and shall be in such form as the board shall determine

The work of preparing such records together with the necessary maps plates and other details may be performed by contract entered into by the tax levying body of the county in the manner provided by law

Whenever after the completion of such records any change shall occur in the physical condition of any land building or improvement or any change in ownership or whenever any change in the assessed valuation is made in accordance with the provisions of this act such change or changes shall be made and noted on the record of the office of the board

Any taxable inhabitant shall have the right at any time during office hours to examine the assessment of any property shown on such record

Section 3 Immediately after their appointment in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven and again during the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine and triennially thereafter the board of revision of taxes may assess rate and value all objects of taxation whether for county city school or poor purposes according to the actual value thereof In arriving at such value the price for which any property would separately bona filed sell shall be considered but shall not be controlling In assessing real property the board shall classify the same in such manner as to distinguish between the buildings on land and the land exclusive of the buildings but no distinction shall hereafter be made between farm and suburban property

Section 4 In the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight and in each year between the years of the triennial assessments the board of revision of taxes shall take an account of all personal property taxable by law together with a just valuation thereof and all persons and also a valuation of all offices and posts of profit professions trades and occupations taxable by law and shall note all persons who have arrived at the age of twenty-one years since the last triennial assessment and all others who have since that time come to inhabit in the county together with the taxable property such persons may possess and the valuation thereof The Board shall also reassess all real property which may have been improved by the erection of buildings or other improvements subsequent to the last preceding triennial assessment and shall note such alterations as may have been occasioned by the transfer or division of real property or by the destruction of buildings

Section 5 In any year other than a triennial year the board of revision of taxes shall if it deems the same necessary make a new assessment of all the property within the county or any part thereof or of any particular property as it deems necessary and advisable

Section 6 As soon as the assessment required to be made during the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven and as soon as the assessment required to be made during the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine and each triennial assessment thereafter shall have been completed the board of revision of taxes shall prepare a statement in such form as will show the assessed values of all properties within the county Such statement may be in book form and shall be posted or made available for public inspection at such places throughout the county as the board shall deem necessary Copies of such statements may also be sold in such manner and at such price as the board shall determine The proceeds of such sales shall be paid into the county treasury

Section 7 When the times for the meetings of the board of revision of taxes to hear appeals have been fixed the board shall give at least five days' printed or written notice to each taxable of the amount or sum for which such taxable stands rated in any triennial assessment also of any sum or amount for which said persons stand rated by reason of any changes in his her or their assessment in any intervening year for any cause whatsoever together with the time and place of hearing appeals Such notice may served personally or by posting on the premises or by mailing the same to the last known address of the taxable Any person dissatisfied or aggrieved by the assessment or any change thereof may appeal to the board of revision of taxes and be heard at the time and place fixed in the notice

Section 8 At the time and place fixed for the appeal whether at a triennial or inter-triennial assessment the board of revision of taxes shall attend and hear all persons who may apply for redress and grant such relief as to them shall appear just and reasonable Provided That the board of revision of taxes shall not make any allowance or abatement in the valuation of any real estate in any other year than that in which the triennial assessment is made excepting where building or other improvements have been destroyed subsequently to such triennial assessment or where a new assessment has been made as hereinbefore authorized in which cases such allowance or abatement may be made

From any decision of the board an appeal may be had to the court of common pleas of the county as now provided by law On any such appeal the appraisement made by the board of revision of taxes shall be prima facie evidence of the value of the property involved in such appeal

Section 9 For the purpose of all hearings and for all other purposes necessary to the discharge of the duties of the board of revision of taxes each member of the board the chief appraiser each assistant appraiser and such other employes of the board as it may designate shall have authority to administer oaths and affirmations touching any matter relating thereto

Section 10 It shall be the further duty of the board of revision of taxes upon certification of the proper authorities levying taxes for county city school and poor purposes of the rates of such levies to prepare tax bills in such form and setting forth such information as the controller of the county shall prescribe Such bills shall cover water rents water charges and all taxes on both real and personal property occupations per capita and poll taxes that are levied by any such tax levying authority under any general local or special law

Section 11 Except where inconsistent therewith this act does not repeal any of the act approved the seventeenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 507) entitled "An act to provide revenue for State and county purposes and in cities coextensive with counties for city and county purposes imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property providing for the assessment and collection of the same providing for the duties and compensation of prothonotaries and recorders in connection therewith and modifying existing legislation which provided for raising revenue for State purposes" nor any of the provisions of the provision of the act approved the twenty-second day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 853) entitled "An act relating to taxation designating the subjects property and persons subjected to and exempt from taxation for all local purposes providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons property and subjects of taxation for county purposes and for the use of those municipal and quasi-municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assessments and valuations amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto and repealing existing laws" or its amendments

Section 12 All acts and parts of acts general local and special inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 13 This act shall become effective on the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven

The possession of any adulterated or misbranded article of food shall be deemed prima facie evidence of an intent to sell such article of food

Section 2 That section three of said act as last amended by the act approved the twenty-second day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws 899) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 3 (a) That for the purpose of this act an article of food shall be deemed to be adulterated

First If any substance has been mixed or packed with it so as to reduce or lower or injuriously affect its quality strength or purity

Second If any substance has been substituted wholly or in part for the article

Third If any valuable constituent of the article has been wholly or in part abstracted

Fourth If it be mixed colored or changed in color coated polished powdered stained or bleached whereby damage or inferiority is concealed or so as to deceive or mislead the purchaser or if by any means it is made to appear better or of greater value than it is

Fifth If it contains any added sulphurous acid sulphur dioxide or sulphites benzoic acid or benzoates or other preservatives except as hereafter provided or if it contains any added boric acid or borates salicylic acid or salicylates formaldehyde hydrofluoric acid or fluorides fluoborates fluosilicates or other fluorine compounds [dulcin glucin] saccharin [alum compounds of copper] or other artificial sweetening agents except as hereafter provided metallic salts betanapthol hydronapthol abrastol asaprol pyroligeneous acid or other [added] ingredients deleterious to health or if in the case of confectionery it contains any of the substances mentioned in this paragraph or any mineral substance or injurious color or flavor alcoholic liquor or any other ingredients not herein mentioned deleterious to health Providing That this act shall not be construed to prohibit the use of harmless colors of any kind in confectionery or in fruits used in fruit cake when used for coloring and not for any fraudulent purpose And provided further That nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit the use of common salt sugar pure corn syrup pure glucose wine vinegar cider vinegar malt vinegar sugar vinegar glucose vinegar distilled vinegar spices or their essential oils alcohol (except in confectionery) edible oils edible fats wood smoke applied directly as generated or proper refrigeration And provided further That in the manufacture of confectionery the use of alcohol shall be permitted as it may be found in customary alcoholic tinctures or extracts used for flavoring purposes only and as a solvent for glazes and that oil of sweet birch or methylsalicylic ester may be used as a substitute for oil of wintergreen as a flavor And provided further That in the preparation of dried fruits and molasses sulphur dioxide either free or in simple combination may be used in the proportion of not in excess of twenty-five hundred (2500) parts a million and that when any dried friuts and molasses are used in any foods or food products or contain as a part of or as an ingredient in any food the sulphur dioxide in such dried fruits and molasses shall not exceed the proportion of fifty (50) parts a million and that sodium benzoate may be used in the preparation of those articles of food in which it has heretofore been generally used in quantities not exceeding one-tenth (1-10) of one per centum or benzoic acid equivalent thereto And provided further That when any quantity of sulphur dioxide or sodium benzoate is used in any article of food the fact that sulphur dioxide or sodium benzoate has been used in the preparation thereof shall be plainly stated on each package of such food And provided further That any article of food containing saccharin or any artificial sweetening agent may be manufactured transported or sold if it contains no added sugar honey or other natural sweetening agent and the name of the artificial sweetening agent followed by the word "sweetened" is placed upon the label each time the name of the article of food is mentioned in type no smaller than the largest type on said label Said label shall also contain such appropriate warning statement as shall be prescribed by the Department of Agriculture

Sixth If it consists of or is manufactured in whole or in part from a diseased contaminated filthy or decom-

posed substance either animal or vegeable or an animal or vegetables substance produced stored transported exposed or kept in a way or manner that [would] might tend to render the article diseased contaminated or unwholesame or if it is any part of the product of a diseased animal or the product of an animal that has died otherwise than by slaughter

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person manufacturing articles of food or selling articles of food whether at wholesale or retail to have in his possession or to transport any article of food which is adulterated unless the same has been completely denatured and rendered unfit for food by kerosene or other suitable denaturant prescribed by the Department of Agriculture

Section 4 That clause two of section four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Second If it be labeled or branded so that it may deceive or mislead the purchaser or purport to be a foreign product when not so or if the contents of the package as originally put up shall have been removed in whole or in part and other [inferior] contents shall have been placed in such package

Section 5 That section four of said act is hereby amended by adding thereto clauses five six and seven to read as follows

Fifth If the package or container containing the article of food or the label thereon shall not bear the name and address of the manufacturer or packer of the contents thereof or the name and address of the wholesale dealer or distributor preceded by the words "manufactured by" or "packed by" or "distributed by" or "packed for" as the case may be or followed by the word "manufacturer" or "packer" or "wholesale dealer" or "distributor" as the case may be

Sixth When the package or container containing the article of food or the label thereon shall not bear the name and address of the manufacturer or packer of the contents thereof preceded by the words "manufactured by" or "packed by" or followed by the word "manufacturer" or "packer" as the case may be unless the wholesale dealer or distributor in such cases shall keep true and correct records of the name and address of the manufacturer or packer of the contents thereof which records shall be open at all reasonable times to inspection by the Department of Agriculture or its agents Such records shall be kept by the wholesale dealer or distributor for a period of five years from the date of the sale of said articles of food by said wholesale dealer or distributor

Seventh When the package or container shall not bear the name and address of the manufacturer or packer of the contents thereof preceded by the words "manufactured by" or "packed by" or followed by the word "manufacturer" or "packer" as the case may be unless such package or container shall bear a code marking identifying to the wholesale dealer or distributor the name and address of the manufacturer or packer of the contents thereof Such information shall be kept as part of the records of the wholesale dealer or distributor for a period of five years from the date of the sale of said articles of food by said wholesale dealer or distributor and such records shall be open at all reasonable times to inspection by the Department of Agriculture or its agents

Section 5 When the [Dairy and Food Commissioner] Department of Agriculture or [his] its agent shall obtain an article of food or a sample or portion thereof from any person for the purpose of determning whether the same is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act and it shall be found that the said article of food is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act then the [Dairy and Food Commissioner] Department of Agriculture shall proceed against the said person from whose store warehouse or other place of business said article sample or portion thereof shall have been obtained for a viclation of the provisions of this act

But no prosecution shall be sustained under the provisions of this act against a retail dealer for the selling offering for sale exposing for sale or having in possession with intent to sell of any adulterated or misbranded article of food as defined herein if the retail dealer from whom the said articles of food sample or portion thereof was obtained by the [Dairy and Food Commissioner] Department of Agriculture or [his] its agent can establish a guaranty signed by the manufacturer or wholesale dealer or jobber or distributor residing in the United States from whom such article of food was purchased or procured to the effect that the same is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act designating it unless such article of food shall have been adulterated or misbranded while in the possession of such retail dealer

Said guaranty to afford protection shall contain the name and address of the manufacturer or wholesale dealer or jobber or distributor making the sale of such article of food to such retailer and in such case the said manufacturer or wholesale dealer or jobber or distributor so as aforesaid giving such guaranty shall be amendable to the prosecution fines and other penalties which would attach in due course to the retailer holding such guaranty under the provisions of this act for a violation hereof and every manufacturer or wholesale dealer or jobber or distributor giving a guaranty under the provisions of this act shall be held responsible and shall be proceeded against for the adulteration or misbranding of any article of food sold under said guaranty and shall be subject to the penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act No such guaranty shall operate as a defense to prosecution for a violation of the provisions of this act if the retailer holding such guaranty shall continue to sell the same article of food after written or printed notice from the [Dairy and Food Commissioner] Department of Agriculture or [his] its agent that such article is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act

But if said person shall violate the provisions of paragraph six section three of this act by having stored [or] transported exposed or kept said article in said paragraph mentioned in a way or manner to render it diseased contaminated or unwholesome said person shall be proceeded against for a violation of the provisions of this act and it shall not be necessary for conviction that any article sample or portion thereof shall be obtained by the [Dairy and Food Commissioner] Department of Agriculture or [his] its agent as a condition precedent to prosecution

Section 7 Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act or any rule regulation or order made pursuant to this act shall [be guilty of a misdemeanor] for the first or second offense upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than sixty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of payment of such fine and costs shall be sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the county jail for not more than thirty days and for a third or subsequent offense shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars or to undergo imprisonment not exceeding one year or both in the discretion of the court

Section 7 That said act is hereby amended by adding thereto after section seven a new section to read as follows

Section 7A The Attorney General at the request of the Department of Agriculture may in the name of the Commonwealth institute proceedings in equity in the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County for the purpose of enjoining any person violating any of the provisions of this act from selling articles of food in this Commonwealth and for such purpose jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon said court In such cases the Attorney General shall not be required to give bond

Section 8 That sections eight and nine of said act are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 8 The [Dairy and Food Commissioner] Department of Agriculture of the State shall be charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this act and shall make rules and regulations for the proper enforcement thereof including rules and regulations setting up definitions and standards of articles of food and shall cause such rules and regulations to be published in the official bulletin in the issue immediately following the preparation of the same

Section 9 All fines and penalties imposed and recovered for the violation of any of the provisions of this act shall be paid [to the Dairy and Food Commissioner or his agent and by the Dairy and Food Commissioner be paid] into the State Treasury [for the use of the Commonwealth] through the Department of Revenue and credited to the General Fund

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. ACHTERMAN asked and obtained permission for the Committee on State Government to meet during the session of the House.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1557, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to Article nine Section eight of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. SKALE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 843, entitled:

An Act to regulate the sale and advertising for sale of goods wares and merchandise purporting to be an insurance bankruptcy mortgage insolvent assignees executors administrators receivers trustees removal or closing-out sale or sale of goods damaged by fire smoke or water and to prevent fraudulent practices in connection therewith and providing penalties for the violation thereof and for the imposition of license fees for permission to conduct the same

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 5, page 3, line 21, by striking out the words "one year" and substituting in lieu thereof the words: "six months"

Amend Section 5, page 3, lines 23 to 27, inclusive, by striking out the entire passage beginning with the word "in" on line 23 and concluding with the figures "($25)" at the end of line 27, and substituting in lieu thereof the following: "shall be ten dollars ($10)"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection?

Mr. LaRUE. Mr. Speaker, I understood that these amendments were to be inserted in the bill in the Senate in order not to delay this bill, and for that reason I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection, and consent is not granted.

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the amendments.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cohen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I notice that this act requires executors, administrators and receivers to take out a license. On page 4, section 6, the bill says, "This act shall not apply to sales conducted by sheriffs constables or other public or court officials or to any other person or persons acting under the direction or authority of any court State or Federal selling goods wares and merchandise." Would you interpret that to mean that an executor or administrator or receiver was acting under the authority and direction of a court?

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. I would, Mr. Speaker, and I might state further that I have taken up this subject with those who will have the bill in the Senate and they have agreed to delete from the bill the words "executors" and "administrators."

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2004 (Senate Bill No. 305), as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" by authorizing counties of the second class to assist political subdivisions in the county in negotiations and contests with public service companies

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That article five of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof a new subdivision and section to read as follows

(1) Proceedings before Public Utility Commission

Section 495 Counties of the Second Class May Assist Municipalities Upon the request of any political subdivision or subdivisions within the county any county of the second class may assist such political subdivision in any negotiations or contest with any public service company and for such purpose may employ or place at the disposal of such political subdivision the legal engineering accounting or clerical service of the county The county commissioners of any such county may also enter their appearance as interveners or otherwise in any proceedings before the Public Utility Commision or before any court in any proceeding involving any controversy between any political subdivision in the county and a public service company

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1770 (Senate Bill No. 153), entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the twentieth day of March one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws six) entitled "An act to prohibit the making or dissemination of false or misleading statements or assertions concerning any merchandise securities or services and providing penalties for the violation thereof" by including display or placard advertising and changing the penalties prescribed and the manner of proving violations.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1603, entitled:

An Act to amend further section one of the act approved the twentieth day of July one thousand nine hundred seventeen (P. L. 1158 No. 401) entitled "An act to fix regulate and establish the fees to be charged and received by constables in this Commonwealth" reducing the mileage chargeable by constables.

On the question,

Will ths House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILLS RECOMMITTED

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on State Government for the purpose of further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. STACKPOLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House I rise to oppose the motion. This bill, several weeks ago, was sent back to the Committee on Municipal Corporations for further study. At that time I explained that the bill itself was intact except for the fact that a clause had been added cutting down the expense of constables from ten cents a mile to six cents a mile. It seems to me that this is a perfectly simple thing to understand and the fact that the Committee on Municipal Corporations has re-reported this bill to the House would bear me out in that conviction. I do not believe that this motion is a sincere motion for further study of the bill. I honestly believe that it is the intention to kill the bill. I believe that this bill is a very simple bill. There is no reason for sending it back to any committee. If you want to kill this bill or if you want to defeat this bill, that can be done by voting right here on the floor of the House, and I ask the members of the House to vote against the motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON and Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS and were as follows:

There being no objection House Bill No. 1358, Printer's No. 506, was passed over at the request of Mr. McDEVITT.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1733, entitled:

An Act to amend sections four hundred six and four hundred seven of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto," by further regulating depositories of funds of counties of the second class, and the rate of interest to be paid by such depositories to such counties.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2154, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Commonwealth to negotiate temporary emergency loans to defray the current and other expenses of the State government during the two fiscal years beginning the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven, evidenced by tax anticipation notes secured by, and payable from, current revenues, levied, assessed, collectible and accuring during such two fiscal years; defining the powers and duties of the Governor, the Auditor General, and the State Treasurer in relation thereto; providing for the payment of interest on, and the repayment of, such loans; and making an appropriation.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, under section 2, on page 3, of this act—does the gentleman from York have the act before him?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Yes, I do, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, there is no provision in this act that these notes shall be sold after advertising or that these notes should not be sold below par. According to section 2 of this act it is provided that the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer shall alone determine the terms and conditions under which they shall be sold.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. As I read the act, Mr. Speaker, it provides that the bonds shall be sold at an interest rate of not more than four and a half per centum per annum. I think that would preclude the sale of the bonds at a price which would be less or more than four and a half per centum per annum. Now perhaps the interest rate might be one and one half percent, which possibly might necessitate the sale of the bonds below par, but in the aggregate that would not mean that the interest rate would be more than four and a half percent.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, is it not true that in all of the bond issues, municipal bond issues, school board bond issues, that the provisions is made that they shall not be sold for less than par?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. That might be true, Mr. Speaker, but that is only a fiction. As the gentleman from Delaware well knows, the interest rate determines the sales value of the bonds. If the interest rate were four and a half percent and the bonds were sold at premium, above par that would of necessity mean that the interest rate was below four and a half percent. Conversely if the interest was but one and one half percent and the bonds were sold under par that would mean that the intrest was something above four and a half percent.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, that is true as far as the financial arrangements are concerned, but that does not answer the question of the protection that has been placed in all the statutes that I recall pertaining to bond issues of cities, boroughs, townships, and school districts, that they shall not be sold for less than par. May I ask why should not the same protection be incorporated in this provision of the act?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I think, Mr. Speaker, that the protection contained in the act is quite sufficient without the specific interest rate that the bonds should bear being contained in the act. By necessity these bonds are being issued for a specified time, and the bonds must be sold at or approximately par in order to arrive at the maximum interest rate of four and one half percent. I cannot see where any additional safeguard would be given the Commonwealth by the clause which the gentleman from Delaware indicates should be contained in the bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the rate given in the act is not four and a half percent. It says not in excess of four and a half percent, which is the maximum, which would mean that the notes that were issued in 1936 were sold at something over one percent. Now if the notes were sold at a low interest rate like that, they might be sold below par, might they not? Is there not the danger of a note of this kind being sold for less than par?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker from a practical standpoint the gentleman from Delaware is correct.

Mr. TURNER. Yes, Mr. Speaker, from the standpoint of the State, I think the Governor and the Auditor General and the State Treasurer would have to be impeached if they sold them for less than one and a half percent under present market conditions. Therefore, if the interest rate is not determined except that the maximum rate is put in, it seems to me there should be some protection put in as to the discount at which the notes should be sold.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the interrogation of the gentleman from Delaware, I still must reiterate that irrespective of whether the bonds are sold at par, above par or below par, nevertheless the selling price, as the gentleman from Delaware well knows, depends on the interest rate, and as I remember the method at which the previous tax anticipation notes were sold, they were exposed to open biding and even more favorable arrangements were made with the bankers who were taking down the notes from the Commonwealth, and I can assure the gentleman personally that under no circumstances will the Governor or Auditor General or the State Treasurer sell these bonds at an interest rate of above four and a half percent, and I feel sure that the interest rate will be more favorable to the Commonwealth.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, under the present conditions is it not true that these notes are saleable during the two year period?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker that is correct. And for that reason alone I think that we should utilize the experience that we had with the previous tax anticipation notes. We cannot determine what the money market will be six months or twelve months or eighteen months from the time of the enactment of this bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, does not the gentleman believe that there should be some provision that the notes should not be sold for not less than par? Does not the gentleman believe that there should be some provision in the act providing for advertisement of the sale of notes?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker I think the advertisement is a mere superfluity. I think all the bankers will know that there are one hundred and seventy-five million dolars worth of such bonds, and we will have more bids particularly in view of the fact that the investors in our previous tax anticipation notes have had such a very fine experience with their investment.

Mr. TURNER. I was just going to ask the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, Mr. Speaker, whether the bankers did have such a fine experience. Does the gentleman know how much we did borrown under tax anticipation notes during the last biennium?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, if my memory does not fail me the first issue was for fifty-five million immediately after the 1935 session and the second issue was for forty-five million after the 1936 special session.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker I think it was fifty and forty-five or nintey-five million dollars. How much of those notes have been paid off.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I am not in a position to say but I can state for the benefit of the gentleman from Delaware and the members of the House that I am informed that our sinking fund requirements have been met.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker does the gentleman know how much money there is today in the sinking fund?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. No, I do not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, there is about fifty-one million dolars in the sinking fund, and as I understand it, about eleven million of the notes have been paid off leaving thirty-one million dollars yet to be raised in the next six weeks. Can the gentleman from York tell me where the thirty-one million dollars is coming from?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, those figures which the gentleman from Delaware just quoted contain the moneys that have been received by the Department of Revenue under the Ominsky self-assessing feature of the Corporate Tax Act and which have not yet been turned over to the State Treasurer.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, do I understand the gentleman from York to say that there have been receipts by the Department of Revenue which have not yet been turned over to the State Treasurer?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I do not know what the system is, but I imagine with the great influx of checks that the manual operation of opening the returns and depositing the checks would take some time.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker does the gentleman from York know when he will have those figures?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I do not know, Mr. Speaker. I have not made any inquiry. In fact this bill in the previous session was the subject of some discussion and at that time the constitutionality was seriously questioned, and I thought that this bill was such a great step forward in State financing that even the gentleman from Delaware would find no fault with it.

Mr. TURNER. Is it not a fact, Mr. Speaker, that the the State of Pennsylvania receives interest on its deposits in the banks?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I imagine that they do, in fact there was one time that they did. Of course, the gentleman from Delaware knows that it is becoming increasingly difficult to receive interest on demand deposits in banks or trust companies.

Mr. TURNER. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, if there are funds in the hands of the Department of Revenue that have not been turned over to the State Treasury, we are losing interest on those funds.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. That would be true, Mr. Speaker, but the fact is that the amount of interest is so negligible that it makes practicaly no difference, and the gentleman from Delaware knows that banks are refusing demand deposits, particularly where those demand deposits require the payment of interest.

Mr. TURNER. My recollection, however, Mr. Speaker, is that the State law requires that interest be paid on State deposits.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I think that is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, we are losing interest on funds which the Department of Revenue is holding and has not turned over to the Treasurer for deposit, are we not?

Mr. HERBEBRT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, those moneys are being turned over to the general fund as quickly as it is humanly posible to open up the returns and deposit the checks, without putting on a lot of additional help, which would bring further criticism from the gentleman from Delaware.

Mr. TURNER. I would accept the explanation of the gentleman from York were it not for the fact that there is an opportunity for jobs politically, which they will take advantage of.

The SPEAKER. Are the gentlemen discussing the bill before the House?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, we are discussing atmosphere, that is all.

Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from York has said that he is surprised that we would raise any question as to this act, which he said was a great improvement when it passed in 1935 providing for tax anticipation notes. I might say also that I too feel that that was a very good step, and I hoped that it would work out all right, but I am in some serious doubt as I read the statement of April 15 from the Auditor General pertaining to receipts, which shows that in the AT notes, that was the first issue of fifty million dollars of tax notes the sinking fund is twenty-six million eight hundred fifty thousand, dollars, and BT notes of twenty-seven million three hundred dollars for deposit which is just made up of fifteen million dollars in the AT notes and ten million dollars in the BT notes, so that it would take practically twenty-four million dollars to complete the sinking fund for the AT notes and fifteen million dollars to complete the BT notes.

In view of that circumstance it would take a sum, I find, of about thirty-one million dollars,—well, there are eleven million dollars already paid for, and it is a total of thirty-one million dollars as I understand it to complete the payments into the sinking fund for tax anticipation notes.

In addition to that payment you have got to figure that the expenses of the state government have got to be paid during the next six weeks before the end of this biennium. In addition to that we have a deficiency appropriation bill, which I think has passed the House,—I don't know whether it has passed the Senate or not,—which must carry with it somewhere in the neighborhood of ten million dollars of deficiency appropriation.

In addition to that I am advised by some of our school districts that they have not received all of their February 1st payments, and I note there is a balance in the general fund of seven million dollars. Now, ordinarily we might carry over from this biennium a deficit or we might reappropriate after the first of the year, but as I understand the legal situation that is confronting us here, we must pay these notes by May 31 and they have to be paid, as the revenues of the Commonwealth are pledged for the payment,—they will have to be paid before anything else, therefore, our schools, our hospitals and the other operating expenses of our State government,—our payrolls have to be met by the first of May, also payment of the amount that is due to the sinking fund in order to pay for these notes.

I think that presents a very serious problem, and one that we ought to have some further information on before we authorize the issuance in the next biennium of $175,000,000 worth of tax anticipation notes. It might be that if we pass this bill and then the notes are not paid we would have no sale for the second one, and we would have a very serious problem in the next biennium.

I therefore feel that the gentleman from York should not ask for the pasage of this bill tonight, but should hold this bill until we can get the information I suggested a few minutes ago. I think if we have a lot of money that has been turned into the Department of Revenue, a lot of checks which are returns from taxpayers which they have not as yet been able to tabulate and turn over to the State Treasury, that we ought to have some determination of what that amount of money is. The money from the personal property tax was due March 15, and certainly by April 15 the money ought to have been turned over. There will be some further moneys, further payments by April 15 and quarterly it might be a few days before we can get that in, but certainly the greater part of the money that was anticipated in this part of the biennium has been paid by this time, and we should have some idea what that amounts to and whether we are going to be able to pay the tax anticipation notes on May 31 and pay the other obligations of the state government, also bear in mind that we have a deficit of twenty million dollars staring us in the face for the biennium, and if you cannot surmount that problem out of the figures that have been presented, it looks to me as if you are going to have a difficult time and at the same time some of the employes or some of the beneficiaries of the state money are going to be short changed.

I therefore ask the gentleman from York if he will not agree to place this bill on the postponed calendar until we can get this information.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, in answering the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, I can see no necessity at this time for delaying the passage of this bill.

The provisions are quite clear, and those of us who were here in the 1935 Session quite well realize what a remarkable tool and financial assistance the tax anticipation notes were. From the statement read by the gentleman from Delaware, he indicates to this House that there is a necessity of providing some thirty-one millions of dollars of funds in order to complete the sinking fund requirements on the two series of tax anticipation notes that were issued by the Commonwealth.

On April 15 of this year, just four days past, the first payment on the ten percent net income corporation tax was due and payable to the Commonwealth. We have estimated that the ten percent net income tax would bring in five million dollars per percent for the biennium, or two and a half million dollars per percent per year, or a total for the ten percent tax of twenty-five million dollars. Those estimates were based upon the experience which we had in the calculation of the corporate six percent net income tax, which was payable in April, 1936 for the year 1935.

Undoubtedly there will be an increase in payment due to the exceptionally fine net incomes reported by a great number of Pennsylvania corporations, so undoubtedly our estimate of income of twenty-five million dollars for the ten percent corporation net income tax is not an overoptomistic one. With the receipt of the twenty-five million dollars now in the process of being collected part of that payment can be delayed for fifteen days. That will bring into the general fund of the Commonwealth the sum of twenty-five million dollars which was specifically allocated and appropriated by the provisions of the tax anticipation notes act, and the payment to the sinking fund requirement set up under those acts. Up until the present time we have been able to make the sinking fund payments as they have become due, and while we might at the present time be thirty-one million dollars short of meeting the entire sinking fund requirements in order to redeem the notes on their due date, nevertheless our sinking fund payments are exactly on par with the requirements that were set at the time the notes were issued.

In addition to twenty-five million dollars, which will only leave six million dollars to be collected, in order to make up the thirty-one million dollars as indicated by the gentleman from Delaware, there are Liquor Board collections from the ten percent liquor tax, which have not as yet been returned to the general fund, there are also taxes under the four percent distillers tax, which have not been returned to the general fund. There are taxes coming due on the regular general fund collection as well as other tax increments coming into the Commonwealth daily, and we feel more than certain, that we will be able to meet the sinking fund requirements, and pay off the notes as they become due, and we will be able to float a new issue of tax anticipation notes at an interest rate far below the four and a half percent rate, the maximum requirement as set forth in this act. I therefor ask the members of this House to support this bill.

On the question, recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time, House Bill No. 1358, Printer's No. 506, on page 17 of today's calendar, bill on third reading, which was passed over in order.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1358, entitled:

An Act abolishing the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and transferring actions books records documents and papers in the possession of said court to other courts of the County of Philadelphia.

On the question,,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is another Philadelphia ripper. This particular bill is to abolish the Municipal Court as a whole. You will remember last Wednesday we had a bill that applied to the Domestic Relations Branch of that court.

The original substitute was to be a Family Court consisting of five judges—four at $14,000 a year and a president judge at $14,500, total $70,500. In addition, there was to be a Small Claims Court of three judges—two at $7,500 and one at $8,000, total $23,000; grand total $93,500. At present there are ten judges at $10,000 per year and a president judge at $10,500, total, $110,500.

The Small Claims Court was praised to the sky by Jack Kelley, and the Shapiro Committee. The poor man was to have his court. The present Municipal Court was criticized for having outgrown that service. But, alas—the Democrats, now that election day is past, have ripped out their own suggestion and sold the poor man down the river for Common Pleas No. 7 and three fat judgeships. So now, it is necessary to re-tally our estimate of the cost of shot-gun justice.

We are standing pat on eleven Municipal Court judges at $110,500 but our Democratic friends with the penchant for destroying the established and rebuilding with material more easily shuffled, have re-dealt the hand.

Now, I understand and correct me if I am wrong, the set-up is four Family Court judges—$56,500 and Common Pleas No. 7 at $42,500, a total of $99,000. Then, of course let us not too quickly forget Common Pleas No. 6 at $42,-500, for our constituents won't, which brings the cost to $141,500. In other words, not Philadelphia, but the people of Pennsylvania who pay judges' salaries will find the bill henceforth $31,000 per year more. Rippers have yet to prove economical when the substitute is placed in actual operation. Also, we have the little item of $565,000 consisting of salaries to be paid the presently elected and qualified judges of the Municipal Court for the balance of their terms.

On that point, we of course remember the intricate plan outlined by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Ominsky to divest the judges not only of the office to which they were elected by the people of Philadelphia, but also deprive them of the increments of that office. When a lawyer goes on the bench, he gives up private practice. A practice is something which is attained only by hard application to the profession. A judge cannot leave the bench in his fifties or sixties and pick up where he left off ten or twenty years before. Why discuss that point further. As a practical matter he is through, and I for one believe a deposed judge would be entitled to his salary morally and legally.

Now let us consider the practical side of this ripper. More than twenty years ago, Philadelphia lawyers decided that in the Common Pleas Courts it took years to dispose of a case. Also that actions involving smaller sums of money or lesser injury were more or less lost in the shuffle when mixed in with cases involving more substantial sums.

Since its inception, more than 275,000 civil actions have been submitted to that court. Perhaps they were cases of lessor magnitude, financially, but they were just as important in each individual instance to the litigants as the larger ones.

The Democrats propose to dump these 10,000 cases a year into the Common Pleas Court and say "Oh, Common Pleas No. 7 will take care of them." If my Democratic lawyer friends would walk over to City Hall and talk to the men who have active court practices, they will discover those members of the bar up in arms.
